- (b) if the company's Memorandum of Incorporation includes any provision contemplated in section 15 (2) (b) or (c) restricting or prohibiting the amendment of any particular provision of the Memorandum, the name must be immediately followed by the expression "(RF)"; and

[Sub-s. (4) substituted by s. 6 (f) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

12. Reservation of name and defensive names.—(1) A person may reserve one or more names to be used at a later time, either for a newly incorporated company, or as an amendment to the name of an existing company, by filing an application together with the prescribed fee.

(2) The Commission must reserve each name as applied for in the name of the applicant, unless—

- (a) the applicant is prohibited, in terms of section 11 (2) (a), from using the name as applied for; or
- (b) the name as applied for is already reserved in terms of this section.

[Sub-s. (2) substituted by s. 7 (a) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

(3) If, upon reserving a name in terms of subsection (2), there are reasonable grounds for considering that the name may be inconsistent with the requirements of—

(a) section 11 (2) (b) or (c)—

- (i) the Commission, by written notice, may require the applicant to serve a copy of the application and name reservation on any particular person, or class of persons, named in the notice, on the grounds that the person or persons may have an interest in the use of the name that has been reserved for the applicant; and
- (ii) any person to whom a notice is required to be given in terms of subparagraph (i) may apply to the Companies Tribunal for a determination and order in terms of section 160; or

(5) A person for whom a name has been reserved in terms of subsection (2) may transfer that reservation to another person by filing a signed notice of the transfer together with the prescribed fee.

(6) If the Commission reasonably believes that an applicant in terms of subsection (1), a person to whom a reserved name is to be transferred, or a person for whom a name is reserved, may be attempting to abuse the name reservation system for the purpose of selling access to names, or trading in or marketing names, the Commission may issue a notice to that person—

- (a) requiring the person to show cause why that name should be reserved or continue to be reserved, or why the reservation should be transferred;
- (b) refusing to extend a name reservation upon its expiry;
- (c) refusing to transfer a reserved name; or
- (d) cancelling a name reservation.

(7) If, as a result of a pattern of conduct by a person, or two or more persons who are related or inter-related, the Commission has reasonable grounds to believe that the person or persons have abused the name reservation system by—

- (a) selling access to names, or trading in or marketing reserved names; or
- (b) repeatedly attempting to reserve names for the purpose of selling access to names, or trading in or marketing reserved names, the Commission may apply to a court for an order prohibiting the person or persons from applying to reserve any names in terms of this section for a period that the court considers just and reasonable in the circumstances.

(8) In considering whether a person has abused, or may be attempting to abuse, the name reservation system as contemplated in subsection (6) or (7), the Commission, Tribunal or a court may consider any relevant conduct by that person or any related or inter-related person, including—

- (a) the reservation of more than one name in a single application or a series of applications;
- (b) a pattern of repetitious applications to reserve a particular name or a number of substantially similar names, or to extend the reservation of a particular name;
- (c) a failure to show good cause for a reservation period to be extended; or

[Sub-s. (8) amended by s. 7 (d) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

(9) Any person may on application on the prescribed form and on payment of the prescribed fee apply to the Commission to—

- (a) register any name as a defensive name for a period of two years; or
- (b) renew, for a period of two years, the registration of a name as a defensive name, in respect of which he or she has furnished proof, to the satisfaction of the Commission, that he or she has a direct and material interest.

(10) The registration of a defensive name may be transferred to another person by notice in the prescribed manner and form and upon payment of the prescribed fee.

[Sub-s. (10) inserted by s. 7 (e) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

(4) The Commission—

- (i) the initial directors of the company, as set out in the Notice, are fewer than required by or in terms of section 66 (2); or
- (ii) the Commission reasonably believes that any of the initial directors of the company, as set out in the Notice, are disqualified in terms of section 69 (8), and the remaining directors are fewer than required by or in terms of section 66 (2).

(5) Subject to subsections (6) and (7), a foreign company may apply in the prescribed manner and form, accompanied by the prescribed application fee, to transfer its registration to the Republic from the foreign jurisdiction in which it is registered, and thereafter exists as a company in terms of this Act as if it had been originally so incorporated and registered.

[Sub-s. (5) inserted by s. 8 (d) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

(6) A foreign company may transfer its registration as contemplated in subsection (5) if—

- (a) the law of the jurisdiction in which the company is registered permits such a transfer, and the company has complied with the requirements of that law in relation to the transfer;
- (b) the transfer has been approved by the company's shareholders—
 - (i) in accordance with the law of the jurisdiction in which the company is registered, if that law imposes such a requirement; or
 - (ii) by the equivalent of a special resolution in terms of this Act, if the law of the jurisdiction in which the company is registered does not require such shareholder approval;
- (c) the whole or greater part of its assets and undertaking are within the Republic, other than the assets and undertaking of any subsidiary that is incorporated outside the Republic;
- (d) the majority of its shareholders are resident in the Republic;

- (f) immediately following the transfer of registration, the company—

 - (ii) will no longer be registered in another jurisdiction.

[Sub-s. (6) inserted by s. 8 (d) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

(7) Despite satisfying the requirements of subsection (6), a foreign company may not transfer its registration to the Republic as contemplated in subsection (5) if—

[Sub-s. (9) inserted by s. 8 (d) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

(10) Upon compliance of the requirements for registration of a domesticated company as contemplated in terms of this section, the Commissioner must issue to such company a registration certificate to the effect that such registration has taken place and that it deemed that the company has been incorporated under this Act.

[Sub-s. (10) inserted by s. 8 (d) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

(11) The registration of a domesticated company in terms of subsections (5) to (9) does not—

[Sub-s. (1) amended by s. 9 (a) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

(2) If the name of a company, as entered on the Notice of Incorporation—

(ii) must invite the company to file an amended Notice of Incorporation using a satisfactory name; and

(iii) when the company files such an amended Notice of Incorporation, must—

(aa) enter the company's amended name in the companies register; and

(bb) issue and deliver to the company an amended registration certificate showing the amended name of the company.

[Para. (b) amended by s. 9 (b) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

- (b) the company must issue those shares and cause the name of the holder to be entered on the company's securities register in accordance with Part E of this Chapter.

(5) If the consideration for any shares that are issued or to be issued is in the form of an instrument such that the value of the consideration cannot be realised by the company until a date after the time the shares are to be issued, or is in the form of an agreement for future services, future benefits or future payment by the subscribing party—

- (a) the consideration for those shares is regarded as having been received by the company at any time only to the extent—
 - (i) that the value of the consideration for any of those shares has been realised by the company; or

[Sub-para. (i) substituted by s. 28 (b) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

- (ii) that the subscribing party to the agreement has fulfilled its obligations in terms of the agreement; and

(b) upon receiving the instrument or entering into the agreement, the company must—

- (i) issue the shares immediately; and
- (ii) cause the issued shares to be transferred to a third party, to be held in trust and later transferred to the subscribing party in accordance with a trust agreement.

[Sub-s. (5) amended by s. 28 (a) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

(6) Except to the extent that a trust agreement contemplated in subsection (5) (b) provides otherwise—

- (a) voting rights, and appraisal rights set out in section 164, associated with shares that have been issued but are held in trust may not be exercised;
- (b) any pre-emptive rights associated with shares that have been issued but are held in trust may be exercised only to the extent that the instrument has become negotiable by the company or the subscribing party has fulfilled its obligations under the agreement;
- (c) any distribution with respect to shares that have been issued but are held in trust—

- (i) must be paid or credited by the company to the subscribing party to the extent that the instrument has become negotiable by the company or the subscribing party has fulfilled its obligations under the agreement; and
 - (ii) may be credited against the remaining value at that time of any services still to be performed by the subscribing party, any future payment remaining due, or the benefits still to be received by the company; and
- (d) shares that have been issued but are held in trust—
- (i) may not be transferred by or at the direction of the subscribing party unless the company has expressly consented to the transfer in advance;
 - (ii) may be transferred to the subscribing party on a quarterly basis, to the extent that the instrument has become negotiable by the company or the subscribing party has fulfilled its obligations under the agreement;
 - (iii) must be transferred to the subscribing party when the instrument has become negotiable by the company, or upon satisfaction of all of the subscribing party's obligations in terms of the agreement; and
 - (iv) to the extent that the instrument is dishonoured after becoming negotiable, or that the subscribing party has failed to fulfil its obligations under the agreement, must be returned to the company and cancelled, on demand by the company.
- (7) A company may not make a demand contemplated in subsection (6) (d) (iv) unless—
- (a) a negotiable instrument is dishonoured after becoming negotiable by the company; or
 - (b) in the case of an agreement, the subscribing party has failed to fulfil any obligation in terms of the agreement for a period of at least 40 business days after the date on which the obligation was due to be fulfilled.

41. Shareholder approval for issuing shares in certain cases.—(1) Subject to subsection (2), an issue of shares or securities convertible into shares, or a grant of options contemplated in section 42, or a grant of any other rights exercisable for securities, must be approved by a special resolution of the shareholders of a company, if the shares, securities, options or rights are issued to a—

- (a) director, future director, prescribed officer, or future prescribed officer of the company;
 - (b) person related or inter-related to the company, or to a director or prescribed officer of the company; or
 - (c) nominee of a person contemplated in paragraph (a) or (b).
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply if the issue of shares, securities or rights is—
- (a) under an agreement underwriting the shares, securities or rights;
 - (b) in the exercise of a pre-emptive right to be offered and to subscribe shares, as contemplated in section 39;
 - (c) in proportion to existing holdings, and on the same terms and conditions as have been offered to all the shareholders of the company or to all the shareholders of the class or classes of shares being issued;
 - (d) pursuant to an employee share scheme that satisfies the requirements of section 97; or
 - (e) pursuant to an offer to the public, as defined in section 95 (1) (h), read with section 96.

(3) An issue of shares, securities convertible into shares, or rights exercisable for shares in a transaction, or a series of integrated transactions, requires approval of the shareholders by special resolution if the voting power of the class of shares that are issued or issuable as a result of the transaction or series of integrated transactions will be equal to or exceed 30% of the voting power of all the shares of that class held by shareholders immediately before the transaction or series of transactions.

(4) In subsection (3)—

- (a) for purposes of determining the voting power of shares issued and issuable as a result of a transaction or series of integrated transactions, the voting power of shares is the greater of—
 - (i) the voting power of the shares to be issued; or
 - (ii) the voting power of the shares that would be issued after giving effect to the conversion of convertible shares and other securities and the exercise of rights to be issued;
- (b) a series of transactions is integrated if—
 - (i) consummation of one transaction is made contingent on consummation of one or more of the other transactions; or
 - (ii) the transactions are entered into within a 12-month period, and involve the same parties, or related persons; and—
 - (aa) they involve the acquisition or disposal of an interest in one particular company or asset; or
 - (bb) taken together, they lead to substantial involvement in a business activity that did not previously form part of the company's principal activity.

(5) A director of a company is liable to the extent set out in section 77 (3) (e) (ii) if the director—

- (a) was present at a meeting when the board approved the issue of any securities as contemplated in this section, or participated in the making of such a decision in terms of section 74; and
- (b) failed to vote against the issue of those securities, despite knowing that the issue of those securities was inconsistent with this section.

(6) In this section, "future director" or "future prescribed officer" does not include a person who becomes a director or prescribed officer of the company more than six months after acquiring a particular option or right.

42. Options for subscription of securities.—(1) A company may issue options for the allotment or subscription of authorised shares or other securities of the company.

(2) The board of a company must determine the consideration or other benefit for which, and the terms upon which—

- (a) any options are issued; and
- (b) the related shares or other securities are to be issued.

(3) A decision by the board that the company may issue—

- (a) any options, constitutes also the decision of the board to issue any authorised shares or other securities for which the options may be exercised; or
- (b) any securities convertible into shares of any class, constitutes also the decision of the board to issue the authorised shares into which the securities may be converted.

(4) A director of a company is liable to the extent set out in section 77 (3) (e) (iii) if the director—

- (a) was present at a meeting when the board approved the granting of an option or a right as contemplated in this section, or participated in the making of such a decision in terms of section 74; and
- (b) failed to vote against the granting of the option or right, despite knowing that any shares—
 - (i) for which the options could be exercised; or

- (ii) into which any securities could be converted,
had not been authorised in terms of section 36.

43. Securities other than shares.—(1) In this section—

(a) “debt instrument”—

- (i) includes any securities other than the shares of a company, irrespective of whether or not issued in terms of a security document, such as a trust deed; but
- (ii) does not include promissory notes and loans, whether constituting an encumbrance on the assets of the company or not; and

(b) “security document” includes any document by which a debt instrument is offered or proposed to be offered, embodying the terms and conditions of the debt instrument including, but not limited to, a trust deed or certificate.

(2) The board of a company—

(a) may authorise the company to issue a secured or unsecured debt instrument at any time, except to the extent provided otherwise by the company’s Memorandum of Incorporation; and

[Para. (a) substituted by s. 29 of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

(b) must determine whether each such debt instrument is secured or unsecured.

(3) Except to the extent that a company’s Memorandum of Incorporation provides otherwise, a debt instrument issued by the company may grant special privileges regarding—

(a) attending and voting at general meetings and the appointment of directors; or

(b) allotment of securities, redemption by the company, or substitution of the debt instrument for shares of the company, provided that the securities to be allotted or substituted in terms of any such privilege, are authorised by or in terms of the company’s Memorandum of Incorporation in accordance with section 36.

(4) Every security document must clearly indicate, on its first page, whether the relevant debt instrument is secured or unsecured.

(5) A company may appoint any person, including a juristic person, as trustee for the holders of the company’s debt instruments, if—

(a) the person—

- (i) is not a director or prescribed officer of the company, or a person related or inter-related to the company, a director or a prescribed officer; and
- (ii) does not have any interest in, or relationship with, the company that might conflict with the duties of a trustee; and

(b) the board is satisfied that the person has the requisite knowledge and experience to carry out the duties of a trustee.

(6) Any new trustee appointed for the purpose of this section must—

(a) satisfy the requirements of subsection (5) (a); and

(b) be approved by the holders of at least 75% by value of debt instruments present at a meeting called for that purpose.

(7) Any provision contained in a trust deed for securing any debt instruments, or in any agreement with the holders of any debt instruments secured by a trust deed, is void to the extent that it would exempt a trustee from, or indemnify a trustee against, liability for breach of trust, or failure to exercise the degree of care and diligence required of the prudent and careful person, having regard to the provisions of the trust deed respecting the powers, authorities or discretions of the trustee.

(8) Subsection (7) does not invalidate—

- (a) any release validly given in respect of anything done or omitted to be done by a trustee before the giving of the release; or
- (b) any provision of a debt instrument—
 - (i) enabling a release to be given with the consent of the majority of not less than three fourths in value of the holders of debt instruments present and voting at a meeting called for the purpose; and
 - (ii) with respect to a specific act or omission, or of the trustee dying or ceasing to act.

44. Financial assistance for subscription of securities.—(1) In this section, “financial assistance” does not include lending money in the ordinary course of business by a company whose primary business is the lending of money.

(2) Except to the extent that the Memorandum of Incorporation of a company provides otherwise, the board may authorise the company to provide financial assistance by way of a loan, guarantee, the provision of security or otherwise to any person for the purpose of, or in connection with, the subscription of any option, or any securities, issued or to be issued by the company or a related or inter-related company, or for the purchase of any securities of the company or a related or inter-related company, subject to subsections (3) and (4).

(3) Despite any provision of a company’s Memorandum of Incorporation to the contrary, the board may not authorise any financial assistance contemplated in subsection (2), unless—

- (a) the particular provision of financial assistance is—
 - (i) pursuant to an employee share scheme that satisfies the requirements of section 97; or
 - (ii) pursuant to a special resolution of the shareholders, adopted within the previous two years, which approved such assistance either for the specific recipient, or generally for a category of potential recipients, and the specific recipient falls within that category; and
- (b) the board is satisfied that—
 - (i) immediately after providing the financial assistance, the company would satisfy the solvency and liquidity test; and
 - (ii) the terms under which the financial assistance is proposed to be given are fair and reasonable to the company.

(4) In addition to satisfying the requirements of subsection (3), the board must ensure that any conditions or restrictions respecting the granting of financial assistance set out in the company’s Memorandum of Incorporation have been satisfied.

(5) A decision by the board of a company to provide financial assistance contemplated in subsection (2), or an agreement with respect to the provision of any such assistance, is void to the extent that the provision of that assistance would be inconsistent with—

- (a) this section; or
- (b) a prohibition, condition or requirement contemplated in subsection (4).

(6) If a resolution or an agreement is void in terms of subsection (5) a director of a company is liable to the extent set out in section 77 (3) (e) (iv) if the director—

- (a) was present at the meeting when the board approved the resolution or agreement, or participated in the making of such a decision in terms of section 74; and

- (b) failed to vote against the resolution or agreement, despite knowing that the provision of financial assistance was inconsistent with this section or a prohibition, condition or requirement contemplated in subsection (4).

[Sub-s. (6) amended by s. 30 (b) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

45. Loans or other financial assistance to directors.—(1) In this section, “financial assistance”—

- (a) includes lending money, guaranteeing a loan or other obligation, and securing any debt or obligation; but
- (b) does not include—
- (i) lending money in the ordinary course of business by a company whose primary business is the lending of money;
 - (ii) an accountable advance to meet—
 - (aa) legal expenses in relation to a matter concerning the company; or
 - (bb) anticipated expenses to be incurred by the person on behalf of the company; or
 - (iii) an amount to defray the person’s expenses for removal at the company’s request.

(2) Except to the extent that the Memorandum of Incorporation of a company provides otherwise, the board may authorise the company to provide direct or indirect financial assistance to a director or prescribed officer of the company or of a related or inter-related company, or to a related or inter-related company or corporation, or to a member of a related or inter-related corporation, or to a person related to any such company, corporation, director, prescribed officer or member, subject to subsections (3) and (4).

(3) Despite any provision of a company’s Memorandum of Incorporation to the contrary, the board may not authorise any financial assistance contemplated in subsection (2), unless—

- (a) the particular provision of financial assistance is—
- (i) pursuant to an employee share scheme that satisfies the requirements of section 97; or
 - (ii) pursuant to a special resolution of the shareholders, adopted within the previous two years, which approved such assistance either for the specific recipient, or generally for a category of potential recipients, and the specific recipient falls within that category; and
- (b) the board is satisfied that—
- (i) immediately after providing the financial assistance, the company would satisfy the solvency and liquidity test; and
 - (ii) the terms under which the financial assistance is proposed to be given are fair and reasonable to the company; and

(4) In addition to satisfying the requirements of subsection (3), the board must ensure that any conditions or restrictions respecting the granting of financial assistance set out in the company’s Memorandum of Incorporation have been satisfied.

(5) If the board of a company adopts a resolution to do anything contemplated in subsection (2), the company must provide written notice of that resolution to all shareholders, unless every shareholder is also a director of the company, and to any trade union representing its employees—

- (a) within 10 business days after the board adopts the resolution, if the total value of all loans, debts, obligations or assistance contemplated in that resolution, together with any previous such resolution during the financial year, exceeds one-tenth of 1% of the company's net worth at the time of the resolution; or

(b) within 30 business days after the end of the financial year, in any other case.

(6) A resolution by the board of a company to provide financial assistance contemplated in subsection (2), or an agreement with respect to the provision of any such assistance, is void to the extent that the provision of that assistance would be inconsistent with—

(a) this section; or

(b) a prohibition, condition or requirement contemplated in subsection (4).

(7) If a resolution or an agreement is void in terms of subsection (6) a director of a company is liable to the extent set out in section 77 (3) (e) (v) if the director—

(a) was present at the meeting when the board approved the resolution or agreement, or participated in the making of such a decision in terms of section 74; and

(b) failed to vote against the resolution or agreement, despite knowing that the provision of financial assistance was inconsistent with this section or a prohibition, condition or requirement contemplated in subsection (4).

[Sub-s. (7) amended by s. 31 (b) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

46. Distributions must be authorised by board.—(1) A company must not make any proposed distribution unless—

(a) the distribution—

(i) is pursuant to an existing legal obligation of the company, or a court order; or

(ii) the board of the company, by resolution, has authorised the distribution;

(b) it reasonably appears that the company will satisfy the solvency and liquidity test immediately after completing the proposed distribution; and

(c) the board of the company, by resolution, has acknowledged that it has applied the solvency and liquidity test, as set out in section 4, and reasonably concluded that the company will satisfy the solvency and liquidity test immediately after completing the proposed distribution.

(2) When the board of a company has adopted a resolution contemplated in subsection (1) (c), the relevant distribution must be fully carried out, subject only to subsection (3).

(3) If the distribution contemplated in a particular board resolution, court order or existing legal obligation has not been completed within 120 business days after the board made the acknowledgement required by subsection (1) (c), or after a fresh acknowledgement being made in terms of this subsection, as the case may be—

(a) the board must reconsider the solvency and liquidity test with respect to the remaining distribution to be made pursuant to the original resolution, order or obligation; and

(b) despite any law, order or agreement to the contrary, the company must not proceed with or continue with any such distribution unless the board adopts a further resolution as contemplated in subsection (1) (c).

(4) If a distribution takes the form of the incurrance of a debt or other obligation by the company, as contemplated in paragraph (b) of the definition of "distribution" set out in section 1, the requirements of this section—

(a) apply at the time that the board resolves that the company may incur that debt or obligation; and

(b) do not apply to any subsequent action of the company in satisfaction of that debt or obligation, except to the extent that the resolution, or the terms and conditions of the debt or obligation, provide otherwise.

(5) If, after considering the solvency and liquidity test as required by this section, it appears to the company that the section prohibits its immediate compliance with a court order contemplated in subsection (1) (a) (i)—

- (a) the company may apply to a court for an order varying the original order; and
- (b) the court may make an order that—
 - (i) is just and equitable, having regard to the financial circumstances of the company; and
 - (ii) ensures that the person to whom the company is required to make a payment in terms of the original order is paid at the earliest possible date compatible with the company satisfying its other financial obligations as they fall due and payable.

(6) A director of a company is liable to the extent set out in section 77 (3) (e) (vi) if the director—

- (a) was present at the meeting when the board approved a distribution as contemplated in this section, or participated in the making of such a decision in terms of section 74; and
- (b) failed to vote against the distribution, despite knowing that the distribution was contrary to this section.

47. Capitalisation shares.—(1) Except to the extent that a company's Memorandum of Incorporation provides otherwise—

- (a) the board of that company, by resolution, may approve the issuing of any authorised shares of the company, as capitalisation shares, on a pro rata basis to the shareholders of one or more classes of shares;
- (b) shares of one class may be issued as a capitalisation share in respect of shares of another class; and
- (c) subject to subsection (2), when resolving to award a capitalisation share, the board may at the same time resolve to permit any shareholder entitled to receive such an award to elect instead to receive a cash payment, at a value determined by the board.

(2) The board of a company may not resolve to offer a cash payment in lieu of awarding a capitalisation share, as contemplated in subsection (1) (c), unless the board—

- (a) has considered the solvency and liquidity test, as required by section 46, on the assumption that every such shareholder would elect to receive cash; and
- (b) is satisfied that the company would satisfy the solvency and liquidity test immediately upon the completion of the distribution.

48. Company or subsidiary acquiring company's shares.—(1) This section does not apply to—

- (a) the making of a demand, tendering of shares and payment by a company to a shareholder in terms of a shareholder's appraisal rights set out in section 164; or
- (b) the redemption by the company of any redeemable securities in accordance with the terms and conditions of those securities.

[Sub-s. (1) substituted by s. 32 (a) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

(2) Subject to subsections (3) and (8), and if the decision to do so satisfies the requirements of section 46—

- (a) the board of a company may determine that the company will acquire a number of its own shares; and [Para. (a) substituted by s. 32 (c) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

- (b) the board of a subsidiary company may determine that it will acquire shares of its holding company, but—

[Para. (b) substituted by s. 32 (c) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

- (i) not more than 10%, in aggregate, of the number of issued shares of any class of shares of a company may be held by, or for the benefit of, all of the subsidiaries of that company, taken together; and
- (ii) no voting rights attached to those shares may be exercised while the shares are held by the subsidiary, and it remains a subsidiary of the company whose shares it holds.

(3) Despite any provision of any law, agreement, order or the Memorandum of Incorporation of a company, the company may not acquire its own shares, and a subsidiary of a company may not acquire shares of that company, if, as a result of that acquisition, there would no longer be any shares of the company in issue other than—

- (a) shares held by one or more subsidiaries of the company; or
- (b) convertible or redeemable shares.

(4) An agreement with a company providing for the acquisition by the company of shares issued by it is enforceable against the company, subject to subsections (2) and (3).

(5) If a company alleges that, as a result of the operation of subsection (2) or (3), it is unable to fulfil its obligations in terms of an agreement contemplated in subsection (4)—

- (a) the company must apply to a court for an order in terms of paragraph (c);
- (b) the company has the burden of proving that fulfilment of its obligations would put it in breach of subsections (2) or (3); and
- (c) if the court is satisfied that the company is prevented from fulfilling its obligations pursuant to the agreement, the court may make an order that—
- (i) is just and equitable, having regard to the financial circumstances of the company; and
- (ii) ensures that the person to whom the company is required to make a payment in terms of the agreement is paid at the earliest possible date compatible with the company satisfying its other financial obligations as they fall due and payable.

(6) If a company acquires any shares contrary to section 46, or this section, the company must, not more than two years after the acquisition, apply to a court for an order reversing the acquisition, and the court may order—

- (a) the person from whom the shares were acquired to return the amount paid by the company; and
- (b) the company to issue to that person an equivalent number of shares of the same class as those acquired.

[Sub-s. (6) amended by s. 32 (d) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

(7) A director of a company is liable to the extent set out in section 77 (3) (e) (vii) if the director—

- (a) was present at the meeting when the board approved an acquisition of shares contemplated in this section, or participated in the making of such a decision in terms of section 74; and
- (b) failed to vote against the acquisition of shares, despite knowing that the acquisition was contrary to this section or section 46.

(8) A decision by the board of a company contemplated in subsection (2) (a)—

- (a) must be approved by a special resolution of the shareholders of the company if any shares are to be acquired by the company from a director or prescribed officer of the company, or a person related to a director or prescribed officer of the company; and
- (b) is subject to the requirements of sections 114 and 115 if, considered alone, or together with other transactions in an integrated series of transactions, it involves the acquisition by the company of more than 5% of the issued shares of any particular class of the company's shares.

[Sub-s. (8) inserted by s. 32 (e) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

Part E
Securities registration and transfer

49. Securities to be evidenced by certificates or uncertificated.—(1) In this Part, “certificated” means evidenced by a certificate, as contemplated in subsection (2) (a).

(2) Any securities issued by a company must be either—

- (a) evidenced by certificates; or
- (b) uncertificated, in which case the company must not issue certificates evidencing or purporting to evidence title to those securities, subject to subsection (6).

(3) Except to the extent that this Act expressly provides otherwise—

- (a) the rights and obligations of security holders are not different solely on the basis of their respective securities being certificated or uncertificated; and
- (b) any provision of this Act applies with respect to any uncertificated securities in the same manner as it applies to certificated securities.

(4) Sections 52 to 55—

- (a) apply only to uncertificated securities; and
- (b) prevail in the case of a conflict between any provision of those sections and any other provision of this Act, any other law, the common law, the company's Memorandum of Incorporation or any agreement.

(5) Any certificated securities may cease to be evidenced by certificates, and thereafter be uncertificated, in which case any provision of this Act contemplated in subsection (4) applies to those securities from the date on which they ceased to be evidenced by certificates.

(6) In the manner set out in section 54, any uncertificated securities may be withdrawn from the uncertificated securities register, and certificates issued evidencing those securities, in which case from the date on which they became certificated—

- (a) sections 52 to 55 cease to apply to those securities; and
- (b) for greater certainty, transfer of ownership in those securities cannot be effected by a participant or central securities depository while they remain in certificated form, unless they are held in certificated form in collective custody by the participant or central securities depository.

[Para. (b) substituted by s. 33 of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

(7) The Minister may make regulations regarding matters that are supplementary and ancillary to the provisions of this Part.

50. Securities register and numbering.—(1) Every company must—

- (a) establish or cause to be established a register of its issued securities in the prescribed form; and

(b) maintain its securities register in accordance with the prescribed standards.

(2) As soon as practicable after issuing any securities a company must enter or cause to be entered in its securities register, in respect of every class of securities that it has issued—

(a) the total number of those securities that are held in uncertificated form; and

(b) with respect to certificated securities—

(i) the names and addresses of the persons to whom the securities were issued;

(ii) the number of securities issued to each of them;

(iii) the number of, and prescribed circumstances relating to, any securities—

(aa) that have been placed in trust as contemplated in section 40 (6) (d); or

(bb) whose transfer has been restricted;

(iv) in the case of securities contemplated in section 43—

(aa) the number of those securities issued and outstanding; and

[Sub-item (aa) substituted by s. 34 of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

(bb) the names and addresses of the registered owner of the security and any holders of a beneficial interest in the security; and

(v) any other prescribed information.

(3) If a company has issued uncertificated securities, or has issued securities that have ceased to be certificated, as contemplated in section 49 (5), a record must be administered and maintained by a participant or central securities depository in the prescribed form, as the company's uncertificated securities register, which—

(a) forms part of that company's securities register; and

(b) must contain, with respect to all securities contemplated in this subsection, any details—

(i) referred to in subsection (2) (b), read with the changes required by the context; or

(ii) determined by the rules of the central securities depository.

(4) A securities register, or an uncertificated securities register, maintained in accordance with this Act is sufficient proof of the facts recorded in it, in the absence of evidence to the contrary.

(5) Unless all the shares of a company rank equally for all purposes, the company's shares, or each class of shares, and any other securities, must be distinguished by an appropriate numbering system.

51. Registration and transfer of certificated securities.—(1) A certificate evidencing any certificated securities of a company—

(a) must state on its face—

(i) the name of the issuing company;

(ii) the name of the person to whom the securities were issued;

(iii) the number and class of shares and the designation of the series, if any, evidenced by that certificate; and

(iv) any restriction on the transfer of the securities evidenced by that certificate, subject to item 6 (4) of Schedule 5;

(b) must be signed by two persons authorised by the company's board; and

(c) is proof that the named security holder owns the securities, in the absence of evidence to the contrary.

(2) A signature contemplated in subsection (1) (b) may be affixed to or placed on the certificate by autographic, mechanical or electronic means.

(3) A certificate remains valid despite the subsequent departure from office of any person who signed it.

(4) If, as contemplated in section 50 (5), all of a company's shares rank equally for all purposes, and are therefore not distinguished by a numbering system—

- (a) each certificate issued in respect of those shares must be distinguished by a numbering system; and
- (b) if the share has been transferred, the certificate must be endorsed with a reference number or similar device that will enable each preceding holder of the share in succession to be identified.

(5) Subject to subsection (6), a company must enter in its securities register every transfer of any certificated securities, including in the entry—

- (a) the name and address of the transferee;
- (b) the description of the securities, or interest transferred;
- (c) the date of the transfer; and
- (d) the value of any consideration still to be received by the company on each share or interest, in the case of a transfer of securities contemplated in section 40 (5) and (6).

(6) A company may make an entry contemplated in subsection (5) only if the transfer—

- (a) is evidenced by a proper instrument of transfer that has been delivered to the company; or
- (b) was effected by operation of law.

52. Registration of uncertificated securities.—(1) At the request of a company, and on payment of the prescribed fee, if any, a participant or central securities depository, as determined in accordance with the rules of the central securities depository, must furnish that company with all details of that company's uncertificated securities reflected in the uncertificated securities register.

(2) A person who wishes to inspect an uncertificated securities register may do so only—

- (a) through the relevant company in terms of section 26; and
- (b) in accordance with the rules of the central securities depository.

(3) Within five business days after the date of a request for inspection, a company must produce a record of the uncertificated securities register, which record must reflect at least the details referred to in section 50 (3) (b) at the close of business on the day on which the request for inspection was made.

(4) A participant or central securities depository, determined in accordance with the rules of the central securities depository—

- (a) must provide a regular statement at prescribed intervals to each person for whom any uncertificated securities are held in an uncertificated securities register, setting out the number and identity of the uncertificated securities held on that person's behalf;
- (b) must not impose a charge for a statement on the person entitled to the statement; and
- (c) may impose a charge or service fee for such a statement on the relevant company in accordance with the regulations.

(5) The regulations contemplated in section 49 (7) may provide for a charge or service fee for statements contemplated in subsection (4) (c).

53. Transfer of uncertificated securities.—(1) The transfer of uncertificated securities in an uncertificated securities register may be effected only—

- (a) by a participant or central securities depository;
 - (b) on receipt of—
 - (i) an instruction to transfer sent and properly authenticated in terms of the rules of a central securities depository; or
 - (ii) an order of a court; and
 - (c) in accordance with this section and the rules of the central securities depository.
- (2) Transfer of ownership in any uncertificated securities must be effected by—
- (a) debiting the account in the uncertificated securities register from which the transfer is effected; and
 - (b) crediting the account in the uncertificated securities register to which the transfer is effected, in accordance with the rules of a central securities depository.

(3) The requirements of section 51 (5), read with the changes required by the context, apply with respect to a transfer of uncertificated securities.

(4) A transfer of ownership in accordance with this section occurs despite any fraud, illegality or insolvency that may—

- (a) affect the relevant uncertificated securities; or
- (b) have resulted in the transfer being effected,

but a transferee who was a party to or had knowledge of the fraud or illegality, or had knowledge of the insolvency, as the case may be, may not rely on this subsection.

(5) A court may not order the name of a transferee contemplated in this section to be removed from an uncertificated securities register, unless that person was a party to or had knowledge of a fraud or illegality as contemplated in subsection (4).

(6) Nothing in this section prejudices any power of a participant or central securities depository, as the case may be, to effect a transfer to a person to whom the right to any uncertificated securities of a company has been transmitted by operation of law.

54. Substitution of certificated or uncertificated securities.—(1) A person who wishes to withdraw all or part of the uncertificated securities held by that person in an uncertificated securities register, and obtain a certificate in respect of those withdrawn securities, may so notify the relevant participant or central securities depository, as determined in accordance with the rules of the central securities depository, which must within five business days—

- (a) notify the relevant company to provide the requested certificate; and
- (b) remove the details of the uncertificated securities from the uncertificated securities register.

(2) After receiving a notice in terms of subsection (1) (a) from a participant or central securities depository, as the case may be, a company must—

- (a) immediately enter the relevant person's name and details of that person's holding of securities in the company's securities register and indicate on the register that the securities so withdrawn are no longer held in uncertificated form; and
- (b) within 10 business days, or 20 business days in the case of a holder of securities who is not resident within the Republic—
 - (i) prepare and deliver to the relevant person a certificate in respect of the securities; and

- (ii) notify the central securities depository that the securities are no longer held in uncertificated form.

(3) A company may charge a holder of its securities a reasonable fee to cover the actual costs of issuing a certificate, as contemplated in this section.

55. Liability relating to uncertificated securities.—(1) A person who takes any unlawful action in consequence of which any of the following events occur in a securities register or uncertificated securities register, namely—

- (a) the name of any person remains in, is entered in, or is removed or omitted;
- (b) the number of uncertificated securities is increased, reduced, or remains unaltered; or
- (c) the description of any uncertificated securities is changed, is liable to any person who has suffered any direct loss or damage arising out of that action.

(2) A person who gives an instruction to transfer uncertificated securities must—

- (a) warrant the legality and correctness of that instruction; and
- (b) indemnify the company and the participant or central securities depository required to effect the transfer in accordance with the rules of the central securities depository, against any claim and against any direct loss or damage suffered by them arising out of such a transfer by virtue of an instruction referred to in this subsection.

(3) A participant or central securities depository who may effect the transfer of uncertificated securities in accordance with the rules of a central securities depository must indemnify—

- (a) a company against any claim made upon it and against any direct loss or damage suffered by it arising out of a transfer of any uncertificated securities; and
- (b) any other person against any direct loss or damage arising out of a transfer of any uncertificated securities, if that transfer was effected by the participant or central securities depository without instruction, or in accordance with an instruction that was not sent and properly authenticated in terms of the rules of a central securities depository, or in a manner inconsistent with an instruction that was sent and properly authenticated in terms of the rules of a central securities depository.

56. Beneficial interest in securities.—(1) Except to the extent that a company's Memorandum of Incorporation provides otherwise, the company's issued securities may be held by, and registered in the name of, one person for the beneficial interest of another person.

(2) A person is regarded to have a beneficial interest in a security of a public company if the security is held nomine officii by another person on that first person's behalf, or if that first person—

- (a) is married in community of property to a person who has a beneficial interest in that security;
- (b) is the parent of a minor child who has a beneficial interest in that security;
- (c) acts in terms of an agreement with another person who has a beneficial interest in that security, and the agreement is in respect of the co-operation between them for the acquisition, disposal or any other matter relating to a beneficial interest in that security;
- (d) is the holding company of a company that has a beneficial interest in that security;
- (e) is entitled to exercise or control the exercise of the majority of the voting rights at general meetings of a juristic person that has a beneficial interest in that security; or
- (f) gives directions or instructions to a juristic person that has a beneficial interest in that security, and its directors or the trustees are accustomed to act in accordance with that person's directions or instructions.

(3) If a security of a public company is registered in the name of a person who is not the holder of the beneficial interest in all of the securities in the same company held by that person, that registered holder of security must disclose—

- (a) the identity of the person on whose behalf that security is held; and
- (b) the identity of each person with a beneficial interest in the securities so held, the number and class of securities held for each such person with a beneficial interest, and the extent of each such beneficial interest.

(4) The information required in terms of subsection (3) must—

- (a) be disclosed in writing to the company within five business days after the end of every month during which a change has occurred in the information contemplated in subsection (3), or more promptly or frequently to the extent so provided by the requirements of a central securities depository; and

[Para. (a) substituted by s. 36 (b) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

- (b) otherwise be provided on payment of a prescribed fee charged by the registered holder of securities.

(5) A company that knows or has reasonable cause to believe that any of its securities are held by one person for the beneficial interest of another, by notice in writing, may require either of those persons to—

- (a) confirm or deny that fact;
- (b) provide particulars of the extent of the beneficial interest held during the three years preceding the date of the notice; and
- (c) disclose the identity of each person with a beneficial interest in the securities held by that person.

(6) The information required in terms of subsection (5) must be provided not later than 10 business days after receipt of the notice.

(7) A company that falls within the meaning of “regulated company” as set out in section 117 (1) (i) must—

- (a) establish and maintain a register of the disclosures made in terms of this section; and
- (b) publish in its annual financial statements, if it is required to have such statements audited in terms of section 30 (2), a list of the persons who hold beneficial interests equal to or in excess of 5% of the total number of securities of that class issued by the company, together with the extent of those beneficial interests.

(8) Subsections (9) to (11) do not apply in respect of securities that are subject to the rules of a central securities depository.

[Sub-s. (8) inserted by s. 36 (c) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

(9) A person who holds a beneficial interest in any securities may vote in a matter at a meeting of shareholders, only to the extent that—

- (a) the beneficial interest includes the right to vote on the matter; and
- (b) the person's name is on the company's register of disclosures as the holder of a beneficial interest, or the person holds a proxy appointment in respect of that matter from the registered holder of those securities.

[Sub-s. (9) inserted by s. 36 (c) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

(10) The registered holder of any securities in which any person has a beneficial interest must deliver to each such person—

- (a) a notice of any meeting of a company at which those securities may be voted on within two business days after receiving such a notice from the company; and
- (b) a proxy appointment to the extent of that person's beneficial interest, if the person so demands in terms of subsection (11).

[Sub-s. (10) inserted by s. 36 (c) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

(11) A person who has a beneficial interest in any securities that are entitled to be voted on at a meeting of a company's shareholders, may demand a proxy appointment from the registered holder of those securities, to the extent of that person's beneficial interest, by delivering such a demand to the registered holder, in writing, or as required by the applicable requirements of a central securities depository.

[Sub-s. (11) inserted by s. 36 (c) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

Part F
Governance of companies

57. Interpretation and application of Part.— (1) In this Part, "shareholder" has the meaning set out in section 1, but also includes a person who is entitled to exercise any voting rights in relation to a company, irrespective of the form, title or nature of the securities to which those voting rights are attached.

[Sub-s. (1) substituted by s. 37 (b) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

(2) If a profit company, other than a state-owned company, has only one shareholder—

- (a) that shareholder may exercise any or all of the voting rights pertaining to that company on any matter, at any time, without notice or compliance with any other internal formalities, except to the extent that the company's Memorandum of Incorporation provides otherwise; and
- (b) sections 59 to 65 do not apply to the governance of that company.

(3) If a profit company, other than a state-owned company, has only one director—

- (a) that director may exercise any power or perform any function of the board at any time, without notice or compliance with any other internal formalities, except to the extent that the company's Memorandum of Incorporation provides otherwise; and
- (b) sections 71 (3) to (7), 73 and 74 do not apply to the governance of that company.

(4) If every shareholder of a particular company, other than a state-owned company, is also a director of that company—

- (a) any matter that is required to be referred by the board to the shareholders for decision may be decided by the shareholders at any time after being referred by the board, without notice or compliance with any other internal formalities, except to the extent that the Memorandum of Incorporation provides otherwise, provided that—
 - (i) every such person was present at the board meeting when the matter was referred to them in their capacity as shareholders;
 - (ii) sufficient persons are present in their capacity as shareholders to satisfy the quorum requirements set out in section 64; and
 - (iii) a resolution adopted by those persons in their capacity as shareholders has at least the support that would have been required for it to be adopted as an ordinary or special resolution, as the case may be, at a properly constituted shareholder's meeting; and
- (b) when acting in their capacity as shareholders, those persons are not subject to the provisions of section 73 to 78 relating to the duties, obligations, liabilities and indemnification of directors.

(5) The board of a company that holds any securities of a second company may authorise any person to act as its representative at any shareholders meeting of that second company.

(6) A person authorised to act as a company's representative, as contemplated in subsection (5), may exercise the same powers as the authorising company could have exercised if it were an individual holder of securities.

(7) For greater certainty, this section applies to the exercise of authority within a company in respect of any matter arising in terms of this Act or a company's Memorandum of Incorporation, irrespective of whether any such particular matter is expressly addressed in this Part.

[S. 57 amended by s. 37 (a) of Act No. 3 of 2011. Sub-s. (7) inserted by s. 37 (c) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

58. Shareholder right to be represented by proxy.—(1) At any time, a shareholder of a company may appoint any individual, including an individual who is not a shareholder of that company, as a proxy to—

- (a) participate in, and speak and vote at, a shareholders meeting on behalf of the shareholder; or
- (b) give or withhold written consent on behalf of the shareholder to a decision contemplated in section 60.

[Sub-s. (1) substituted by s. 38 (a) of Bill No. 40. of 2010.]

(2) A proxy appointment—

- (a) must be in writing, dated and signed by the shareholder; and
- (b) remains valid for—
 - (i) one year after the date on which it was signed; or
 - (ii) any longer or shorter period expressly set out in the appointment, unless it is revoked in a manner contemplated in subsection (4) (c), or expires earlier as contemplated in subsection (8) (d).

(3) Except to the extent that the Memorandum of Incorporation of a company provides otherwise—

- (a) a shareholder of that company may appoint two or more persons concurrently as proxies, and may appoint more than one proxy to exercise voting rights attached to different securities held by the shareholder;

[Para. (a) substituted by s. 38 (b) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

- (b) a proxy may delegate the proxy's authority to act on behalf of the shareholder to another person, subject to any restriction set out in the instrument appointing the proxy; and
- (c) a copy of the instrument appointing a proxy must be delivered to the company, or to any other person on behalf of the company, before the proxy exercises any rights of the shareholder at a shareholders meeting.

(4) Irrespective of the form of instrument used to appoint a proxy—

- (a) the appointment is suspended at any time and to the extent that the shareholder chooses to act directly and in person in the exercise of any rights as a shareholder;
- (b) the appointment is revocable unless the proxy appointment expressly states otherwise; and
- (c) if the appointment is revocable, a shareholder may revoke the proxy appointment by—
 - (i) cancelling it in writing, or making a later inconsistent appointment of a proxy; and
 - (ii) delivering a copy of the revocation instrument to the proxy, and to the company.

(5) The revocation of a proxy appointment constitutes a complete and final cancellation of the proxy's authority to act on behalf of the shareholder as of the later of—

- (a) the date stated in the revocation instrument, if any; or
- (b) the date on which the revocation instrument was delivered as required in subsection (4) (c) (ii).

(6) If the instrument appointing a proxy or proxies has been delivered to a company, as long as that appointment remains in effect, any notice that is required by this Act or the company's Memorandum of Incorporation to be delivered by the company to the shareholder must be delivered by the company to—

- (a) the shareholder; or
- (b) the proxy or proxies, if the shareholder has—
 - (i) directed the company to do so, in writing; and
 - (ii) paid any reasonable fee charged by the company for doing so.

(7) A proxy is entitled to exercise, or abstain from exercising, any voting right of the shareholder without direction, except to the extent that the Memorandum of Incorporation, or the instrument appointing the proxy, provides otherwise.

(8) If a company issues an invitation to shareholders to appoint one or more persons named by the company as a proxy, or supplies a form of instrument for appointing a proxy—

- (a) the invitation must be sent to every shareholder who is entitled to notice of the meeting at which the proxy is intended to be exercised;
- (b) the invitation, or form of instrument supplied by the company for the purpose of appointing a proxy, must—
 - (i) bear a reasonably prominent summary of the rights established by this section;
 - (ii) contain adequate blank space, immediately preceding the name or names of any person or persons named in it, to enable a shareholder to write in the name and, if so desired, an alternative name of a proxy chosen by the shareholder; and
 - (iii) provide adequate space for the shareholder to indicate whether the appointed proxy is to vote in favour of or against any resolution or resolutions to be put at the meeting, or is to abstain from voting;
- (c) the company must not require that the proxy appointment be made irrevocable; and
- (d) the proxy appointment remains valid only until the end of the meeting at which it was intended to be used, subject to subsection (5).

(9) Subsection (8) (b) and (d) do not apply if the company merely supplies a generally available standard form of proxy appointment on request by a shareholder.

59. Record date for determining shareholder rights.—(1) The board of a company may set a record date for the purpose of determining which shareholders are entitled to—

- (a) receive notice of a shareholders meeting;
- (b) participate in and vote at a shareholders meeting;
- (c) decide any matter by written consent or electronic communication, as contemplated in section 60;
- (d) exercise pre-emptive rights, as contemplated in section 39;
- (e) receive a distribution; or
- (f) be allotted or exercise other rights.

(2) A record date determined by the board in terms of subsection (1)—

- (a) may not be—
 - (i) earlier than the date on which the record date is determined; or
 - (ii) more than 10 business days before the date on which the event or action, for which the record date is being set, is scheduled to occur; and
 - (b) must be published to the shareholders in a manner that satisfies any prescribed requirements.
- (3) If the board does not determine a record date for any action or event, the record date is—
- (a) in the case of a meeting, the latest date by which the company is required to give shareholders notice of that meeting; or
 - (b) the date of the action or event, in any other case, unless the Memorandum of Incorporation or rules of the company provide otherwise.

60. Shareholders acting other than at meeting.—(1) A resolution that could be voted on at a shareholders meeting may instead be—

- (a) submitted for consideration to the shareholders entitled to exercise voting rights in relation to the resolution; and
- (b) voted on in writing by shareholders entitled to exercise voting rights in relation to the resolution within 20 business days after the resolution was submitted to them.

(2) A resolution contemplated in subsection (1)—

- (a) will have been adopted if it is supported by persons entitled to exercise sufficient voting rights for it to have been adopted as an ordinary or special resolution, as the case may be, at a properly constituted shareholders meeting; and
- (b) if adopted, has the same effect as if it had been approved by voting at a meeting.

(3) An election of a director that could be conducted at a shareholders meeting may instead be conducted by written polling of all of the shareholders entitled to exercise voting rights in relation to the election of that director.

(4) Within 10 business days after adopting a resolution, or conducting an election of directors, in terms of this section, the company must deliver a statement describing the results of the vote, consent process, or election to every shareholder who was entitled to vote on or consent to the resolution, or vote in the election of the director, as the case may be.

(5) For greater certainty, any business of a company that is required by this Act or the company's Memorandum of Incorporation to be conducted at an annual general meeting of the company, may not be conducted in the manner contemplated in this section.

61. Shareholders meetings.—(1) The board of a company, or any other person specified in the company's Memorandum of Incorporation or rules, may call a shareholders meeting at any time.

(2) Subject to section 60, a company must hold a shareholders meeting—

- (a) at any time that the board is required by this Act or the Memorandum of Incorporation to refer a matter to shareholders for decision;
- (b) whenever required in terms of section 70 (3) to fill a vacancy on the board; and
- (c) when otherwise required—
 - (i) in terms of subsection (3) or (7); or
 - (ii) by the company's Memorandum of Incorporation.

(3) Subject to subsection (5) and (6), the board of a company, or any other person specified in the company's Memorandum of Incorporation or rules, must call a shareholders meeting if one or more written and signed demands for such a meeting are delivered to the company, and—

- (a) each such demand describes the specific purpose for which the meeting is proposed; and
- (b) in aggregate, demands for substantially the same purpose are made and signed by the holders, as of the earliest time specified in any of those demands, of at least 10% of the voting rights entitled to be exercised in relation to the matter proposed to be considered at the meeting.

(4) A company's Memorandum of Incorporation may specify a lower percentage in substitution for that set out in subsection (3) (b).

(5) A company, or any shareholder of the company, may apply to a court for an order setting aside a demand made in terms of subsection (3) on the grounds that the demand is frivolous, calls for a meeting for no other purpose than to reconsider a matter that has already been decided by the shareholders, or is otherwise vexatious.

(6) At any time before the start of a shareholders meeting contemplated in subsection (3)—

- (a) a shareholder who submitted a demand for that meeting may withdraw that demand; and
- (b) the company must cancel the meeting if, as a result of one or more demands being withdrawn, the voting rights of any remaining shareholders continuing to demand the meeting, in aggregate, fall below the minimum percentage of voting rights required to call a meeting.

(7) A public company must convene an annual general meeting of its shareholders—

- (a) initially, no more than 18 months after the company's date of incorporation; and
- (b) thereafter, once in every calendar year, but no more than 15 months after the date of the previous annual general meeting, or within an extended time allowed by the Companies Tribunal, on good cause shown.

(8) A meeting convened in terms of subsection (7) must, at a minimum, provide for the following business to be transacted:

- (a) Presentation of—
 - (i) the directors' report;
 - (ii) audited financial statements for the immediately preceding financial year; and
 - (iii) an audit committee report;
- (b) election of directors, to the extent required by this Act or the company's Memorandum of Incorporation;
- (c) appointment of—
 - (i) an auditor for the ensuing financial year; and
 - (ii) an audit committee; and
- (d) any matters raised by shareholders, with or without advance notice to the company.

(9) Except to the extent that the Memorandum of Incorporation of a company provides otherwise—

- (a) the board of the company may determine the location for any shareholders meeting of the company; and
- (b) a shareholders meeting of the company may be held in the Republic or in any foreign country.

(10) Every shareholders meeting of a public company must be reasonably accessible within the Republic for electronic participation by shareholders in the manner contemplated in section 63 (2), irrespective of whether the meeting is held in the Republic or elsewhere.

(11) If a company is unable to convene a meeting as required in terms of this section because it has no directors, or because all of its directors are incapacitated—

- (a) any other person authorised by the company's Memorandum of Incorporation may convene the meeting; or
- (b) if no person has been authorised as contemplated in paragraph (a), the Companies Tribunal, on a request by any shareholder, may issue an administrative order for a shareholders meeting to be convened on a date, and subject to any terms, that the Tribunal considers appropriate in the circumstances.

(12) If a company fails to convene a meeting for any reason other than as contemplated in subsection (11)—

- (a) at a time required in accordance with its Memorandum of Incorporation;
- (b) when required by shareholders in terms of subsection (3); or
- (c) within the time required by subsection (7), a shareholder may apply to a court for an order requiring the company to convene a meeting on a date, and subject to any terms, that the court considers appropriate in the circumstances.

(13) The company must compensate a shareholder who applies to the Companies Tribunal in terms of subsection (11), or to a court in terms of subsection (12), respectively, for the costs of those proceedings.

(14) Any failure to hold a meeting as required by this section does not affect the existence of a company, or the validity of any action by the company.

62. Notice of meetings.—(1) The company must deliver a notice of each shareholders meeting in the prescribed manner and form to all of the shareholders of the company as of the record date for the meeting, at least—

- (a) 15 business days before the meeting is to begin, in the case of a public company or a non-profit company that has voting members; or
- (b) 10 business days before the meeting is to begin, in any other case.

(2) A company's Memorandum of Incorporation may provide for longer or shorter minimum notice periods than required by subsection (1).

(2A) A company may call a meeting with less notice than required by subsection (1) or by its Memorandum of Incorporation, but such a meeting may proceed only if every person who is entitled to exercise voting rights in respect of any item on the meeting agenda—

- (a) is present at the meeting; and
- (b) votes to waive the required minimum notice of the meeting.

[Sub-s. (2A) inserted by s. 40 (b) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

(3) A notice of a shareholders meeting must be in writing, and must include—

- (a) the date, time and place for the meeting, and the record date for the meeting;
- (b) the general purpose of the meeting, and any specific purpose contemplated in section 61 (3) (a), if applicable;
- (c) a copy of any proposed resolution of which the company has received notice, and which is to be considered at the meeting, and a notice of the percentage of voting rights that will be required for that resolution to be adopted;

- (d) in the case of an annual general meeting of a company—
 - (i) the financial statements to be presented or a summarised form thereof; and [Sub-para. (i) substituted by s. 40 (c) of the Act No. 3 of 2011.]
 - (ii) directions for obtaining a copy of the complete annual financial statements for the preceding financial year; and
- (e) a reasonably prominent statement that—
 - (i) a shareholder entitled to attend and vote at the meeting is entitled to appoint a proxy to attend, participate in and vote at the meeting in the place of the shareholder, or two or more proxies if the Memorandum of Incorporation of the company so permits;
 - (ii) a proxy need not also be a shareholder of the company; and
 - (iii) section 63 (1) requires that meeting participants provide satisfactory identification.

(4) If there was a material defect in the giving of the notice of a shareholders meeting, the meeting may proceed, subject to subsection (5), only if every person who is entitled to exercise voting rights in respect of any item on the meeting agenda is present at the meeting and votes to approve the ratification of the defective notice.

(5) If a material defect in the form or manner of giving notice of a meeting relates only to one or more particular matters on the agenda for the meeting—

- (a) any such matter may be severed from the agenda, and the notice remains valid with respect to any remaining matters on the agenda; and
- (b) the meeting may proceed to consider a severed matter, if the defective notice in respect of that matter has been ratified in terms of subsection (4) (d).

(6) An immaterial defect in the form or manner of giving notice of a shareholders meeting, or an accidental or inadvertent failure in the delivery of the notice to any particular shareholder to whom it was addressed, does not invalidate any action taken at the meeting.

(7) A shareholder who is present at a meeting, either in person or by proxy—

- (a) is regarded as having received or waived notice of the meeting, if at least the required minimum notice was given; and
- (b) has a right to—
 - (i) allege a material defect in the form of notice for a particular item on the agenda for the meeting; and
 - (ii) participate in the determination whether to waive the requirements for notice if less than the required minimum notice was given, or to ratify a defective notice; and
- (c) except to the extent set out in paragraph (b), is regarded as having waived any right based on an actual or alleged defect in the notice of the meeting.

[Sub-s. (7) substituted by s. 40 (e) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

63. Conduct of meetings.—(1) Before any person may attend or participate in a shareholders meeting—

- (a) that person must present reasonably satisfactory identification; and
- (b) the person presiding at the meeting must be reasonably satisfied that the right of that person to participate and vote, either as a shareholder, or as a proxy for a shareholder, has been reasonably verified.

(2) Unless prohibited by its Memorandum of Incorporation, a company may provide for—

- (a) a shareholders meeting to be conducted entirely by electronic communication; or
- (b) one or more shareholders, or proxies for shareholders, to participate by electronic communication in all or part of a shareholders meeting that is being held in person, as long as the electronic communication employed ordinarily enables all persons participating in that meeting to communicate concurrently with each other without an intermediary, and to participate reasonably effectively in the meeting.

[Sub-s. (2) substituted by s. 41 (a) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

(3) If a company provides for participation in a meeting by electronic communication, as contemplated in subsection (2)—

- (a) the notice of that meeting must inform shareholders of the availability of that form of participation, and provide any necessary information to enable shareholders or their proxies to access the available medium or means of electronic communication; and
- (b) access to the medium or means of electronic communication is at the expense of the shareholder or proxy, except to the extent that the company determines otherwise.

(4) At a meeting of shareholders, voting may either be by show of hands, or by polling.

[Sub-s. (4) substituted by s. 41 (b) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

(5) If voting is by show of hands, any person who is present at the meeting, whether as a shareholder or as proxy for a shareholder and entitled to exercise voting rights has one vote, irrespective of the number of voting rights that person would otherwise be entitled to exercise.

[Sub-s. (5) substituted by s. 41 (b) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

(6) If voting on a particular matter is by polling, any person who is present at the meeting, whether as a shareholder or as proxy for a shareholder, has the number of votes determined in accordance with the voting rights associated with the securities held by that shareholder.

[Sub-s. (6) inserted by s. 41 (c) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

(7) Despite any provision of a company's Memorandum of Incorporation or agreement to the contrary, a polled vote must be held on any particular matter to be voted on at a meeting if a demand for such a vote is made by—

- (a) at least five persons having the right to vote on that matter, either as a shareholder or a proxy representing a shareholder; or
- (b) a person who is, or persons who together are, entitled, as a shareholder or proxy representing a shareholder, to exercise at least 10% of the voting rights entitled to be voted on that matter.

[Sub-s. (7) inserted by s. 41 (c) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

64. Meeting quorum and adjournment.—(1) Subject to subsections (2) to (8)—

- (a) a shareholders meeting may not begin until sufficient persons are present at the meeting to exercise, in aggregate, at least 25% of all of the voting rights that are entitled to be exercised in respect of at least one matter to be decided at the meeting; and
- (b) a matter to be decided at the meeting may not begin to be considered unless sufficient persons are present at the meeting to exercise, in aggregate, at least 25% of all of the voting rights that are entitled to be exercised on that matter at the time the matter is called on the agenda.

(2) A company's Memorandum of Incorporation may specify a lower or higher percentage in place of the 25% required in either or both of subsection (1) (a) or (b).

(3) Despite the percentage figures set out in subsection (1), or in any applicable provisions of a company's Memorandum of Incorporation, if a company has more than two shareholders, a meeting may not begin, or a matter begin to be debated, unless—

- (a) at least three shareholders are present at the meeting; and
- (b) the requirements of subsection (1) or the Memorandum of Incorporation, if different, are satisfied.

(4) If, within one hour after the appointed time for a meeting to begin, the requirements of subsections (1), or (3) if applicable,

- (a) for that meeting to begin have not been satisfied, the meeting is postponed without motion, vote or further notice, for one week;
- (b) for consideration of a particular matter to begin have not been satisfied—
 - (i) if there is other business on the agenda of the meeting, consideration of that matter may be postponed to a later time in the meeting without motion or vote; or
 - (ii) if there is no other business on the agenda of the meeting, the meeting is adjourned for one week, without motion or vote.

(5) The person intended to preside at a meeting that cannot begin due to the operation of subsection (1) (a), or (3) if applicable, may extend the one-hour limit allowed in subsection (4) for a reasonable period on the grounds that—

- (a) exceptional circumstances affecting weather, transportation or electronic communication have generally impeded or are generally impeding the ability of shareholders to be present at the meeting; or
- (b) one or more particular shareholders, having been delayed, have communicated an intention to attend the meeting, and those shareholders, together with others in attendance, would satisfy the requirements of subsection (1), or (3) if applicable.

(6) A company's Memorandum of Incorporation or rules may specify a different time in substitution for—

- (a) the period of one hour contemplated in subsections (4) and (5), respectively; or
- (b) the period of one week contemplated in subsection (4).

(7) A company is not required to give further notice of a meeting that is postponed or adjourned in terms of subsection (4), unless the location for the meeting is different from—

- (a) the location of the postponed or adjourned meeting; or
- (b) a location announced at the time of adjournment, in the case of an adjourned meeting.

(8) If, at the time appointed in terms of this section for a postponed meeting to begin, or for an adjourned meeting to resume, the requirements of subsection (1), or (3) if applicable, have not been satisfied, the shareholders, or in the case of a non-profit company, the members of the company present in person or by proxy will be deemed to constitute a quorum.

(9) Unless the company's Memorandum of Incorporation or rules provide otherwise, after a quorum has been established for a meeting, or for a matter to be considered at a meeting, the meeting may continue, or the matter may be considered, so long as at least one shareholder with voting rights entitled to be exercised at the meeting, or on that matter, is present at the meeting.

(10) A shareholders meeting, or the consideration of any matter being debated at the meeting, may be adjourned from time to time without further notice, subject to subsection (11), on a motion supported by persons entitled to exercise, in aggregate, a majority of the voting rights—

- (a) held by all of the persons who are present at the meeting at the time; and
- (b) that are entitled to be exercised on at least one matter remaining on the agenda of the meeting, or on the matter under debate, as the case may be.

(11) An adjournment of a meeting, or of consideration of a matter being debated at the meeting, in terms of subsection (10)—

- (a) may be either—
 - (i) to a fixed time and place; or
 - (ii) until further notice,

as agreed at the meeting; and

[Sub-para. (ii) substituted by s. 42 (b) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

- (b) requires that a further notice be given to shareholders only if the meeting determined that the adjournment was “until further notice”, as contemplated in paragraph (a) (ii).

(12) Subject to subsection (13), a meeting may not be adjourned beyond the earlier of—

- (a) the date that is 120 business days after the record date determined in accordance with section 59; or
- (b) the date that is 60 business days after the date on which the adjournment occurred.

(13) A company’s Memorandum of Incorporation may provide for different maximum periods of adjournment of meetings than those set out in subsection (12), or for unlimited adjournment of meetings.

65. Shareholder resolutions.—(1) Every resolution of shareholders is either an ordinary resolution or a special resolution.

(2) The board may propose any resolution to be considered by shareholders, and may determine whether that resolution will be considered at a meeting, or by vote or written consent in terms of section 60.

(3) Any two shareholders of a company—

- (a) may propose a resolution concerning any matter in respect of which they are each entitled to exercise voting rights; and
- (b) when proposing a resolution, may require that the resolution be submitted to shareholders for consideration—
 - (i) at a meeting demanded in terms of section 61 (3);
 - (ii) at the next shareholders meeting; or
 - (iii) by written vote in terms of section 60.

(4) A proposed resolution is not subject to the requirements of section 6 (4), but must be—

- (a) expressed with sufficient clarity and specificity; and
- (b) accompanied by sufficient information or explanatory material to enable a shareholder who is entitled to vote on the resolution to determine whether to participate in the meeting and to seek to influence the outcome of the vote on the resolution.

(5) At any time before the start of the meeting at which a resolution will be considered, a shareholder or director who believes that the form of the resolution does not satisfy the requirements of subsection (4) may seek leave to apply to a court for an order—

- (a) restraining the company from putting the proposed resolution to a vote until the requirements of subsection (4) are satisfied; and
- (b) requiring the company, or the shareholders who proposed the resolution, as the case may be, to—
 - (i) take appropriate steps to alter the resolution so that it satisfies the requirements of subsection (4); and
 - (ii) compensate the applicant for costs of the proceedings, if successful.

(6) Once a resolution has been approved, it may not be challenged or impugned by any person in any forum on the grounds that it did not satisfy subsection (4).

(7) For an ordinary resolution to be approved by shareholders, it must be supported by more than 50% of the voting rights exercised on the resolution.

(8) Except for an ordinary resolution for the removal of a director under section 71, a company's Memorandum of Incorporation may require—

- (a) a higher percentage of voting rights to approve an ordinary resolution; or
- (b) one or more higher percentages of voting rights to approve ordinary resolutions concerning one or more particular matters, respectively, provided that there must at all times be a margin of at least 10 percentage points between the highest established requirement for approval of an ordinary resolution on any matter, and the lowest established requirement for approval of a special resolution, on any matter.

[Sub-s. (8) amended by s. 43 (c) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

(9) For a special resolution to be approved by shareholders, it must be supported by at least 75% of the voting rights exercised on the resolution.

(10) A company's Memorandum of Incorporation may permit—

- (a) a different percentage of voting rights to approve any special resolution; or [Para. (a) substituted by s. 43 (b) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]
- (b) one or more different percentages of voting rights to approve special resolutions concerning one or more particular matters, respectively,

provided that there must at all times be a margin of at least 10 percentage points between the highest established requirement for approval of an ordinary resolution on any matter, and the lowest established requirement for approval of a special resolution, on any matter.

[Sub-s. (10) amended by s. 43 (c) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

(11) A special resolution is required to—

- (a) amend the company's Memorandum of Incorporation to the extent required by section 16 (1) (c) and section 36 (2) (a);

(12) A company's Memorandum of Incorporation may require a special resolution to approve any other matter not contemplated in subsection (11).

66. Board, directors and prescribed officers.—(1) The business and affairs of a company must be managed by or under the direction of its board, which has the authority to exercise all of the powers and perform any of the functions of the company, except to the extent that this Act or the company's Memorandum of Incorporation provides otherwise.

(2) The board of a company must comprise—

- (a) in the case of a private company, or a personal liability company, at least one director; or
- (b) in the case of a public company, or a non-profit company, at least three directors—

in addition to the minimum number of directors that the company must have to satisfy any requirement, whether in terms of this Act or its Memorandum of Incorporation, to appoint an audit committee, or a social and ethics committee as contemplated in section 72 (4).

(3) A company's Memorandum of Incorporation may specify a higher number in substitution for the minimum number of directors required by subsection (2).

(4) A company's Memorandum of Incorporation—

- (a) may provide for—
 - (i) the direct appointment and removal of one or more directors by any person who is named in, or determined in terms of, the Memorandum of Incorporation;
 - (ii) a person to be an ex officio director of the company as a consequence of that person holding some other office, title, designation or similar status, subject to subsection (5) (a); or

- (b) who holds office or acts in the capacity of an ex officio director of a company has all the—
 - (i) powers and functions of any other director of the company, except to the extent that the company's Memorandum of Incorporation restricts the powers, functions or duties of an ex officio director; and
 - (ii) duties, and is subject to all of the liabilities, of any other director of the company.

(6) The election or appointment of a person as a director is a nullity if, at the time of the election or appointment, that person is ineligible or disqualified in terms of section 69.

(7) A person becomes entitled to serve as a director of a company when that person—

- (a) has been appointed or elected in accordance with this Part, or holds an office, title, designation or similar status entitling that person to be an ex officio director of the company, subject to subsection (5) (a); and
- (b) has delivered to the company a written consent to serve as its director.

(8) Except to the extent that the Memorandum of Incorporation of a company provides otherwise, the company may pay remuneration to its directors for their service as directors, subject to subsection (9).

(10) The Minister may make regulations designating any specific function or functions within a company to constitute a prescribed office for the purposes of this Act.

(11) Any failure by a company at any time to have the minimum number of directors required by this Act or the company's Memorandum of Incorporation, does not limit or negate the authority of the board, or invalidate anything done by the board or the company.

(12) Save as otherwise provided elsewhere in this Act or in the company's Memorandum of Incorporation, any particular director may be appointed to more than one committee of the company, and when calculating the minimum number of directors required for a company in terms of subsections (2) and (3), any such director who has been appointed to more than one committee must be counted only once.

67. First director or directors.—(1) Each incorporator of a company is a first director of the company, and serves until sufficient other directors to satisfy the minimum requirements of this Act, or the company's Memorandum of Incorporation, have been—

- (a) first appointed, as contemplated in section 66 (4) (a) (i); or
- (b) first elected in accordance with section 68 or the company's Memorandum of Incorporation.

(2) If the number of incorporators of a company, together with any ex officio directors, or directors to be appointed as contemplated in section 66 (4) (a) (i), is fewer than the minimum number of directors required for that company in terms of this Act or the company's Memorandum of Incorporation, the board must call a shareholders meeting within 40 business days after incorporation of the company for the purpose of electing sufficient directors to fill all vacancies on the board at the time of the election.

(2) Unless a profit company's Memorandum of Incorporation provides otherwise, in any election of directors—

- (a) the election is to be conducted as a series of votes, each of which is on the candidacy of a single individual to fill a single vacancy, with the series of votes continuing until all vacancies on the board at that time have been filled; and
- (b) in each vote to fill a vacancy—
 - (i) each voting right entitled to be exercised may be exercised once; and
 - (ii) the vacancy is filled only if a majority of the voting rights exercised support the candidate.

[Sub-s. (2) amended by s. 45 (c) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

(3) Unless the Memorandum of Incorporation of a profit company provides otherwise, the board may appoint a person who satisfies the requirements for election as a director to fill any vacancy and serve as a director of the company on a temporary basis until the vacancy has been filled by election in terms of subsection (2), and during that period any person so appointed has all of the powers, functions and duties, and is subject to all of the liabilities, of any other director of the company.

[S. 68 amended by s. 45 (a) of Act No. 3 of 2011. Sub-s. (3) substituted by s. 45 (d) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

(9) A disqualification in terms of subsection (8) (b) (iii) or (iv) ends at the later of—

- (a) five years after the date of removal from office, or the completion of the sentence imposed for the relevant offence, as the case may be; or
- (b) at the end of one or more extensions, as determined by a court from time to time, on application by the Commission in terms of subsection (10).

(10) At any time before the expiry of a person's disqualification in terms of subsection (8) (b) (iii) or (iv)—

- (a) the Commission may apply to a court for an extension contemplated in subsection (9) (b); and

(11) A court may exempt a person from the application of any provision of subsection (8) (b).

(11A) The Registrar of the Court must, upon—

[Sub-s. (11A) inserted by s. 46 (b) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

(11B) The Commission must notify each company which has a director to whom the order or conviction relates, of the order or conviction.

[Sub-s. (12) deleted by s. 46 (c) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

(13) The Commission must establish and maintain in the prescribed manner a public register of persons who are disqualified from serving as a director, or who are subject to an order of probation as a director, in terms of an order of a court pursuant to this Act or any other law.

70. Vacancies on board.—(1) Subject to subsection (2), a person ceases to be a director, and a vacancy arises on the board of a company—

- (a) when the person's term of office as director expires, in the case of a company whose Memorandum of Incorporation provides for fixed terms, as contemplated in section 68 (1); or
- (b) in any case, if the person—
 - (i) resigns or dies;
 - (ii) in the case of an ex officio director, ceases to hold the office, title, designation or similar status that entitled the person to be an ex officio director;
 - (iii) becomes incapacitated to the extent that the person is unable to perform the functions of a director, and is unlikely to regain that capacity within a reasonable time, subject to section 71 (3);
 - (iv) is declared delinquent by a court, or placed on probation under conditions that are inconsistent with continuing to be a director of the company, in terms of section 162;
 - (v) becomes ineligible or disqualified in terms of section 69, subject to section 71 (3); or
 - (vi) is removed—
 - (aa) by resolution of the shareholders in terms of section 71 (1);

 - (cc) by order of the court in terms of section 71 (5) or (6).

(2) If, in terms of section 71 (3), the board of a company has removed a director, a vacancy on the board does not arise until the later of—

- (a) the expiry of the time for filing an application for review in terms of section 71 (5); or
- (b) the granting of an order by the court on such an application, but the director is suspended from office during that time.

(3) If a vacancy arises on the board, other than as a result of an ex officio director ceasing to hold that office, it must be filled by—

- (a) a new appointment, if the director was appointed as contemplated in section 66 (4) (a) (i); or
- (b) subject to subsection (4), by a new election conducted—
 - (i) at the next annual general meeting of the company, if the company is required to hold such a meeting; or
 - (ii) in any other case, within six months after the vacancy arose—
 - (aa) at a shareholders meeting called for the purpose of electing the director; or

(bb) by a poll of the persons entitled to exercise voting rights in an election of the director, as contemplated in section 60 (3).

(4) If, as a result of a vacancy arising on the board of a company there are no remaining directors of a company, any holder of voting rights entitled to be exercised in the election of a director may convene a meeting for the purpose of such an election.

(5) A person contemplated in subsection (4) may apply to a court for relief, and the court may grant a supervisory order relating to a meeting convened in terms of that paragraph if the court is satisfied that such an order is required to prevent the oppression, or preserve the rights, of any shareholder.

(6) Every company must file a notice within 10 business days after a person becomes or ceases to be a director of the company.

71. Removal of directors.—(1) Despite anything to the contrary in a company's Memorandum of Incorporation or rules, or any agreement between a company and a director, or between any shareholders and a director, a director may be removed by an ordinary resolution adopted at a shareholders meeting by the persons entitled to exercise voting rights in an election of that director, subject to subsection (2).

(2) Before the shareholders of a company may consider a resolution contemplated in subsection (1)—

- (a) the director concerned must be given notice of the meeting and the resolution, at least equivalent to that which a shareholder is entitled to receive, irrespective of whether or not the director is a shareholder of the company; and
- (b) the director must be afforded a reasonable opportunity to make a presentation, in person or through a representative, to the meeting, before the resolution is put to a vote.

(3) If a company has more than two directors, and a shareholder or director has alleged that a director of the company—

- (a) has become—
 - (i) ineligible or disqualified in terms of section 69, other than on the grounds contemplated in section 69 (8) (a); or
 - (ii) incapacitated to the extent that the director is unable to perform the functions of a director, and is unlikely to regain that capacity within a reasonable time; or
- (b) has neglected, or been derelict in the performance of, the functions of director, the board, other than the director concerned, must determine the matter by resolution, and may remove a director whom it has determined to be ineligible or disqualified, incapacitated, or negligent or derelict, as the case may be.

(4) Before the board of a company may consider a resolution contemplated in subsection (3), the director concerned must be given—

- (a) notice of the meeting, including a copy of the proposed resolution and a statement setting out reasons for the resolution, with sufficient specificity to reasonably permit the director to prepare and present a response; and
- (b) a reasonable opportunity to make a presentation, in person or through a representative, to the meeting before the resolution is put to a vote.

(5) If, in terms of subsection (3), the board of a company has determined that a director is ineligible or disqualified, incapacitated, or has been negligent or derelict, as the case may be, the director concerned, or a person who appointed that director as contemplated in section 66 (4) (a) (i), if applicable, may apply within 20 business days to a court to review the determination of the board.

(6) If, in terms of subsection (3), the board of a company has determined that a director is not ineligible or disqualified, incapacitated, or has not been negligent or derelict, as the case may be—

- (a) any director who voted otherwise on the resolution, or any holder of voting rights entitled to be exercised in the election of that director, may apply to a court to review the determination of the board; and

(b) the court, on application in terms of paragraph (a), may—

(i) confirm the determination of the board; or

(ii) remove the director from office, if the court is satisfied that the director is ineligible or disqualified, incapacitated, or has been negligent or derelict.

(7) An applicant in terms of subsection (6) must compensate the company, and any other party, for costs incurred in relation to the application, unless the court reverses the decision of the board.

(8) If a company has fewer than three directors—

(a) subsection (3) does not apply to the company;

(b) in any circumstances contemplated in subsection (3), any director or shareholder of the company may apply to the Companies Tribunal, to make a determination contemplated in that subsection; and

(c) subsections (4), (5) and (6), each read with the changes required by the context, apply to the determination of the matter by the Companies Tribunal.

(9) Nothing in this section deprives a person removed from office as a director in terms of this section of any right that person may have at common law or otherwise to apply to a court for damages or other compensation for—

(a) loss of office as a director; or

(b) loss of any other office as a consequence of being removed as a director.

(10) This section is in addition to the right of a person, in terms of section 162, to apply to a court for an order declaring a director delinquent, or placing a director on probation.

72. Board committees.—(1) Except to the extent that the Memorandum of Incorporation of a company provides otherwise, the board of a company may—

(a) appoint any number of committees of directors; and

(b) delegate to any committee any of the authority of the board.

(2) Except to the extent that the Memorandum of Incorporation of a company, or a resolution establishing a committee, provides otherwise, the committee—

(a) may include persons who are not directors of the company, but—

(i) any such person must not be ineligible or disqualified to be a director in terms of section 69; and

(ii) no such person has a vote on a matter to be decided by the committee;

(4) The Minister, by regulation, may prescribe—

(a) a category of companies that must each have a social and ethics committee, if it is desirable in the public interest, having regard to—

(5) A company that falls within a category of companies that are required in terms of this section and the regulations to appoint a social and ethics committee may apply to the Tribunal in the prescribed manner and form for an exemption from that requirement, and the Tribunal may grant such an exemption if it is satisfied that—

- (a) the company is required in terms of other legislation to have, and does have, some form of formal mechanism within its structures that substantially performs the function that would otherwise be performed by the social and ethics committee in terms of this section and the regulations; or
- (b) it is not reasonably necessary in the public interest to require the company to have a social and ethics committee, having regard to the nature and extent of the activities of the company.

[Sub-s. (5) inserted by s. 47 (b) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

(6) An exemption granted in terms of subsection (5) is valid for five years, or such shorter period as the Tribunal may determine at the time of granting the exemption, unless set aside by the Tribunal in terms of subsection (7).

(7) The Commission, on its own initiative or on request by a shareholder, or a person who was granted standing by the Tribunal at the hearing of the exemption application, may apply to the Tribunal to set aside an exemption only on the grounds that the basis on which the exemption was granted no longer applies.

[Sub-s. (7) inserted by s. 47 (b) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

(8) A social and ethics committee of a company is entitled to—

(9) A company must pay all the expenses reasonably incurred by its social and ethics committee, including, if the social and ethics committee considers it appropriate, the costs or the fees of any consultant or specialist engaged by the social and ethics committee in the performance of its functions.

[Sub-s. (9) inserted by s. 47 (b) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

(10) Section 84 (6) and (7), read with the changes required by the context, apply with respect to a company that fails to appoint a social and ethics committee, as required by this section and the regulations.

[Sub-s. (10) inserted by s. 47 (b) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

 - (ii) two directors, in any other case.

(2) A company's Memorandum of Incorporation may specify a higher or lower percentage or number in substitution for those set out in subsection (1) (b).

(3) Except to the extent that this Act or a company's Memorandum of Incorporation provides otherwise—

- (a) a meeting of the board may be conducted by electronic communication; or
- (b) one or more directors may participate in a meeting by electronic communication, so long as the electronic communication facility employed ordinarily enables all persons participating in that meeting to communicate concurrently with each other without an intermediary, and to participate effectively in the meeting.

(4) The board of a company may determine the form and time for giving notice of its meetings, but—

- (a) such a determination must comply with any requirements set out in the Memorandum of Incorporation, or rules, of the company; and
- (b) no meeting of a board may be convened without notice to all of the directors, subject to subsection (5).

(5) Except to the extent that the company's Memorandum of Incorporation provides otherwise—

- (a) if all of the directors of the company—
 - (i) acknowledge actual receipt of the notice;
 - (ii) are present at a meeting; or
 - (iii) waive notice of the meeting, the meeting may proceed even if the company failed to give the required notice of that meeting, or there was a defect in the giving of the notice;

- (b) a majority of the directors must be present at a meeting before a vote may be called at a meeting of the directors;
- (c) each director has one vote on a matter before the board;
- (d) a majority of the votes cast on a resolution is sufficient to approve that resolution; and
- (e) in the case of a tied vote—
 - (i) the chair may cast a deciding vote, if the chair did not initially have or cast a vote; or
 - (ii) the matter being voted on fails, in any other case.

(6) A company must keep minutes of the meetings of the board, and any of its committees, and include in the minutes—

- (a) any declaration given by notice or made by a director as required by section 75; and

74. Directors acting other than at meeting.—(1) Except to the extent that the Memorandum of Incorporation of a company provides otherwise, a decision that could be voted on at a meeting of the board of that company may instead be adopted by written consent of a majority of the directors, given in person, or by electronic communication, provided that each director has received notice of the matter to be decided.

(2) A decision made in the manner contemplated in this section is of the same effect as if it had been approved by voting at a meeting.

75. Director's personal financial interests.—(1) In this section—

- (a) "director" includes—
 - (i) an alternate director;
 - (ii) a prescribed officer; and
 - (iii) a person who is a member of a committee of a board of a company, irrespective of whether the person is also a member of the company's board; and
- (b) "related person", when used in reference to a director, has the meaning set out in section 1, but also includes a second company of which the director or a related person is also a director, or a close corporation of which the director or a related person is a member.

(2) This section does not apply—

- (a) to a director of a company—
 - (i) in respect of a decision that may generally affect—
 - (aa) all of the directors of the company in their capacity as directors; or
 - (bb) a class of persons, despite the fact that the director is one member of that class of persons, unless the only members of the class are the director or persons related or inter-related to the director; or
 - (ii) in respect of a proposal to remove that director from office as contemplated in section 71; or
- (b) to a company or its director, if one person—
 - (i) holds all of the beneficial interests of all of the issued securities of the company; and
 - (ii) is the only director of that company.

(3) If a person is the only director of a company, but does not hold all of the beneficial interests of all of the issued securities of the company, that person may not—

- (a) approve or enter into any agreement in which the person or a related person has a personal financial interest; or
- (b) as a director, determine any other matter in which the person or a related person has a personal financial interest, unless the agreement or determination is approved by an ordinary resolution of the shareholders after the director has disclosed the nature and extent of that interest to the shareholders.

(4) At any time, a director may disclose any personal financial interest in advance, by delivering to the board, or shareholders in the case of a company contemplated in subsection (3), a notice in writing setting out the nature and extent of that interest, to be used generally for the purposes of this section until changed or withdrawn by further written notice from that director.

(5) If a director of a company, other than a company contemplated in subsection (2) (b) or (3), has a personal financial interest in respect of a matter to be considered at a meeting of the board, or knows that a related person has a personal financial interest in the matter, the director—

- (a) must disclose the interest and its general nature before the matter is considered at the meeting;

 - (i) is to be regarded as being present at the meeting for the purpose of determining whether sufficient directors are present to constitute the meeting; and
 - (ii) is not to be regarded as being present at the meeting for the purpose of determining whether a resolution has sufficient support to be adopted; and
- (g) must not execute any document on behalf of the company in relation to the matter unless specifically requested or directed to do so by the board.

(6) If a director of a company acquires a personal financial interest in an agreement or other matter in which the company has a material interest, or knows that a related person has acquired a personal financial interest in the matter, after the agreement or other matter has been approved by the company, the director must promptly disclose to the board, or to the shareholders in the case of a company contemplated in subsection (3), the nature and extent of that interest, and the material circumstances relating to the director or related person's acquisition of that interest.

(7) A decision by the board, or a transaction or agreement approved by the board, or by a company as contemplated in subsection (3), is valid despite any personal financial interest of a director or person related to the director, only if—

- (a) it was approved following disclosure of that interest in the manner contemplated in this section; or
- (b) despite having been approved without disclosure of that interest, it—
 - (i) has subsequently been ratified by an ordinary resolution of the shareholders following disclosure of that interest; or
 - (ii) has been declared to be valid by a court in terms of subsection (8).

[Sub-s. (7) substituted by s. 48 (b) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

(8) A court, on application by any interested person, may declare valid a transaction or agreement that had been approved by the board, or shareholders as the case may be, despite the failure of the director to satisfy the disclosure requirements of this section.

[Sub-s. (8) substituted by s. 48 (b) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

79. Winding-up of solvent companies.—(1) A solvent company may be dissolved by—

- (a) voluntary winding-up initiated by the company as contemplated in section 80, and conducted either—
 - (i) by the company; or
 - (ii) by the company's creditors, as determined by the resolution of the company; or
- (b) winding-up and liquidation by court order, as contemplated in section 81.

(2) The procedures for winding-up and liquidation of a solvent company, whether voluntary or by court order, are governed by this Part and, to the extent applicable, by the laws referred to or contemplated in item 9 of Schedule 5.

(3) If, at any time after a company has adopted a resolution contemplated in section 80, or after an application has been made to a court as contemplated in section 81, it is determined that the company to be wound up is or may be insolvent, a court, on application by any interested person, may order that the company be wound up as an insolvent company in terms of the laws referred to or contemplated in item 9 of Schedule 5.

80. Voluntary winding-up of solvent company.—(1) A solvent company may be wound up voluntarily if the company has adopted a special resolution to do so, which may provide for the winding-up to be by the company, or by its creditors.

(2) A resolution providing for the voluntary winding-up of a company must be filed, together with the prescribed notice and filing fee.

(3) If a resolution contemplated in this section provides for winding-up by the company, before the resolution and notice are filed the company must—

- (a) arrange for security, satisfactory to the Master, for the payment of the company's debts within no more than 12 months after the start of the winding-up of the company; or
- (b) obtain the consent of the Master to dispense with security, which the Master may do only if the company has submitted to the Master—
 - (i) a sworn statement by a director authorised by the board of the company, stating that the company has no debts; and

- (ii) a certificate by the company's auditor, or if it does not have an auditor, a person who meets the requirements for appointment as an auditor, and appointed for the purpose, stating that to the best of the auditor's knowledge and belief and according to the financial records of the company, the company appears to have no debts.

(4) Any costs incurred in furnishing the security referred to in subsection (3) may be paid by the company.

(5) A liquidator appointed in a voluntary winding-up may exercise all powers given by this Act, or a law contemplated in item 9 of Schedule 5, to a liquidator in a winding-up by the court—

- (a) without requiring specific order or sanction of the court; and
- (b) subject to any directions given by—
 - (i) the shareholders of the company in a general meeting, in the case of a winding-up by the company; or
 - (ii) the creditors, in the case of a winding-up by creditors.

(6) A voluntary winding-up of a company begins when the resolution of the company has been filed in terms of subsection (2).

(7) When a resolution has been filed in terms of subsection (2), the Commission must promptly deliver a copy of it to the Master.

(8) Despite any provision to the contrary in a company's Memorandum of Incorporation—

- (a) the company remains a juristic person and retains all of its powers as such while it is being wound up voluntarily; but
- (b) from the beginning of the company's winding-up—
 - (i) it must stop carrying on its business except to the extent required for the beneficial winding-up of the company; and
 - (ii) all of the powers of the company's directors cease, except to the extent specifically authorised—
 - (aa) in the case of a winding-up by the company, by the liquidator or the shareholders in a general meeting; or
 - (bb) in the case of a winding-up by creditors, the liquidator or the creditors.

81. Winding-up of solvent companies by court order.—(1) A court may order a solvent company to be wound up if—

- (a) the company has—
 - (i) resolved, by special resolution, that it be wound up by the court; or
 - (ii) applied to the court to have its voluntary winding-up continued by the court;
- (b) the practitioner of a company appointed during business rescue proceedings has applied for liquidation in terms of section 141 (2) (a), on the grounds that there is no reasonable prospect of the company being rescued; or
- (c) one or more of the company's creditors have applied to the court for an order to wind up the company on the grounds that—
 - (i) the company's business rescue proceedings have ended in the manner contemplated in section 132 (2) (b) or (c) (i) and it appears to the court that it is just and equitable in the circumstances for the company to be wound up; or

(4) A winding-up of a company by a court begins when—

- (a) an application has been made to the court in terms of subsection (1) (a) or (b); or
- (b) the court has made an order applied for in terms of subsection (1) (c), (d), (e) or (f).

(2) The removal of a company's name from the companies register does not affect the liability of any former director or shareholder of the company or any other person in respect of any act or omission that took place before the company was removed from the register.

[Sub-s. (2) deleted by s. 53 (c) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

(3) In the case of a state-owned company—

- (a) if there is a conflict between a provision of this Chapter and a provision of the Public Audit Act, 2004 (Act No. 25 of 2004), the provisions of that Act prevail;
- (b) despite the provisions of this Chapter to the contrary, the state-owned company is not required to appoint an auditor for any financial year in respect of which the Auditor-General has elected, in terms of the Public Audit Act, 2004 (Act No. 25 of 2004), to conduct an audit of that enterprise; and
- (c) in any year in which the state-owned company is required by this Chapter to appoint an auditor, any requirement in terms of the Public Audit Act, 2004 (Act No. 25 of 2004), to have the appointment of the company's auditor approved by the Auditor-General applies to that company, in addition to the relevant provisions of this Chapter.

- (a) as required by this Chapter; or
- (b) voluntarily, as contemplated in section 34 (2).

(6) If the board of a company fails to make an appointment as required by this Part—

- (a) the Commission may issue a notice to that company to show cause why the Commission should not proceed to convene a shareholders meeting for the purpose of making that appointment; and
- (b) if the company fails to respond to a notice contemplated in paragraph (a) or, in responding, fails to satisfy the Commission that the board will make the appointment, or convene a shareholders meeting to make the appointment, within an acceptable period, the Commission may—
 - (i) give notice to the holders of the company's securities of a general meeting, and convene such a meeting, to make that appointment; and
 - (ii) assess a pro-rata share of the cost of convening the general meeting to each director of the company who knowingly permitted the company to fail to make the appointment in accordance with this Part.

(7) A company that has been given notice contemplated in subsection (6) (a), or a director who has been assessed any portion of the costs of a meeting, as contemplated in subsection (6) (b), may apply to the Companies Tribunal to set aside the notice, or the assessment, in whole or in part.

85. Registration of company secretary and auditor.—(1) Every company that makes an appointment contemplated in section 84 (4), irrespective of whether the company does so as required by that section or voluntarily as contemplated in section 34 (2), must—

- (a) before attaining majority, or by persons who have been adopted, married, divorced or widowed; or
- (b) in other circumstances prescribed by the Minister.

(3) Within 10 business days after making an appointment contemplated in subsection (1), or after the termination of service of such an appointment, a company must file a notice of the appointment or termination, as the case may be, subject to subsection (4).

(4) The incorporators of a company may file a notice of the appointment of the company's first company secretary, auditor or audit committee as part of the company's Notice of Incorporation.

Part B

[Sub-s. (1) substituted by s. 54 (a) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

(2) Every company secretary, irrespective of whether the appointment is made as required by subsection (1) or in terms of a requirement in a company's Memorandum of Incorporation, as contemplated in section 34 (2) and 84 (1) (c) (ii), must—

- (a) have the requisite knowledge of, or experience in, relevant laws; and
- (b) be a permanent resident of the Republic, and remain so while serving in that capacity.

(3A) The first company secretary of a company that is required only in terms of its Memorandum of Incorporation to appoint a company secretary as contemplated in sections 34 (2) and 84 (1) (c) (ii), must be appointed—

- (a) in accordance with subsection (3), if the requirement to appoint a company secretary applies to that company when it is incorporated; or
- (b) within 40 business days after the date on which the requirement first applies to the company, by either—
 - (i) the directors of the company; or
 - (ii) an ordinary resolution of the holders of the company's securities.

[Sub-s. (3A) inserted by s. 54 (b) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

(3) The first company secretary of a public company or state-owned company may be appointed by—

- (a) the incorporators of the company; or

- (b) within 40 business days after the incorporation of the company, by either—
 - (i) the directors of the company; or
 - (ii) an ordinary resolution of the holders of the company's securities.

(4) Within 60 business days after a vacancy arises in the office of company secretary, the board must fill the vacancy by appointing a person whom the directors consider to have the requisite knowledge and experience.

87. Juristic person or partnership may be appointed company secretary.—(1) A juristic person or partnership may be appointed to hold the office of company secretary, provided that—

- (a) every employee of that juristic person who provides company secretary services, or partner and employee of that partnership, as the case may be, satisfies the requirements contemplated in section 84 (5); and
- (b) at least one employee of that juristic person, or one partner or employee of that partnership, as the case may be, satisfies the requirements contemplated in section 86.

(2) A change in the membership of a juristic person or partnership that holds office as company secretary does not constitute a casual vacancy in the office of company secretary, if the juristic person or partnership continues to satisfy the requirements of subsection (1).

(3) If at any time a juristic person or partnership holds office as company secretary of a particular company—

- (a) the juristic person or partnership must immediately notify the directors of the company if the juristic person or partnership no longer satisfies the requirements of subsection (1), and is regarded to have resigned as company secretary upon giving that notice to the company;
- (b) the company is entitled to assume that the juristic person or partnership satisfies the requirements of subsection (1), until the company has received a notice contemplated in paragraph (a); and
- (c) any action taken by the juristic person or partnership in performance of its functions as company secretary is not invalidated merely because the juristic person or partnership had ceased to satisfy the requirements of subsection (1) at the time of that action.

88. Duties of company secretary.—(1) A company's secretary is accountable to the company's board.

(2) A company secretary's duties include, but are not restricted to—

- (a) providing the directors of the company collectively and individually with guidance as to their duties, responsibilities and powers;

- (g) carrying out the functions of a person designated in terms of section 33 (3).

89. Resignation or removal of company secretary.—(1) A company secretary may resign from office by giving the company—

- (a) one month written notice; or
- (b) less than one month written notice, with the approval of the board.

(2) If the company secretary is removed from office by the board, the company secretary may require the company to include a statement in its annual financial statements relating to that financial year, not exceeding a reasonable length, setting out the company secretary's contention as to the circumstances that resulted in the removal.

(3) If the company secretary wishes to exercise the power referred to in subsection (2), the company secretary must give written notice to that effect to the company by not later than the end of the financial year in which the removal took place and that notice must include the statement referred to in subsection (2).

(4) The statement of the company secretary referred to in subsection (2) must be included in the directors' report in the company's annual financial statements.

Part C
Auditors

90. Appointment of auditor.—(1) Upon its incorporation, and each year at its annual general meeting, a public company or state-owned company must appoint an auditor.

(1A) A company referred to in section 84 (1) (c) (i), or a company that is required only in terms of its Memorandum of Incorporation to have its annual financial statements audited as contemplated in sections 34 (2) and 84 (1) (c) (ii), must appoint an auditor—

- (a) in accordance with subsection (1), if the requirement to have its annual financial statements audited applies to that company when it is incorporated; or
- (b) at the annual general meeting at which the requirement first applies to the company, and each annual general meeting thereafter.

[Sub-s. (1A) inserted by s. 55 of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

(2) To be appointed as an auditor of a company, whether as required by subsection (1) or as contemplated in section 34 (2), a person or firm—

- (a) must be a registered auditor;
- (b) in addition to the prohibition contemplated in section 84 (5), must not be—
 - (i) a director or prescribed officer of the company;
 - (ii) an employee or consultant of the company who was or has been engaged for more than one year in the maintenance of any of the company's financial records or the preparation of any of its financial statements;
 - (iii) a director, officer or employee of a person appointed as company secretary in terms of Part B of this Chapter;
 - (iv) a person who, alone or with a partner or employees, habitually or regularly performs the duties of accountant or bookkeeper, or performs related secretarial work, for the company;
 - (v) a person who, at any time during the five financial years immediately preceding the date of appointment, was a person contemplated in any of subparagraphs (i) to (iv); or
 - (vi) a person related to a person contemplated in subparagraphs (i) to (v); and
- (c) must be acceptable to the company's audit committee as being independent of the company, having regard to the matters enumerated in section 94 (8), in the case of a company that has appointed an audit committee, whether as required by section 94, or voluntarily as contemplated in section 34 (2).

(3) If a company appoints a firm as an auditor, the individual determined by that firm, in terms of section 44 (1) of the Auditing Profession Act, to be responsible for performing the functions of auditor must satisfy the requirements of subsection (2).

(4) If a company that is required to appoint an auditor does not do so when it registers the incorporation of the company, the directors of the company must appoint the first auditor of the company within 40 business days after the date of incorporation of the company.

(5) The first auditor of a company holds office until the conclusion of the first annual general meeting of the company.

(6) A retiring auditor may be automatically reappointed at an annual general meeting without any resolution being passed, unless—

- (a) the retiring auditor is—
 - (i) no longer qualified for appointment;
 - (ii) no longer willing to accept the appointment, and has so notified the company; or
 - (iii) required to cease serving as auditor, in terms of section 92;
- (b) an audit committee appointed by the company in terms of this Act objects to the reappointment; or
- (c) the company has notice of an intended resolution to appoint some other person or persons in place of the retiring auditor.

(7) If an annual general meeting of a company does not appoint or reappoint an auditor the directors must fill the vacancy in the office in terms of the procedure contemplated in section 91 within 40 business days after the date of the meeting.

91. Resignation of auditors and vacancies.—(1) The resignation of an auditor is effective when the notice is filed.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), if a vacancy arises in the office of auditor of a company, the board of that company—

- (a) must appoint a new auditor within 40 business days, if there was only one incumbent auditor of the company; and
- (b) may appoint a new auditor at any time, if there was more than one incumbent, but while any such vacancy continues, the surviving or continuing auditor may act as auditor of the company.

(3) Before making an appointment in terms of subsection (2)—

- (a) the board must propose to the company's audit committee, within 15 business days after the vacancy occurs, the name of at least one registered auditor to be considered for appointment as the new auditor; and
- (b) may proceed to make an appointment of a person proposed in terms of paragraph (a) if, within five business days after delivering the proposal, the audit committee does not give notice in writing to the board rejecting the proposed auditor.

(4) If a company appoints a firm as its auditor, any change in the composition of the members of that firm does not by itself create a vacancy in the office of auditor for that year, subject to subsection (5).

(5) If, by comparison with the membership of a firm at the time of its latest appointment, less than one half of the members remain after a change contemplated in subsection (4), that change constitutes the resignation of the firm as auditor of the company, giving rise to a vacancy.

(6) Section 89, read with the changes required by the context, applies with respect to an auditor of a company, but a reference in that section to "company secretary" must be regarded as referring to the company's auditor.

[Sub-s. (6) inserted by s. 56 of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

92. Rotation of auditors.—(1) The same individual may not serve as the auditor or designated auditor of a company for more than five consecutive financial years.

(2) If an individual has served as the auditor or designated auditor of a company for two or more consecutive financial years and then ceases to be the auditor or designated auditor, the individual may not be appointed again as the auditor or designated auditor of that company until after the expiry of at least two further financial years.

(3) If a company has appointed two or more persons as joint auditors, the company must manage the rotation required by this section in such a manner that all of the joint auditors do not relinquish office in the same year.

93. Rights and restricted functions of auditors.—(1) The auditor of a company—

- (a) has the right of access at all times to the accounting records and all books and documents of the company, and is entitled to require from the directors or prescribed officers of the company any information and explanations necessary for the performance of the auditor's duties;
- (b) in the case of the auditor of a holding company, has the right of access to all current and former financial statements of any subsidiary of that holding company and is entitled to require from the directors or officers of the holding company or subsidiary any information and explanations in connection with any such statements and in connection with the accounting records, books and documents of the subsidiary as necessary for the performance of the auditor's duties; and
- (c) is entitled to—
 - (i) attend any general shareholders meeting;
 - (ii) receive all notices of and other communications relating to any general shareholders meeting; and
 - (iii) be heard at any general shareholders meeting contemplated in this paragraph on any part of the business of the meeting that concerns the auditor's duties or functions.

(2) An auditor may apply to a court for an appropriate order to enforce the rights set out in subsection (1) (a) or (b), and a court may—

- (a) make any order that is just and reasonable to prevent frustration of the auditor's duties by the company or any of its directors, prescribed officers or employees; and
- (b) make an order of costs personally against any director or prescribed officer whom the court has found to have wilfully and knowingly frustrated, or attempted to frustrate, the performance of the auditor's functions.

(3) An auditor appointed by a company may not perform any services for that company—

- (a) that would place the auditor in a conflict of interest as prescribed or determined by the Independent Regulatory Board for Auditors in terms of section 44 (6) of the Auditing Profession Act; or
- (b) as may be determined by the company's audit committee in terms of section 94 (7) (d).

Part D
Audit committees

94. Audit committees.—(1) This section—

- (a) applies concurrently with section 64 of the Banks Act, to any company that is subject to that section of that Act, but subsections (2), (3) and (4) of this section do not apply to the appointment of an audit committee by any such company; and

- (b) does not apply to a company that has been granted an exemption in terms of section 64 (4) of the Banks Act.

(2) At each annual general meeting, a public company, state-owned company or other company that is required only by its Memorandum of Incorporation to have an audit committee as contemplated in sections 34 (2) and 84 (1) (c) (ii), must elect an audit committee comprising at least three members, unless—

- (a) the company is a subsidiary of another company that has an audit committee; and
- (b) the audit committee of that other company will perform the functions required under this section on behalf of that subsidiary company.

[Sub-s. (2) amended by s. 57 (a) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

(3) The first members of the audit committee may be appointed by—

- (a) the incorporators of a company; or
- (b) by the board, within 40 business days after the incorporation of the company.

(4) Each member of an audit committee of a company must—

- (a) be a director of the company, who satisfies any applicable requirements prescribed in terms of subsection (5);
- (b) not be—
 - (i) involved in the day-to-day management of the company's business or have been so involved at any time during the previous financial year;
 - (ii) a prescribed officer, or full-time employee, of the company or another related or inter-related company, or have been such an officer or employee at any time during the previous three financial years; or
 - (iii) a material supplier or customer of the company, such that a reasonable and informed third party would conclude in the circumstances that the integrity, impartiality or objectivity of that director is compromised by that relationship; and
- (c) not be related to any person who falls within any of the criteria set out in paragraph (b).

(5) The Minister may prescribe minimum qualification requirements for members of an audit committee as necessary to ensure that any such committee, taken as a whole, comprises persons with adequate relevant knowledge and experience to equip the committee to perform its functions.

(6) The board of a company contemplated in section 84 (1) must appoint a person to fill any vacancy on the audit committee within 40 business days after the vacancy arises.

(7) An audit committee of a company has the following duties:

- (a) To nominate, for appointment as auditor of the company under section 90, a registered auditor who, in the opinion of the audit committee, is independent of the company;
- (b) to determine the fees to be paid to the auditor and the auditor's terms of engagement;
- (c) to ensure that the appointment of the auditor complies with the provisions of this Act and any other legislation relating to the appointment of auditors;
- (d) to determine, subject to the provisions of this Chapter, the nature and extent of any non-audit services that the auditor may provide to the company, or that the auditor must not provide to the company, or a related company;
- (e) to pre-approve any proposed agreement with the auditor for the provision of non-audit services to the company;
- (f) to prepare a report, to be included in the annual financial statements for that financial year—

- (i) describing how the audit committee carried out its functions;
 - (ii) stating whether the audit committee is satisfied that the auditor was independent of the company; and
 - (iii) commenting in any way the committee considers appropriate on the financial statements, the accounting practices and the internal financial control of the company;
- (g) to receive and deal appropriately with any concerns or complaints, whether from within or outside the company, or on its own initiative, relating to—
- (i) the accounting practices and internal audit of the company;
 - (ii) the content or auditing of the company's financial statements;
 - (iii) the internal financial controls of the company; or
 - (iv) any related matter;
- (h) to make submissions to the board on any matter concerning the company's accounting policies, financial control, records and reporting; and
- (i) to perform such other oversight functions as may be determined by the board.
[Para. (i) substituted by s. 57 (b) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

(8) In considering whether, for the purposes of this Part, a registered auditor is independent of a company, the audit committee of that company must—

- (a) ascertain that the auditor does not receive any direct or indirect remuneration or other benefit from the company, except—
 - (i) as auditor; or
 - (ii) for rendering other services to the company, to the extent permitted in terms of subsection (7) (d);
[Sub-para. (ii) substituted by s. 57 (c) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]
- (b) consider whether the auditor's independence may have been prejudiced—
 - (i) as a result of any previous appointment as auditor; or
 - (ii) having regard to the extent of any consultancy, advisory or other work undertaken by the auditor for the company; and
- (c) consider compliance with other criteria relating to independence or conflict of interest as prescribed by the Independent Regulatory Board for Auditors established by the Auditing Profession Act, in relation to the company, and if the company is a member of a group of companies, any other company within that group.

(9) Nothing in this section precludes the appointment by a company at its annual general meeting of an auditor other than one nominated by the audit committee, but if such an auditor is appointed, the appointment is valid only if the audit committee is satisfied that the proposed auditor is independent of the company.
[Sub-s. (9) substituted by s. 57 (d) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

(10) Neither the appointment nor the duties of an audit committee reduce the functions and duties of the board or the directors of the company, except with respect to the appointment, fees and terms of engagement of the auditor.

(11) A company must pay all expenses reasonably incurred by its audit committee, including, if the audit committee considers it appropriate, the fees of any consultant or specialist engaged by the audit committee to assist it in the performance of its functions.

CHAPTER 4

(3) An untrue statement is regarded to have been included in a prospectus, written statement, or summary directing a person to either a prospectus or written statement, if it is contained in any report or memorandum—

- (a) that appears on the face of the prospectus, written statement, or summary; or
- (b) that is incorporated by reference within, or is attached to or accompanies, the prospectus, written statement or summary.

(5) A provision of an agreement is void to the extent that it—

- (a) requires an applicant for securities to waive compliance with a requirement of this Chapter; or

[Sub-s. (7) inserted by s. 58 (c) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

96. Offers that are not offers to public.—(1) An offer is not an offer to the public—

- (a) if the offer is made only to—
 - (i) persons whose ordinary business, or part of whose ordinary business, is to deal in securities, whether as principals or agents;

- (c) if it is a non-renounceable offer made only to—
 - (i) existing holders of the company's securities; or
 - (ii) persons related to existing holders of the company's securities; or
- (d) if it is a rights offer that satisfies the prescribed requirements, and—
 - (i) an exchange has granted or has agreed to grant a listing for the securities that are the subject of the offer; and
 - (ii) the rights offer complies with any relevant requirements of that exchange at the time the offer is made;
- (e) if the offer is made only to a director or prescribed officer of the company, or a person related to a director or prescribed officer, unless the offer is renounceable in favour of a person who is not a director or prescribed officer of the company or a person related to a director or prescribed officer;

- (f) if it pertains to an employee share scheme that satisfies the requirements of section 97; or
- (g) if it is an offer, or one of a series of offers, for subscription, made in writing, and—

 - (b) a minimum period for the purposes of subsection (1) (g) (v), which must not be less than six months.

97. Standards for qualifying employee share schemes.—(1) An employee share scheme qualifies for exemptions contemplated in sections 41 (2) (d), 44 (3) (a) (i) or 45 (3) (a) (i) or otherwise contemplated in this Chapter, if—

[Sub-s. (1) substituted by s. 59 (a) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

- (a) the company has—
 - (i) appointed a compliance officer for the scheme to be accountable to the directors of the company;

- (b) the compliance officer has complied with the requirements of subsection (2).
- (2) A compliance officer who is appointed in respect of any employee share scheme—
 - (a) is responsible for the administration of that scheme;
 - (b) must provide a written statement to any employee who receives an offer of specified shares in terms of that employee scheme, setting out—
 - (i) full particulars of the nature of the transaction, including the risks associated with it;
 - (ii) information relating to the company, including its latest annual financial statements, the general nature of its business and its profit history over the last three years; and
 - (iii) full particulars of any material changes that occur in respect of any information provided in terms of subparagraph (i) or (ii);
 - (c) must ensure that copies of the documents containing the information referred to in paragraph (b) are filed within 20 business days after the employee share scheme has been established; and

[Para. (c) substituted by s. 59 (a) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

- (d) must file a certificate within 60 business days after the end of each financial year, certifying that the compliance officer has complied with the obligations in terms of this section during the past financial year.

[Para. (d) substituted by s. 59 (b) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

98. Advertisements relating to offers.—(1) As an alternative to any other manner of making or presenting an offer to the public, such an offer may be made or presented by way of an advertisement that—

- (a) satisfies all of the requirements of this Act with respect to a registered prospectus; and

- (b) is subject to every provision of this Act relating to the making of a prospectus.

(2) In addition to making or presenting an offer to the public by publishing a prospectus, such an offer may be drawn to the attention of the public by an advertisement, but any such advertisement—

- (a) must include a statement—

(i) clearly stating that it is not a prospectus; and

(ii) indicating where and how a person may obtain a copy of the full registered prospectus relating to that offer;

- (b) must not contain any untrue statement or, by express statement, omission or reasonable implication, be such as would reasonably mislead a person reading the advertisement—

(i) to believe that the advertisement is a prospectus; or

(ii) as to any material particular addressed in the prospectus relating to that offer; and

- (c) is subject to sections 102 to 111, read with the changes required by the context.

(3) An advertisement drawing attention to an offer to the public, as contemplated in subsection (2)—

- (a) that satisfies the requirements of subsection (2) (a) and (b) is not required to be filed, or registered with an exchange; or

[Para. (a) substituted by s. 60 of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

- (b) that does not satisfy all of the requirements set out in subsection (2) (a) and (b) will despite any statement to the contrary contained in the advertisement, be regarded as having been intended to be a prospectus issued by the person responsible for publishing or disseminating the advertisement, and is subject to every provision of this Act relating to such a prospectus.

[Para. (b) substituted by s. 60 of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

99. General restrictions on offers to public.—(1) A person must not offer to the public any securities of any person unless that second person—

- (a) is a company; and

- (b) in the case of a foreign company, a copy of its Memorandum of Incorporation or comparable governing document, and a list of the names and addresses of its directors, has been filed within 90 business days before the offer to the public is made.

[Para. (b) substituted by s. 61 of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

(2) A person must not make an initial public offering unless that offer is accompanied by a registered prospectus.

(3) Except with respect to securities that are the subject of a company's initial public offering, a person must not make a—

- (a) primary offer to the public of any—
 - (i) listed securities of a company, otherwise than in accordance with the requirements of the relevant exchange; or
 - (ii) unlisted securities of a company, unless the offer is accompanied by a registered prospectus that satisfies the requirements of section 100; or
- (b) secondary offer to the public of any securities of a company, unless the offer satisfies the requirements of section 101.

(4) A person must not issue, distribute, deliver or cause to be issued, distributed or delivered a letter of allocation unless it is accompanied by all documents that are required, and have been—

- (a) filed, in the case of unlisted securities; or
- (b) approved by the relevant exchange, in the case of listed securities.

(5) Subject to subsection (6), a person must not issue, distribute or deliver or cause to be issued, distributed or delivered, any form of application in respect of securities of a company, unless the form—

- (a) is accompanied by—
 - (i) a registered prospectus in the case of a primary offering; or
 - (ii) a written statement that satisfies the requirements of section 101, in the case of a secondary offering; and
- (b) bears on the face of it the date on which the prospectus in respect of those securities was filed.

(6) Subsection (5) does not apply if the form of application was issued either—

- (a) in connection with a genuine invitation to enter into an underwriting agreement with respect to the securities; or
- (b) in relation to securities that were not offered to the public.

(7) Despite anything contained in a company's Memorandum of Incorporation, the company may exclude from any rights offer any category of holders of the company's securities who are not resident within the Republic—

- (a) if the Commission has approved that exclusion in advance, on application by the company in the prescribed manner and form on the grounds that the number of those persons is insignificant relative to—
 - (i) the number of existing holders of the company's securities who are resident within the Republic; and
 - (ii) the administrative cost and inconvenience of extending the rights offer to them; and
- (b) subject to any conditions attached to the approval contemplated in paragraph (a).

(8) A person must not issue a prospectus or a document that purports to be a prospectus, or a document that may reasonably be misapprehended to be intended as a prospectus, unless it is a registered prospectus.

(9) A prospectus may not be registered unless the requirements of this Act have been complied with and it has been filed for registration, together with any prescribed documents, within 10 business days after the date of that prospectus.

(10) As soon as the Commission has registered a prospectus, it must send notice of the registration to the person who filed the prospectus for registration.

(11) A prospectus may not be issued more than three months after the date of its registration, and if a prospectus is so issued, it is regarded to be unregistered.

100. Requirements concerning prospectus.—(1) This section does not apply in respect of listed securities, except listed securities that are the subject of an initial public offering.

(2) Every prospectus is subject to the requirements and provisions of sections 102 to 111 and, in addition, must—

- (a) contain all the information that an investor may reasonably require to assess—
 - (i) the assets and liabilities, financial position, profits and losses, cash flow and prospects of the company in which a right or interest is to be acquired; and
 - (ii) the securities being offered and rights attached to them; and
- (b) adhere to the prescribed specifications.

(3) The date of registration of a prospectus is the date of the issue of the prospectus unless the contrary is proven.

(4) A prospectus must not be registered unless there is attached to it—

- (a) a copy of any material agreement as prescribed; or
- (b) in the case of an unwritten agreement, a memorandum giving full particulars of the agreement.

(5) If any part of an agreement contemplated in subsection (4) is in a language that is not an official language, a certified translation, in an official language, of that part must be attached to the agreement.

(6) A prospectus containing a statement to the effect that the whole or any portion of the issue of the securities offered to the public has been or is being underwritten may not be registered until a copy of the underwriting agreement has been filed, together with a sworn declaration stating that to the best of the deponent's knowledge and belief the underwriter is and will be in a position to carry out the obligations contemplated in the agreement even if no shares are being applied for.

(7) A declaration contemplated in subsection (6) must be sworn by the person named as underwriter or, if the underwriter is a company, by each of two directors of that company, or if it has only one director, by that director.

(8) If an offer is made in respect of which no prospectus is required by this Act, the copy of the agreement and sworn declaration referred to in subsection (6) must be filed not later than the date of the proposed offer of shares.

(9) The Commission, or an exchange in the case of listed securities, on application may allow required information to be omitted from a prospectus, if the Commission or exchange is satisfied—

- (a) that publication of the information would be unnecessarily burdensome for the applicant, seriously detrimental to the company whose securities are the subject of the prospectus, or against public interest; and
- (b) that users will not be unduly prejudiced by the omission.

(10) An application under subsection (9) must be in writing and accompanied by the prescribed fee.

(11) As long as an initial public offering or other primary offering to the public of unlisted securities remains open, any person responsible for information in the prospectus must, when that person becomes aware of it—

- (a) correct any error;

- (b) report on any new matter; and
- (c) report on any change of a matter included in the prospectus, provided these are relevant or material in terms of this Chapter.

(12) A correction or report under subsection (11) must be registered as a supplement to the prospectus, simultaneously published to known recipients of the prospectus and included in future distributions of the prospectus.

(13) If a correction or report has been published, as contemplated in subsections (11) and (12)—

- (a) any person who subscribed for the issue of shares as a result of the offer, before the date of that publication, may withdraw the subscription by written notice within 20 business days after the date of publication;
- (b) the offeror, upon receipt of a notice in terms of paragraph (a), may either—
 - (i) accept the withdrawal, and restore to the person any consideration already paid in respect of the subscription; or
 - (ii) apply to the court for an order in terms of paragraph (c); and
- (c) the court, on an application in terms of paragraph (b) (ii), may make any order that is just and equitable in the circumstances including, but not limited to, an order—

[Para. (c) substituted by s. 62 (b) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

- (i) negating the right of the subscriber to withdraw the offer; or
- (ii) to reverse any transaction, or restore any consideration paid or benefit received by any person in terms of the offer and subscription.

101. Secondary offers to public.—(1) This section does not apply in respect of securities that are—

- (a) listed on an exchange; or
- (b) in respect of which an exchange has granted permission to deal.

(2) Subject only to subsection (3), a person making a secondary offering of the securities of a company must ensure that the offer is accompanied by either—

- (a) the registered prospectus that accompanied the primary offering of those securities, together with any revisions required to address changes in any material matter since the date the prospectus was registered; or
- (b) a written statement that satisfies the requirements of subsections (4) to (6).

(3) Subsection (2) does not apply—

- (a) if the offer is made or the material is published—
 - (i) by a person acting in the capacity of an executor or administrator of a deceased estate or a trustee of an insolvent estate or a liquidator or trustee referred to in the Administration of Estates Act, 1965 (Act No. 66 of 1965); or
 - (ii) for the purpose of a sale in execution or by public auction or by public tender.

(4) If an offer contemplated in this section is in respect of securities of a public company, a person publishing or making the offer must—

- (a) file a copy of the written statement for registration before it is issued, distributed or published; and
- (b) not issue, distribute or publish the statement more than three months after the date on which it is registered.

- (5) The written statement referred to in subsection (3) must be dated and signed by—
- (a) the person making the offer or issuing, distributing or publishing the material; and
 - (b) if that person is a company, by every director of the company.
- (6) The written statement referred to in subsection (3) must—
- (a) not contain any matter other than the particulars required by this section;
 - (b) not be in characters smaller or less legible than any characters used in—
 - (i) the written offer, if any; or
 - (ii) any document that accompanies the statement;
 - (c) be accompanied by a copy of the last annual financial statements of the company, together with any subsequent interim report or provisional annual financial statements of that company; and
 - (d) contain particulars with respect to the following matters:
 - (i) Whether the person making the offer is acting as principal or agent and, if as agent—
 - (aa) the name of the principal;
 - (bb) an address in the Republic where that principal can be served with process; and
 - (cc) the nature and extent of the remuneration received or receivable by the agent for the services provided;

 - (bb) the number of securities that have been issued for cash, and the total cash consideration received by the company for those issued securities of that class; and
 - (cc) the number of securities that have been issued for consideration other than cash, and the value of the consideration received by the company for those issued securities of that class;
 - (iv) the dividends, if any, paid by the company on each class of securities during each of the five financial years immediately preceding the offer, and if no dividend has been paid in respect of securities of any particular class during any of those years, a statement to that effect;
 - (v) the total amount of any securities other than shares issued by the company and outstanding at the date of the statement, together with the rate of interest payable thereon;
 - (vi) the names and addresses of the directors of the company;
 - (vii) whether or not the securities are listed on an exchange, or permission to deal in those securities has been granted by an exchange, other than that referred to in subsection (1), and—
 - (aa) if so, a statement naming that exchange; or

(bb) if not, a statement that they are not so listed and that no such permission has been granted;

[Sub-para. (vii) substituted by s. 63 of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

(viii) if the offer relates to units, particulars of the names and addresses of the persons in whom the securities represented by the units are vested, the date and the parties to any document defining the terms on which those securities are held, and an address in the Republic where that document or a copy of it can be inspected;

(ix) the dates on which and the prices at which the securities offered were originally issued by the company, and were acquired by the person making the offer or by that person's principal, giving the reasons for any difference between those prices and the prices at which the securities are being offered;

(x) if any securities were issued by the company as partly paid-up shares under the Companies Act, 1973 (Act No. 61 of 1973), to what extent they are paid up; and

(xi) the date of registration of the written statement by the Commission.

(7) In subsection (6), the expression "company" refers to the company that issued the relevant securities.

102. Consent to use of name in prospectus.—(1) In any prospectus relating to securities of a company, a person must not—

[Sub-s. (1) substituted by s. 64 (a) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

(a) name a second person as a director or proposed director of that company unless, before the registration of that prospectus—

(i) in the case of a company incorporated in the Republic, the second person consented in writing to act as a director before the prospectus was filed, and has not withdrawn the consent; and

(ii) the prescribed return reflecting the relevant particulars in regard to that second person has been filed; or

[Sub-para. (ii) substituted by s. 64 (b) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

(b) include any statement made by an expert, or reference to any statement purporting to be made by an expert, unless—

(i) the expert consented in writing to the use of that statement before the prospectus was filed, and has not withdrawn the consent;

(ii) the written consent is endorsed on or attached to the copy of the filed prospectus; and

(iii) the prospectus includes a statement that the expert has consented to the use of the statement and has not withdrawn that consent.

(2) A prospectus must not name any person as the auditor, attorney, banker or broker of a company, unless it is accompanied by the written consent of the named person, agreeing to—

(a) be named to act in the stated capacity; and

(b) the use of that person's name in the prospectus.

[Para. (b) substituted by s. 64 (c) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

103. Variation of agreement mentioned in prospectus.—(1) Subject to subsection (2), within one year after the date of filing a prospectus, a company must not vary or agree to vary any material terms of an agreement referred to in the prospectus, other than in the ordinary course of business.

(2) A variation in the terms of an agreement, as contemplated in subsection (1), may be made or agreed by a company only if—

- (a) the variation was contemplated and set out in the prospectus; or
- (b) the specific terms of the variation are authorised or ratified by an ordinary resolution adopted at a general shareholders meeting.

104. Liability for untrue statements in prospectus.—(1) If securities are offered to the public for subscription or sale pursuant to a prospectus, every—

- (a) person who becomes a director between the issuing of the prospectus and the holding of the first general shareholders meeting at which directors are elected or appointed;
- (b) person who has consented to be named in the prospectus as a director, or as having agreed to become a director either immediately or after an interval of time;
- (c) promoter of the company; or

 - (ii) made that offer to the public, is liable to compensate any person who acquired securities on the faith of the prospectus for any loss or damage the person may have sustained as a result of any untrue statement in the prospectus, or in any report or memorandum appearing on the face of, issued with, or incorporated by reference in, the prospectus.

(2) The liability contemplated in subsection (1) is in addition to the liability of a director of the company, as set out in section 77 (3) (d) (ii).

(3) Liability contemplated in this section does not attach to a person if—

- (a) with respect to every untrue statement not purporting to be made on the authority of an expert or of a public official document or statement, that person had reasonable grounds to believe, and did up to the time of the allotment of the securities or the acceptance of the offer, as the case may be, believe that the statement was true;
- (b) with respect to every untrue statement purporting to be a statement by an expert or contained in what purports to be a copy of or extract from the report or valuation of an expert—
 - (i) the untrue statement fairly represented the statement or was a correct and fair copy of or extract from the report or valuation; and
 - (ii) the person had reasonable grounds to believe and did up to the time of the issue of the prospectus believe that the expert who made the statement was competent to make it, and consented, as required by this Act, to the issue of the prospectus or the making of the offer and had not withdrawn that consent—
 - (aa) before the prospectus was filed; or
 - (bb) to that person's knowledge, before any allotment under the prospectus, or before the acceptance of the offer;
- (c) any untrue statement purporting to be a statement made by an official person or contained in what purports to be a copy of or extract from a public official document was a correct and a fair representation of the statement or copy of or extract from the document;

- (d) that person consented to become a director of the company, but subsequently withdrew that consent before the issue of the prospectus, and it was issued without that person's consent;

[Para. (d) substituted by s. 65 (b) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

- (e) the prospectus was issued without the knowledge or consent of that person and, on becoming aware of its issue, that person forthwith gave reasonable public notice that it was issued without the knowledge or consent of that person; or
- (f) after the issue of the prospectus and before allotment or acceptance thereunder, that person, on becoming aware of any untrue statement in it, withdrew any consent to the prospectus and gave reasonable public notice of the withdrawal and of the reason for it.

(4) If a prospectus contains the name of a person as a director of the company, or as having agreed to become a director of that company, and that person has not consented to becoming a director, or has withdrawn consent before the issue of the prospectus, and has not authorised or consented to the issue of the prospectus, the directors of the company, except any without whose knowledge or consent the prospectus was issued—

- (a) are liable to the extent set out in section 77 (3) (d) (ii); and
- (b) any other person who issued the prospectus or authorised the issue of it, is liable, together with the directors, to indemnify any person incorrectly named as a director against any damage, cost or expense arising as a result of that person having been so named in the prospectus, or incurred in defending against any action or legal proceedings brought in respect of having been so named in the prospectus.

(5) Subsection (4), read with the changes required by the context, applies equally in respect of any other person whose consent is required in terms of this Act in connection with any thing contained in a prospectus, and who has either—

- (a) not given that consent; or
- (b) has withdrawn it before the issue of the prospectus.

(6) A person who, by reason of—

- (a) being a director, or having been named as a director;
- (b) having agreed to become a director;
- (c) having authorised the issue of the prospectus; or
- (d) having become a director between the issue of the prospectus and the holding of the first general shareholders meeting at which directors are elected or appointed, has satisfied any liability under this section by making a payment to another person, may recover a contribution, as in cases of contract, from any other person, who, if sued separately, would have been liable to make the same payment, unless the person who has satisfied such liability was, and that other person was not, guilty of fraudulent misrepresentation.

105. Liability of experts and others.—(1) If a person has consented to the use of their name, or the inclusion of any material in a prospectus, as contemplated in this Chapter, that consent does not make the person liable as one who has authorised the issue of the prospectus under section 104 (1) (d), either—

- (a) to compensate persons purchasing on the faith of the prospectus, except in respect of any untrue statement purporting to be made by that person as an expert; or
- (b) to indemnify any person against liability under section 104 (6).

(2) Despite subsection (1), a person contemplated in that subsection is liable under section 104 in respect of any untrue statement purporting to be made by that person as an expert unless—

- (a) the expert person withdrew that consent in writing before the prospectus was filed for registration;
- (b) between the filing of the prospectus for registration and any allotment in terms of it to a complainant, that expert person became aware of the untrue statement, withdrew the consent in writing and gave reasonable public notice of the withdrawal and of the reason for it; or
- (c) the expert person—
 - (i) was competent to make the statement; and
 - (ii) had reasonable ground to believe and did up to the time of the allotment of the securities or the acceptance of the offer, as the case may be, believe that the statement was true.

(3) The defences available to a person in this subsection are in lieu of any applicable defence available in terms of section 104 (3).

106. Responsibility for untrue statements in prospectus.—(1) If a prospectus contains a statement that is untrue, every person referred to in section 104 (1) or (2) is equally responsible in terms of the enforcement provisions of this Act, for that untrue statement, subject to the provisions of subsections (2) and (3).

(2) If—

- (a) a published prospectus contains or is accompanied by a report of an expert, or an extract from such a report;
- (b) the report or extract contains a statement that is untrue; and
- (c) the expert has consented to the inclusion of the statement in the prospectus in the form and context in which it appears, the expert person is solely responsible for that statement, subject to the provisions of subsection (3).

(3) A person is not responsible for an untrue statement contemplated in this section if—

- (a) the untrue statement was immaterial; or
- (b) liability for the untrue statement does not attach to that person for any reason set out in section 104 (3).

107. Time limit for allotment or acceptance.—A company that has offered securities to the public must not allot any of those securities or accept any subscription for any of those securities, more than four months after filing the prospectus for that offer.

108. Restrictions on allotment.—(1) A company that has offered securities to the public must not allot any of those securities or accept any subscription for any of those securities unless—

- (a) the subscription has been made on an application form that has been attached to or accompanied by a prospectus; or
- (b) it is shown that the applicant, at the time of the application, was in fact in possession of a copy of the prospectus or was aware of its contents.

(2) A company that has offered securities to the public must not allot any of those securities unless the amount stated in that prospectus as the minimum amount which in the opinion of the directors of the company concerned must be raised by the issue of securities in order to provide for the matters prescribed to be covered by minimum subscription and the amount so stated has been paid to and received by the company.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (2)—

- (a) an amount stated in any cheque received by the company must not be regarded to have been paid to it until the amount of the cheque has been unconditionally credited to its account with its bankers; and
- (b) any amount paid to and received by the company must be reduced by the amount of any money, bill, promissory note or cheque that it has at any time delivered to the payer otherwise than in discharge of a debt bona fide due by the company.

(4) The minimum amount contemplated in subsection (2) must be reckoned exclusively of any amount payable otherwise than in cash.

(5) Until the minimum amount contemplated in subsection (2) has been made up, any amount paid on an application contemplated in this section must—

- (a) be paid into a separate account with a banking institution registered under the Banks Act; and
- (b) not be used or made available for the purposes of the company or for the satisfaction of its debts.

(6) If the circumstances contemplated in subsection (2) have not been realised within 40 business days after the issue of the prospectus, all amounts received from applicants must be repaid to them promptly without interest.

(7) If any money required to be repaid to an applicant in terms of subsection (6) has not been repaid within 55 business days after the issue of the prospectus, each director or prescribed officer of the company is jointly and severally liable, with all other such directors and prescribed officers of the company, to repay that money with interest, in accordance with the Prescribed Rate of Interest Act, 1975 (Act No. 55 of 1975), from the expiration of the 55th business day, unless the default in payment was not due to any misconduct or negligence on the part of that director or prescribed officer.

109. Voidable allotment.—(1) If an allotment made by a company to an applicant, or the acceptance of an offer made by an applicant, is in contravention of section 108 (2), and the relevant offer was not subsequently subscribed to the minimum extent contemplated in that section—

- (a) that allotment is voidable at the instance of the applicant concerned, irrespective of whether the company concerned may be in the course of being wound up; and

[Para. (a) substituted by s. 68 of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

- (b) every director of the company concerned and, if the offeror is a company, every director of that company, is liable to the extent set out in section 77 (3) (e) (vii), if the allotment or acceptance is declared void under paragraph (a).

[Para. (b) substituted by s. 68 of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

(2) Proceedings to recover any loss, damages or costs contemplated in this section may not be commenced after the earlier of—

- (a) 20 business days after the applicant discovers the contravention; or
- (b) three years after the date of the relevant allotment or acceptance.

110. Minimum interval before allotment or acceptance.—(1) No allotment of securities or acceptance of an offer in respect of securities of a company may be made in pursuance of a prospectus, and no proceedings may be taken on applications made in pursuance of a prospectus, until the beginning of the third day after that on which the prospectus is first issued or such later time, if any, specified in the prospectus.

(2) The reference in subsection (1) to the day on which a prospectus was first issued—

- (a) is a reference to the day on which it is first issued as a newspaper advertisement; or
 - (b) if it is not issued as a newspaper advertisement before the third day after the day on which it is first issued in any other manner, is a reference to the day on which it is first issued in that other manner.
- (3) A contravention of subsection (1) does not affect the validity of an allotment or acceptance.

111. Conditional allotment if prospectus states securities to be listed.—(1) A prospectus containing a statement to the effect that application has been or will be made for permission for the securities offered thereby to be listed on an exchange must not be issued unless—

- (a) an application has in fact been made in accordance with the requirements of the relevant exchange on or before the date of issue of that prospectus; and
- (b) the prospectus names the particular exchange to which the application has been made.

(2) Any allotment of securities in pursuance of a prospectus referred to in subsection (1) is subject to the condition that—

- (a) the application contemplated in subsection (1) (a) is granted; or
- (b) an appeal against a refusal of such an application is upheld.

CHAPTER 5 FUNDAMENTAL TRANSACTIONS, TAKEOVERS AND OFFERS

Part A Approval for certain fundamental transactions

112. Proposals to dispose of all or greater part of assets or undertaking.—(1) This section and section 115 do not apply to a proposal to dispose of all or the greater part of the assets or undertaking of a company, if that disposal would constitute a transaction—

- (a) that is pursuant to or contemplated in a business rescue plan adopted in accordance with Chapter 6;
- (b) between a wholly-owned subsidiary and its holding company; or
- (c) between or among—
 - (i) two or more wholly-owned subsidiaries of the same holding company; or
 - (ii) a wholly-owned subsidiary of a holding company, on the one hand, and its holding company and one or more wholly-owned subsidiaries of that holding company, on the other hand.

(2) A company may not dispose of all or the greater part of its assets or undertaking unless—

- (a) the disposal has been approved by a special resolution of the shareholders, in accordance with section 115; and
- (b) the company has satisfied all other requirements set out in section 115, to the extent those requirements are applicable to such a disposal by that company.

(3) A notice of a shareholders meeting to consider a resolution to approve a disposal contemplated in subsection (2) (a) must—

[Para. (a) substituted by s. 69 (a) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

- (b) include or be accompanied by a written summary of—
 - (i) the precise terms of the transaction or series of transactions, to be considered at the meeting; and
 - (ii) the provisions of sections 115 and 164,

in a manner that satisfies the prescribed standards.

(4) Any part of the undertaking or assets of a company to be disposed of, as contemplated in this section, must be fairly valued, as calculated in the prescribed manner, as at the date of the proposal, which date must be determined in the prescribed manner.

[Sub-s. (4) substituted by s. 69 (b) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

(5) A resolution contemplated in subsection (2) (a) is effective only to the extent that it authorises a specific transaction.

[Sub-s. (5) substituted by s. 69 (b) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

113. Proposals for amalgamation or merger.—(1) Two or more profit companies, including holding and subsidiary companies, may amalgamate or merge if, upon implementation of the amalgamation or merger, each amalgamated or merged company will satisfy the solvency and liquidity test.

- (g) details of any arrangement or strategy necessary to complete the amalgamation or merger, and to provide for the subsequent management and operation of the proposed amalgamated or merged company or companies; and
- (h) the estimated cost of the proposed amalgamation or merger.

(3) If the securities of one of the amalgamating or merging companies are held by or on behalf of another of the amalgamating or merging companies, the agreement required by subsection (2) must provide for the cancellation of those securities when the amalgamation or merger becomes effective, without any repayment of capital in respect thereof, and no provision may be made in the agreement for the conversion of those securities into securities of an amalgamated or merged company.

(4) Subject to subsection (6), the board of each amalgamating or merging company—

- (a) must consider whether, upon implementation of the agreement, each proposed amalgamated or merged company will satisfy the solvency and liquidity test; and

114. Proposals for scheme of arrangement.—(1) Unless it is in liquidation or in the course of business rescue proceedings in terms of Chapter 6, the board of a company may propose and, subject to subsection (4) and approval in terms of this Part, implement any arrangement between the company and holders of any class of its securities, by way of, among other things—

- (iii) be related to a person who has or has had a relationship contemplated in subparagraph (i) or (ii).

[Sub-s. (4) inserted by s. 70 (d) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

115. Required approval for transactions contemplated in Part.—(1) Despite section 65, and any provision of a company's Memorandum of Incorporation, or any resolution adopted by its board or holders of its securities, to the contrary, a company may not dispose of, or give effect to an agreement or series of agreements to dispose of, all or the greater part of its assets or undertaking, implement an amalgamation or a merger, or implement a scheme of arrangement, unless—

 - (i) has been approved in terms of this section; or
 - (ii) is pursuant to or contemplated in an approved business rescue plan for that company, in terms of Chapter 6; and

 - (iii) implement a scheme of arrangement,

the Panel has issued a compliance certificate in respect of the transaction, in terms of section 119 (4) (b), or exempted the transaction in terms of section 119 (6).

(2) A proposed transaction contemplated in subsection (1) must be approved —

- (a) by a special resolution adopted by persons entitled to exercise voting rights on such a matter, at a meeting called for that purpose and at which sufficient persons are present to exercise, in aggregate, at least 25% of all of the voting rights that are entitled to be exercised on that matter, or any higher percentage as may be required by the company's Memorandum of Incorporation, as contemplated in section 64 (2); and

- (ii) the proposed transaction concerns a disposal of all or the greater part of the assets or undertaking of the subsidiary; and
- (iii) having regard to the consolidated financial statements of the holding company, the disposal by the subsidiary constitutes a disposal of all or the greater part of the assets or undertaking of the holding company; and

[Sub-para. (iii) substituted by s. 71 (c) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

- (c) by the court, to the extent required in the circumstances and manner contemplated in subsections (3) to (6).

(3) Despite a resolution having been adopted as contemplated in subsections (2) (a) and (b), a company may not proceed to implement that resolution without the approval of a court if—

- (a) the resolution was opposed by at least 15% of the voting rights that were exercised on that resolution and, within five business days after the vote, any person who voted against the resolution requires the company to seek court approval; or

[Para. (a) substituted by s. 71 (d) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

- (b) the court, on an application within 10 business days after the vote by any person who voted against the resolution, grants that person leave, in terms of subsection (6), to apply to a court for a review of the transaction in accordance with subsection (7).

[Para. (b) substituted by s. 71 (d) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

(4) For the purposes of subsections (2) and (3), any voting rights controlled by an acquiring party, a person related to an acquiring party, or a person acting in concert with either of them, must not be included in calculating the percentage of voting rights—

- (a) required to be present, or actually present, in determining whether the applicable quorum requirements are satisfied; or
- (b) required to be voted in support of a resolution, or actually voted in support of the resolution.

(5) If a resolution requires approval by a court as contemplated in terms of subsection (3) (a), the company must either—

- (a) within 10 business days after the vote, apply to the court for approval, and bear the costs of that application; or

[Para. (a) substituted by s. 71 (g) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

- (b) treat the resolution as a nullity.

(6) On an application contemplated in subsection (3) (b), the court may grant leave only if it is satisfied that the applicant—

- (b) appears prepared and able to sustain the proceedings; and
- (c) has alleged facts which, if proved, would support an order in terms of subsection (7).

(7) On reviewing a resolution that is the subject of an application in terms of subsection (5) (a), or after granting leave in terms of subsection (6), the court may set aside the resolution only if—

- (a) the resolution is manifestly unfair to any class of holders of the company's securities; or
- (b) the vote was materially tainted by conflict of interest, inadequate disclosure, failure to comply with the Act, the Memorandum of Incorporation or any applicable rules of the company, or other significant and material procedural irregularity.

(8) The holder of any voting rights in a company is entitled to seek relief in terms of section 164 if that person—

- (a) notified the company in advance of the intention to oppose a special resolution contemplated in this section; and
- (b) was present at the meeting and voted against that special resolution.

(9) If a transaction contemplated in this Part has been approved, any person to whom assets are, or an undertaking is, to be transferred, may apply to a court for an order to effect—

- (e) incidental, consequential and supplemental matters that are necessary for the effectiveness and completion of the transaction; or
- (f) any other relief that may be necessary or appropriate to give effect to, and properly implement, the amalgamation or merger.

116. Implementation of amalgamation or merger.—(1) Subject to subsection (2), after a resolution approving an amalgamation or merger has been adopted by each company that is a party to the agreement—

- (a) each of the amalgamating or merging companies must cause a notice of the amalgamation or merger to be given in the prescribed manner and form to every known creditor of that company;
- (b) within 15 business days after delivery of a notice required by paragraph (a), a creditor may seek leave to apply to a court for a review of the amalgamation or merger only on the grounds that the creditor will be materially prejudiced by the amalgamation or merger; and
- (c) a court may grant leave contemplated in paragraph (b) only if it is satisfied that—

- (i) the applicant for leave is acting in good faith;
- (ii) if implemented, the amalgamation or merger would materially prejudice the creditor; and
- (iii) there are no other remedies available to the creditor.

[Sub-s. (1) substituted by s. 72 (a) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a company engaged in business rescue proceedings, in respect of any transaction pursuant to or contemplated in the company's business rescue plan adopted in accordance with Chapter 6.

(3) A notice of amalgamation or merger must be filed after the transaction has satisfied all the applicable requirements set out in section 115, and—

- (a) after the time contemplated in subsection (1) (b), if no application has been made to the court in terms of that subsection; or
- (b) in any other case—
 - (i) after the court has disposed of any proceedings arising in terms of subsection (1) (b) and (c); and
 - (ii) subject to the order of the court.

[Sub-s. (3) substituted by s. 72 (b) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

(4) A notice of amalgamation or merger must include—

- (a) confirmation that the amalgamation or merger—
 - (i) has satisfied the requirements of sections 113 and 115;
 - (ii) has been approved in terms of the Competition Act, if so required by that Act;
 - (iii) has been granted the consent of the Minister of Finance in terms of section 54 of the Banks Act, if so required by that Act; and
 - (iv) is not subject to—
 - (aa) further approval by any regulatory authority; or
 - (bb) any unfulfilled conditions imposed by or in terms of any law administered by a regulatory authority; and
- (b) the Memorandum of Incorporation of any company newly incorporated in terms of the agreement.

(5) After receiving a notice of amalgamation or merger, the Commission must—

- (a) issue a registration certificate for each company, if any, that has been newly incorporated in terms of the amalgamation or merger agreement; and

(6) An amalgamation or merger—

- (b) does not affect any—
 - (i) existing liability of a party to the agreement, or of a director of any of the amalgamating or merging companies, to be prosecuted in terms of any applicable law;

- (ii) civil, criminal or administrative action or proceeding pending by or against an amalgamating or merging company, and any such proceeding may continue to be prosecuted by or against any amalgamated or merged company; or

- (iii) conviction against, or ruling, order or judgment in favour of or against, an amalgamating or merging company, and any such ruling, order or judgment may be enforced by or against any amalgamated or merged company.

[Sub-para. (iii) substituted by s. 72 (c) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

(7) When an amalgamation or merger agreement has been implemented—

- (a) the property of each amalgamating or merging company becomes the property of the newly amalgamated, or surviving merged, company or companies; and
- (b) each newly amalgamated, or surviving merged company is liable for all of the obligations of every amalgamating or merging company, in accordance with the provisions of the amalgamation or merger agreement, or any other relevant agreement, but in any case subject to the requirement that each amalgamated or merged company must satisfy the solvency and liquidity test, and subject to subsection (8), if it is applicable.

[Sub-s. (7) substituted by s. 72 (d) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

(8) If, as a consequence of an amalgamation or merger, any property that is registered in terms of any public regulation is to be transferred from an amalgamating or merging company to an amalgamated or merged company, a copy of the amalgamation or merger agreement, together with a copy of the filed notice of amalgamation or merger, constitutes sufficient evidence for the keeper of the relevant property registry to effect a transfer of the registration of that property.

(9) If, with respect to a transaction involving a company that is regulated in terms of the Banks Act, there is a conflict between a provision of subsection (7) and a provision of section 54 of that Act, the provisions of that Act prevail.

- (f) “offer”, when used as a noun, means a proposal of any sort, including a partial offer, which, if accepted, would result in an affected transaction other than such a transaction that is exempted in terms of section 118 (3);
- (g) “offer period” means the period from the time when an announcement is made or ought to have been made, of a proposed or possible offer until the first closing date or, if later, the date when the offer becomes or is declared unconditional as to acceptances or lapses;
- (h) “partial offer” means an offer that, if fully accepted, would result in the offeror, alone or together with a related or inter-related person, or a person acting in concert with any of them, holding less than 100% of the voting securities of the company whose securities are the subject of the offer;
- (i) “regulated company” means a company to which this Part, Part C and the Takeover Regulations apply, as determined in accordance with section 118 (1) and (2); and
- (j) “securities” has the meaning referred to in section 1, but does not include any instrument issued by a regulated company unless that instrument—
 - (i) has associated with it the right to vote generally at a general shareholders meeting; or
 - (ii) is convertible to a instrument that satisfies the criteria set out in subparagraph (i).

(2) For the purposes of this Part, Part C and the Takeover Regulations, two or more related or inter-related persons are regarded to have acted in concert, unless there is satisfactory evidence that they acted independently in any particular matter.

118. Application of this Part, Part C and Takeover Regulations.—(1) Subject to subsections (2) to (4), this Part, Part C and the Takeover Regulations apply with respect to an affected transaction or offer involving a profit company or its securities if the company is—

- (a) a public company;
- (b) a state-owned company, except to the extent that any such company has been exempted in terms of section 9; or
- (c) a private company, but only if—
 - (i) the percentage of the issued securities of that company that have been transferred, other than by transfer between or among related or inter-related persons, within the period of 24 months immediately before the date of a particular affected transaction or offer exceeds the percentage prescribed in terms of subsection (2); or

[Sub-para. (i) substituted by s. 73 of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

- (ii) the Memorandum of Incorporation of that company expressly provides that the company and its securities are subject to this Part, Part C and the Takeover

Regulations, irrespective of whether the company falls within the criteria set out in subparagraph (i).

(2) The Minister, after consulting the Panel, may prescribe a minimum percentage, being not less than 10%, of the issued securities of a private company which, if transferred within a 24-month period as contemplated in subsection (1) (c) (i), would bring that company and its securities within the application of this Part, Part C, and the Takeover Regulations in terms of that subsection.

(3) Despite the definition of 'affected transaction' set out in section 117 (1) (c), this Part, Part C and the Takeover Regulations do not apply to—

- (a) a proposal to dispose, or disposal, of all or the greater part of the assets or undertaking of a regulated company;
- (b) a proposed amalgamation or merger involving at least one regulated company; or
- (c) a scheme of arrangement proposed by a regulated company, to the extent that any such affected transaction is pursuant to or contemplated in an approved business rescue plan in terms of Chapter 6.

(4) If there is a conflict between any provision of this Part, Part C, or the Takeover Regulations, and any provision of another public regulation—

- (a) the conflicting provisions apply concurrently to the extent that it is possible to apply and comply with one of the inconsistent provisions without contravening the second; and
- (b) to the extent that it is impossible to apply or comply with one of the inconsistent provisions without contravening the second, the provisions of the other public regulation prevail.

(5) A person granted an option to acquire shares with a voting right in a regulated company is presumed to have acted in concert with the grantor of the option, unless the voting rights are retained by the grantor.

(6) A presumption under subsection (5) may be rebutted by evidence to the contrary.

119. Panel regulation of affected transactions.—(1) The Panel must regulate any affected transaction or offer in accordance with this Part, Part C and the Takeover Regulations, but without regard to the commercial advantages or disadvantages of any transaction or proposed transaction, in order to—

- (a) ensure the integrity of the marketplace and fairness to the holders of the securities of regulated companies;
- (b) ensure the provision of—
 - (i) necessary information to holders of securities of regulated companies, to the extent required to facilitate the making of fair and informed decisions; and
 - (ii) adequate time for regulated companies and holders of their securities to obtain and provide advice with respect to offers; and
- (c) prevent actions by a regulated company designed to impede, frustrate, or defeat an offer, or the making of fair and informed decisions by the holders of that company's securities.

(2) Subject to subsection (6), the Panel must regulate any affected transaction or offer, and the conduct of the parties in respect of any such transaction or offer, in a manner that promotes the objects set out in subsection (1) and, without limiting the generality of that subsection, ensures—

- (a) that no person may enter into an affected transaction unless that person is ready, able and willing to implement that transaction;
- (b) that all holders of—
 - (i) any particular class of voting securities of an offeree regulated company are afforded equivalent treatment; and
 - (ii) voting securities of an offeree regulated company are afforded equitable treatment, having regard to the circumstances;

- (c) that no relevant information is withheld from the holders of relevant securities; and
 - (d) that all holders of relevant securities—
 - (i) receive the same information from an offeror, potential offeror, or offeree regulated company during the course of an affected transaction, or when an affected transaction is contemplated; and
 - (ii) are provided sufficient information, and permitted sufficient time, to enable them to reach a properly informed decision.
- (3) Subsection (2) (d) is not to be construed or applied to prohibit—
- (a) the furnishing of information in confidence by an offeree company to a bona fide potential offeror or vice versa; or
 - (b) the issue of circulars by brokers or advisers to any party to the transaction to their own investment clients, with the prior approval of the Panel.

- (4) In carrying out its mandate, the Panel may—
- (a) require the filing, for approval or otherwise, of any document with respect to an affected transaction or offer, if the document is required to be prepared in terms of this Part, Part C and the Takeover Regulations;
 - (b) issue compliance certificates, if the Panel is satisfied that the offer or transaction satisfies the requirements of this Part, Part C and the Takeover Regulations; and [Para. (b) substituted by s. 74 (a) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]
 - (c) initiate or receive complaints, conduct investigations, and issue compliance notices, with respect to any affected transaction or offer, in accordance with Chapter 7, and the Takeover Regulations.

(5) To the extent necessary to ensure compliance with this Part, Part C and the Takeover Regulations, and to fulfil the purposes contemplated in subsection (1), a compliance notice contemplated in subsection (4) (c) may, among other things—

- (a) prohibit or require any action by a person; or
 - (b) order a person to—
 - (i) divest of an acquired asset; or
 - (ii) account for profits.
- [Sub-s. (5) amended by s. 74 (b) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

(6) The Panel may wholly or partially, and with or without conditions, exempt an offeror to an affected transaction or an offer from the application of any provision of this Part, Part C or the Takeover Regulations if—

- (a) there is no reasonable potential of the affected transaction prejudicing the interests of any existing holder of a regulated company's securities;
- (b) the cost of compliance is disproportionate relative to the value of the affected transaction; or
- (c) doing so is otherwise reasonable and justifiable in the circumstances having regard to the principles and purposes of this Part, Part C and the Takeover Regulations.

120. Takeover regulations.—The Minister, in consultation with the Panel, must prescribe regulations, to be known as the Takeover Regulations, to give effect to the purposes of this Part and Part C including, among other things, regulations to provide for—

- (a) compliance with and enforcement of the provisions of this Part and Part C respecting affected transactions and offers;
- (b) the administration, operation and procedures of the Panel;
- (c) prescribed fees and levies imposed in terms of an Act of Parliament on certain companies; and
- (d) any other matters relating to the powers and functions of the Panel.

Part C

Regulation of affected transactions and offers

121. General requirement concerning transactions and offers.—Any person making an offer must—

- (a) comply with all reporting or approval requirements, whether set out in this Part or in the Takeover Regulations, except to the extent that the Panel has granted the person an exemption from any such requirement; and
- (b) not give effect to an affected transaction unless the Panel has—
 - (i) issued a compliance certificate with respect to the transaction; or [Sub-para. (i) substituted by s. 75 of Act No. 3 of 2011.]
 - (ii) granted an exemption for that transaction.

122. Required disclosure concerning certain share transactions.—(1) A person must notify a regulated company in the prescribed manner and form within three business days after that person—

- (a) acquires a beneficial interest in sufficient securities of a class issued by that company such that, as a result of the acquisition, the person holds a beneficial interest in securities amounting to 5%, 10%, 15%, or any further whole multiple of 5%, of the issued securities of that class; or
- (b) disposes of a beneficial interest in sufficient securities of a class issued by a company such that, as a result of the disposition, the person no longer holds a beneficial interest in securities amounting to a particular multiple of 5% of the issued securities of that class.
[Sub-s. (1) amended by s. 76 (a) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

(2) The requirements set out in subsection (1) apply to a person irrespective of whether—

- (a) the person acquires or disposes of any securities—
 - (i) directly or indirectly; or
 - (ii) individually, or in concert with any other person or persons, or
- (b) the stipulated percentage of issued securities is held by that person alone, or in aggregate by that person together with any—
 - (i) related or inter-related person; and
 - (ii) person who has acted in concert with any other person.
[Sub-s. (2) amended by s. 76 (b) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

(3) A regulated company that has received a notice in terms of this section must—

- (a) file a copy with the Panel; and
 - (b) report the information to the holders of the relevant class of securities unless the notice concerned a disposition of less than 1% of the class of securities.
- (4) For the purposes of this section—
- (a) when determining the number of issued securities of a class, a person is entitled to rely on the most recently published statement by the company, unless that person knows or has reason to believe that the statement is inaccurate; and
 - (b) when determining the number of securities held by—
 - (i) a person or persons contemplated in subsection (1)—
 - (aa) to the extent that the person has the entire, or a partial or shared, beneficial interest in any securities, those interests must be aggregated, irrespective of the nature of the person's interest; and
 - (bb) any securities that may be acquired by the person if they exercised any options, conversion privileges or similar rights, are to be included; and
 - (ii) any other person, any securities that may be acquired by that other person if they exercised any options, conversion privileges or similar rights, are to be excluded.

123. Mandatory offers.—(1) In this section, “prescribed percentage” means the percentage prescribed by the Minister in terms of subsection (5).

(2) This section applies if—

- (a) either—
 - (i) a regulated company reacquires any of its voting securities as contemplated in section 48 or in terms of a scheme of arrangement contemplated in section 114; or [Sub-para. (i) substituted by s. 77 (a) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]
 - (ii) a person acting alone has, or two or more related or inter-related persons, or two or more persons acting in concert, have, acquired a beneficial interest in voting rights attached to any securities issued by a regulated company;
[Sub-para. (ii) substituted by s. 77 (a) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]
- (b) before that acquisition a person was, or persons contemplated in paragraph (a) (ii) together were, able to exercise less than the prescribed percentage of all the voting rights attached to securities of that company; and
- (c) as a result of that acquisition, together with any other securities of the company already held by the person or persons contemplated in paragraph (a) (ii), they are able to exercise at least the prescribed percentage of all the voting rights attached to securities of that company.

(3) Within one business day after the date of an acquisition contemplated in subsection (2), the person or persons in whom the prescribed percentage, or more, of the voting rights beneficially vests must give notice in the prescribed manner to the holders of the remaining securities, including in that notice—

- (a) a statement that they are in a position to exercise at least the prescribed percentage of all the voting rights attached to securities of that regulated company; and
- (b) offering to acquire any remaining such securities on terms determined in accordance with this Act and the Takeover Regulations.

[Sub-s. (3) amended by s. 77 (b) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

(4) Within one month after giving notice in terms of subsection (3), the person or persons contemplated in subsection (2) must deliver a written offer, in compliance with the Takeover Regulations, to the holders of the remaining securities of that company, to acquire those securities on the terms contemplated in subsection (3) (b).

(5) For the purposes contemplated in this section, the Minister, on the advice of the Panel, may prescribe a percentage of not more than 35% of the voting securities of a company.

124. Compulsory acquisitions and squeeze out.—(1) If, within four months after the date of an offer for the acquisition of any class of securities of a regulated company, that offer has been accepted by the holders of at least 90% of that class of securities, other than any such securities held before the offer by the offeror, a related or inter-related person, or persons acting in concert, or a nominee or subsidiary of any such person or persons—

- (a) within two further months, the offeror may notify the holders of the remaining securities of the class, in the prescribed manner and form—
 - (i) that the offer has been accepted to that extent; and
 - (ii) that the offeror desires to acquire all remaining securities of that class; and
- (b) subject to subsection (2), after giving notice in terms of paragraph (a), the offeror is entitled, and bound, to acquire the securities concerned on the same terms that applied to securities whose holders accepted the original offer.

(2) Within 30 business days after receiving a notice in terms of subsection (1) (a), a person may apply to a court for an order—

- (a) that the offeror is not entitled to acquire the applicant's securities of that class; or
- (b) imposing conditions of acquisition different from those of the original offer.

(3) If an offer to acquire the securities of a particular class has not been accepted to the extent contemplated in subsection (1)—

- (a) the offeror may apply to a court for an order authorising the offeror to give a notice contemplated in subsection (1) (a); and
- (b) the court may make the order applied for, if—
 - (i) after making reasonable enquiries, the offeror has been unable to trace one or more of the persons holding securities to which the offer relates;
 - (ii) by virtue of acceptances of the original offer, the securities that are the subject of the application, together with the securities held by the person or persons referred to in subparagraph (i), amount to not less than the minimum specified in subsection (1);
 - (iii) the consideration offered is fair and reasonable; and
 - (iv) the court is satisfied that it is just and equitable to make the order, having regard, in particular, to the number of holders of securities who have been traced but who have not accepted the offer.

(4) If an offer for the acquisition of any class of securities of a regulated company has resulted in the acquisition by the offeror or a nominee or subsidiary of the offeror, or a related or inter-related person of any of them, individually or in aggregate, of sufficient securities of that class such that, together with any other securities of that class already held by that person, or those persons in aggregate, they then hold at least 90% of the securities of that class—

- (a) the offeror must notify the holders of the remaining securities of the class that the offer has been accepted to that extent;
- (b) within three months after receiving a notice in terms of paragraph (a), a person may demand that the offeror acquire all of the person's securities of the class concerned; and

- (c) after receiving a demand in terms of paragraph (b), the offeror is entitled, and bound, to acquire the securities concerned on the same terms that applied to securities whose holders accepted the original offer.

(5) If an offeror has given notice in terms of subsection (1), and no order has been made in terms of subsection (3), or if the offeror has received a demand in terms of subsection (4) (b)—

- (a) six weeks after the date on which the notice was given or, if an application to a court is then pending, after the application has been disposed of, or after the date on which the demand was received, as the case may be, the offeror must—
 - (i) transmit a copy of the notice to the regulated company whose securities are the subject of the offer, together with an instrument of transfer, executed on behalf of the holder of the those securities by any person appointed by the offeror; and
 - (ii) pay or transfer to that company the consideration representing the price payable by the offeror for the securities concerned,
- (b) subject to the payment of prescribed fees or duties, the company must thereupon register the offeror as the holder of those securities.

(6) An instrument of transfer contemplated in subsection (5) is not required for any securities for which a share warrant is for the time being outstanding.

(7) A regulated company must deposit any consideration received under this section into a separate interest bearing bank account with a banking institution registered under the Banks Act and, subject to subsection (8), those deposits must be—

- (a) held in trust by the company for the person entitled to the securities in respect of which the consideration was received; and
- (b) paid on demand to the person contemplated in paragraph (a), with interest to the date of payment.

(8) If a person contemplated in subsection (7) (a) fails for more than three years to demand payment of an amount held in terms of that paragraph, the amount, together with any accumulated interest, must be paid to the benefit of the Guardian's Fund of the Master of the High Court, to be held and dealt with in accordance with the rules of that Fund.

(9) In this section any reference to a "holder of securities who has not accepted the offer" includes any holder who has failed or refused to transfer their securities to the offeror in accordance with the offer.

125. Comparable and partial offers.—(1) In this section—

- (a) "independent holder of voting rights" mean a person who—
 - (i) holds any securities of a company that entitle that person to exercise general voting rights; and
 - (ii) is independent of an offeror or any related or inter-related person, or person acting in concert with any of them; and
- (b) "prescribed percentage" means the percentage prescribed in terms of section 123 (5).

(2) If—

- (a) a regulated company that has more than one class of issued securities re-acquires any of its voting securities of a particular class or one or more particular classes, as contemplated in section 48 or in terms of a scheme of arrangement contemplated in section 114 and, as a result, a person or a number of related persons hold securities of the company entitling the person or persons to exercise more than the prescribed percentage of the general voting rights associated with all the issued securities of the company; or

- (b) a person acting alone, or two or more persons acting in concert, make an offer for any securities of a regulated company that has more than one class of issued securities, which, if accepted, could result in a person, or a number of related or inter-related persons holding securities of the company entitling the person or persons to exercise more than the prescribed percentage of the general voting rights associated with all issued securities of the company, that person or those persons acting in concert must make a comparable offer to acquire securities of each class of issued securities of that company.

[Sub-s. (2) substituted by s. 79 (a) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

(3) A person making a partial offer for any class of issued securities of a company must—

- (a) make the offer to all of the holders of that class of securities;
- (b) if the offer could result in the person, together with any related or inter-related person or person acting in concert with any of them, holding securities of the company entitling the person or persons to exercise more than the prescribed percentage of the general voting rights of all issued securities of the company, make the offer conditional on—
 - (i) a specified number of acceptances being received; and
 - (ii) the offer being approved by the independent holders of issued securities of that class, if all such independent holders, in aggregate, control more than 50% of the general voting rights of all issued securities of that class;

[Sub-para. (ii) substituted by s. 79 (b) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

- (c) state in the offer the precise number of shares offered for, if the offer could result in the person, together with any related or inter-related person or person acting in concert with any of them, holding securities of the company entitling the persons or persons to exercise more than the prescribed percentage, but less than 50%, of the general voting rights of all issued securities of the company; and
- (d) if the offer could result in the person, together with any related or inter-related person or person acting in concert with any of them, holding securities of the company entitling the person or persons to exercise more than the prescribed percentage of the general voting rights of all issued securities of the company, include a specific and prominent notice that the offer could result in such circumstances.

(4) An offer that is conditional, as contemplated in subsection (3) (b), may not be declared to be unconditional as to acceptances unless it has been accepted to the extent specified in terms of subsection (3) (b) (i).

(5) If a partial offer has been made for a class of securities—

- (a) any holder of those securities is entitled to accept the offer in full for the relevant percentage of that person's holding; and
- (b) any securities tendered in excess of the relevant percentage must be accepted by the offeror from each holder of securities in the same proportion to the number tendered as will enable the offeror to obtain the total number of shares for which it has offered.

126. Restrictions on frustrating action.—(1) If the board of a regulated company believes that a bona fide offer might be imminent, or has received such an offer, the board must not—

- (a) take any action in relation to the affairs of the company that could effectively result in—
 - (i) a bona fide offer being frustrated; or

- (ii) the holders of relevant securities being denied an opportunity to decide on its merits;
- (b) issue any authorised but unissued securities;
- (c) issue or grant options in respect of any unissued securities;
- (d) authorise or issue, or permit the authorisation or issue of, any securities carrying rights of conversion into or subscription for other securities;
- (e) sell, dispose of or acquire, or agree to sell, dispose of or acquire, assets of a material amount except in the ordinary course of business;
- (f) enter into contracts otherwise than in the ordinary course of business; or
- (g) make a distribution that is abnormal as to timing and amount, without the prior written approval of the Panel, and the approval of the holders of relevant securities, or in terms of a pre-existing obligation or agreement entered into before the time contemplated in this subsection.

(2) If a regulated company believes that it is subject to a pre-existing obligation contemplated in subsection (1), it may apply to the Panel for consent to proceed.

127. Prohibited dealings before and during an offer.—(1) During an offer, or when one is reasonably in contemplation, an offeror or a person acting in concert with that offeror, must not—

- (a) make arrangements with any holders of the relevant securities;
- (b) deal in, or enter into arrangements to deal in, securities of the offeree regulated company; or
- (c) enter into arrangements which involve acceptance of an offer, if there are favourable conditions attached that are not being extended to all holders of the relevant securities.

(2) During an offer period, an offeror or a person acting in concert with that offeror must not—

- (a) sell any securities in the offeree company, unless—
 - (i) the Panel has consented in advance to that sale;
 - (ii) the person selling those securities has given at least 24 hours notice to the public that sales of that type might be made, in the manner and form required by the Takeover Regulations; and
 - (iii) the sale is on the same terms and conditions as the offer; or
- (b) acquire any securities in the offeree company after giving the notice contemplated in paragraph (a) (ii).

(3) If an offer has been announced or posted, but has not become or been declared unconditional, and has, as a result, subsequently been withdrawn or lapsed, then for a period of 12 months after the date on which the offer was withdrawn or lapsed, the offeror, any person who acted in concert with the offeror in the course of the original offer, or any person who is subsequently acting in concert with any of them, must not—

- (a) make an offer for the relevant securities of the offeree company; or
- (b) acquire any securities of the offeree company, if as a result of that acquisition, either the offeror or that person would be required to make a mandatory offer in terms of section 123.

(4) Subsection (3) applies equally to a partial offer whether or not the offer has become or been declared unconditional, but the period of 12 months runs from that date on which that offer became or was declared to be unconditional, or is withdrawn or lapsed, as the case may be.

(5) For a period of six months immediately following the later of the closing date of an offer, or the date on which the offer became unconditional—

- (a) the offeror;
- (b) any person who acted in concert with the offeror; or
- (c) any person who is subsequently acting in concert with a person contemplated in paragraph (a) or (b), must not make a second offer to any holder of securities of the target company, or acquire any interest in any such securities, on more favourable terms than those made under the original offer.

CHAPTER 6

Part A
Business rescue proceedings

[Heading of Part substituted by s. 80 of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

128. Application and definitions applicable to Chapter.—(1) In this Chapter—

- (a) “affected person”, in relation to a company, means—
 - (i) a shareholder or creditor of the company;
 - (ii) any registered trade union representing employees of the company; and
 - (iii) if any of the employees of the company are not represented by a registered trade union, each of those employees or their respective representatives;

 - (iii) the development and implementation, if approved, of a plan to rescue the company by restructuring its affairs, business, property, debt and other liabilities, and equity in a manner that maximises the likelihood of the company continuing in existence on a solvent basis or, if it is not possible for the company to so continue in existence, results in a better return for the company’s creditors or shareholders than would result from the immediate liquidation of the company;
- (c) “business rescue plan” means a plan contemplated in section 150;
- (d) “business rescue practitioner” means a person appointed, or two or more persons appointed jointly, in terms of this Chapter to oversee a company during business rescue proceedings and “practitioner” has a corresponding meaning;

 - (i) the High Court that has jurisdiction over the matter; or
 - (ii) either—
 - (aa) a designated judge of the High Court that has jurisdiction over the matter, if the Judge President has designated any judges in terms of subsection (3); or
 - (bb) a judge of the High Court that has jurisdiction over the matter, as assigned by the Judge President to hear the particular matter, if the Judge President has not designated any judges in terms of subsection (3);

- (f) “financially distressed”, in reference to a particular company at any particular time, means that—
- (i) it appears to be reasonably unlikely that the company will be able to pay all of its debts as they become due and payable within the immediately ensuing six months; or

- (j) “voting interest” means an interest as recognised, appraised and valued in terms of section 145 (4) to (6).

(2) For the purpose of subsection (1) (g), an employee of a company is not related to that company solely as a result of being a member of a trade union that holds securities of that company.

(3) For the purposes contemplated in subsection (1) (e) or in any other law, the Judge President of a High Court may designate any judge of that court generally as a specialist to determine issues relating to commercial matters, commercial insolvencies and business rescue.

129. Company resolution to begin business rescue proceedings.—(1) Subject to subsection (2) (a), the board of a company may resolve that the company voluntarily begin business rescue proceedings and place the company under supervision, if the board has reasonable grounds to believe that—

- (a) the company is financially distressed; and

- (a) may not be adopted if liquidation proceedings have been initiated by or against the company; and
- (b) has no force or effect until it has been filed.

(3) Within five business days after a company has adopted and filed a resolution, as contemplated in subsection (1), or such longer time as the Commission, on application by the company, may allow, the company must—

- (b) appoint a business rescue practitioner who satisfies the requirements of section 138, and who has consented in writing to accept the appointment.

- (4) After appointing a practitioner as required by subsection (3) (b), a company must—
- (a) file a notice of the appointment of a practitioner within two business days after making the appointment; and
 - (b) publish a copy of the notice of appointment to each affected person within five business days after the notice was filed.
- (5) If a company fails to comply with any provision of subsection (3) or (4)—
- (a) its resolution to begin business rescue proceedings and place the company under supervision lapses and is a nullity; and
 - (b) the company may not file a further resolution contemplated in subsection (1) for a period of three months after the date on which the lapsed resolution was adopted, unless a court, on good cause shown on an ex parte application, approves the company filing a further resolution.

Part D

Development and approval of business rescue plan

150. Proposal of business rescue plan.—(1) The practitioner, after consulting the creditors, other affected persons, and the management of the company, must prepare a business rescue plan for consideration and possible adoption at a meeting held in terms of section 151.

(2) The business rescue plan must contain all the information reasonably required to facilitate affected persons in deciding whether or not to accept or reject the plan, and must be divided into three Parts, as follows:

- (a) Part A—Background, which must include at least—
 - (i) a complete list of all the material assets of the company, as well as an indication as to which assets were held as security by creditors when the business rescue proceedings began;
 - (ii) a complete list of the creditors of the company when the business rescue proceedings began, as well as an indication as to which creditors would qualify as secured, statutory preferent and concurrent in terms of the laws of insolvency, and an indication of which of the creditors have proved their claims;
 - (iii) the probable dividend that would be received by creditors, in their specific classes, if the company were to be placed in liquidation;
 - (iv) a complete list of the holders of the company's issued securities;
 - (v) a copy of the written agreement concerning the practitioner's remuneration; and
 - (vi) a statement whether the business rescue plan includes a proposal made informally by a creditor of the company.
- (b) Part B—Proposals, which must include at least—
 - (i) the nature and duration of any moratorium for which the business rescue plan makes provision;
 - (ii) the extent to which the company is to be released from the payment of its debts, and the extent to which any debt is proposed to be converted to equity in the company, or another company;
 - (iii) the ongoing role of the company, and the treatment of any existing agreements;

- (iv) the property of the company that is to be available to pay creditors' claims in terms of the business rescue plan;
- (v) the order of preference in which the proceeds of property will be applied to pay creditors if the business rescue plan is adopted;
- (vi) the benefits of adopting the business rescue plan as opposed to the benefits that would be received by creditors if the company were to be placed in liquidation; and
- (vii) the effect that the business rescue plan will have on the holders of each class of the company's issued securities.

(c) Part C—Assumptions and conditions, which must include at least—

- (i) a statement of the conditions that must be satisfied, if any, for the business rescue plan to—
 - (aa) come into operation; and
 - (bb) be fully implemented;
- (ii) the effect, if any, that the business rescue plan contemplates on the number of employees, and their terms and conditions of employment;
- (iii) the circumstances in which the business rescue plan will end; and
- (iv) a projected—
 - (aa) balance sheet for the company; and
 - (bb) statement of income and expenses for the ensuing three years, prepared on the assumption that the proposed business plan is adopted.

(3) The projected balance sheet and statement required by subsection (2) (c) (iv)—

- (a) must include a notice of any material assumptions on which the projections are based; and
- (b) may include alternative projections based on varying assumptions and contingencies.

(4) A proposed business rescue plan must conclude with a certificate by the practitioner stating that any—

- (a) actual information provided appears to be accurate, complete, and up to date; and
- (b) projections provided are estimates made in good faith on the basis of factual information and assumptions as set out in the statement.

(5) The business rescue plan must be published by the company within 25 business days after the date on which the practitioner was appointed, or such longer time as may be allowed by—

- (a) the court, on application by the company; or
- (b) the holders of a majority of the creditors' voting interests.

151. Meeting to determine future of company.—(1) Within 10 business days after publishing a business rescue plan in terms of section 150, the practitioner must convene and preside over a meeting of creditors and any other holders of a voting interest, called for the purpose of considering the plan.

(2) At least five business days before the meeting contemplated in subsection (1), the practitioner must deliver a notice of the meeting to all affected persons, setting out—

- (a) the date, time and place of the meeting;
- (b) the agenda of the meeting; and

(c) a summary of the rights of affected persons to participate in and vote at the meeting.

(3) The meeting contemplated in this section may be adjourned from time to time, as necessary or expedient, until a decision regarding the company's future has been taken in accordance with sections 152 and 153.

152. Consideration of business rescue plan.—(1) At a meeting convened in terms of section 151, the practitioner must—

(a) introduce the proposed business plan for consideration by the creditors and, if applicable, by the shareholders;

[Para. (a) substituted by s. 96 (a) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

(b) inform the meeting whether the practitioner continues to believe that there is a reasonable prospect of the company being rescued;

(c) provide an opportunity for the employees' representatives to address the meeting;

(d) invite discussion, and entertain and conduct a vote, on any motions to—

(i) amend the proposed plan, in any manner moved and seconded by holders of creditors' voting interests, and satisfactory to the practitioner; or

(ii) direct the practitioner to adjourn the meeting in order to revise the plan for further consideration; and

(e) call for a vote for preliminary approval of the proposed plan, as amended if applicable, unless the meeting has first been adjourned in accordance with paragraph (d) (ii).

(2) In a vote called in terms of subsection (1) (e), the proposed business rescue plan will be approved on a preliminary basis if—

(a) it was supported by the holders of more than 75% of the creditors' voting interests that were voted; and

(b) the votes in support of the proposed plan included at least 50% of the independent creditors' voting interests, if any, that were voted.

(3) If a proposed business rescue plan—

(a) is not approved on a preliminary basis, as contemplated in subsection (2), the plan is rejected, and may be considered further only in terms of section 153;

(b) does not alter the rights of the holders of any class of the company's securities, approval of that plan on a preliminary basis in terms of subsection (2) constitutes also the final adoption of that plan, subject to satisfaction of any conditions on which that plan is contingent; or

(c) does alter the rights of any class of holders of the company's securities—

(i) the practitioner must immediately hold a meeting of holders of the class, or classes of securities who rights would be altered by the plan, and call for a vote by them to approve the adoption of the proposed business rescue plan; and

(ii) if, in a vote contemplated in subparagraph (i), a majority of the voting rights that were exercised—

(aa) support adoption of the plan, it will have been finally adopted, subject only to satisfaction of any conditions on which it is contingent; or

(bb) oppose adoption of the plan, the plan is rejected, and may be considered further only in terms of section 153.

(4) A business rescue plan that has been adopted is binding on the company, and on each of the creditors of the company and every holder of the company's securities, whether or not such a person—

- (a) was present at the meeting;
 - (b) voted in favour of adoption of the plan; or
 - (c) in the case of creditors, had proven their claims against the company.
- (5) The company, under the direction of the practitioner, must take all necessary steps to—
- (a) attempt to satisfy any conditions on which the business rescue plan is contingent; and
 - (b) implement the plan as adopted.
- (6) To the extent necessary to implement an adopted business rescue plan—
- (a) the practitioner may, in accordance with that plan, determine the consideration for, and issue, any authorised securities of the company, despite section 38 or 40 to the contrary; and
 - (b) if the business rescue plan was approved by the shareholders of the company, as contemplated in subsection (3) (c), the practitioner may amend the company's Memorandum of Incorporation to authorise, and determine the preferences, rights, limitations and other terms of, any securities that are not otherwise authorised, but are contemplated to be issued in terms of the business rescue plan, despite any provision of section 16, 36 or 37 to the contrary.

[Para. (b) substituted by s. 96 (b) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

(7) Except to the extent that an approved business rescue plan provides otherwise, a pre-emptive right of any shareholder of the company, as contemplated in section 39, does not apply with respect to an issue of shares by the company in terms of the business rescue plan.

(8) When the business rescue plan has been substantially implemented, the practitioner must file a notice of the substantial implementation of the business rescue plan.

153. Failure to adopt business rescue plan.—(1) (a) If a business rescue plan has been rejected as contemplated in section 152 (3) (a) or (c) (ii) (bb) the practitioner may—

- (i) seek a vote of approval from the holders of voting interests to prepare and publish a revised plan; or
- (ii) advise the meeting that the company will apply to a court to set aside the result of the vote by the holders of voting interests or shareholders, as the case may be, on the grounds that it was inappropriate.

(b) If the practitioner does not take any action contemplated in paragraph (a)—

- (i) any affected person present at the meeting may—
 - (aa) call for a vote of approval from the holders of voting interests requiring the practitioner to prepare and publish a revised plan; or
 - (bb) apply to the court to set aside the result of the vote by the holders of voting interests or shareholders, as the case may be, on the grounds that it was inappropriate; or
- (ii) any affected person, or combination of affected persons, may make a binding offer to purchase the voting interests of one or more persons who opposed adoption of the business rescue plan, at a value independently and expertly determined, on the request of the practitioner, to be a fair and reasonable estimate of the return to that person, or those persons, if the company were to be liquidated.

(2) If the practitioner, acting in terms of subsection (1) (a) (ii), or an affected person, acting in terms of subsection (1) (b) (i) (bb), informs the meeting that an application will be made to the court as contemplated in those provisions, the practitioner must adjourn the meeting—

- (a) for five business days, unless the contemplated application is made to the court during that time; or
- (b) until the court has disposed of the contemplated application.

(3) If, on the request of the practitioner in terms of subsection (1) (a) (i), or a call by an affected person in terms of subsection (1) (b) (i) (aa), the meeting directs the practitioner to prepare and publish a revised business rescue plan—

- (a) the practitioner must—
 - (i) conclude the meeting after that vote; and
 - (ii) prepare and publish a new or revised business rescue plan within 10 business days; and
- (b) the provisions of this Part apply afresh to the publishing and consideration of that new or revised plan.

(4) If an affected person makes an offer contemplated in subsection (1) (b) (ii), the practitioner must—

- (a) adjourn the meeting for no more than five business days, as necessary to afford the practitioner an opportunity to make any necessary revisions to the business rescue plan to appropriately reflect the results of the offer; and
- (b) set a date for resumption of the meeting, without further notice, at which the provisions of section 152 and this section will apply afresh.

(5) If no person takes any action contemplated in subsection (1), the practitioner must promptly file a notice of the termination of the business rescue proceedings.

(6) A holder of a voting interest, or a person acquiring that interest in terms of a binding offer, may apply to a court to review, re-appraise and re-value a determination by an independent expert in terms of subsection (1) (b) (ii).

(7) On an application contemplated in subsection (1) (a) (ii), or (1) (b) (i) (bb), a court may order that the vote on a business rescue plan be set aside if the court is satisfied that it is reasonable and just to do so, having regard to—

- (a) the interests represented by the person or persons who voted against the proposed business rescue plan;
- (b) the provision, if any, made in the proposed business rescue plan with respect to the interests of that person or those persons; and
- (c) a fair and reasonable estimate of the return to that person, or those persons, if the company were to be liquidated.

[Sub-s. (7) inserted by s. 97 of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

154. Discharge of debts and claims.—(1) A business rescue plan may provide that, if it is implemented in accordance with its terms and conditions, a creditor who has acceded to the discharge of the whole or part of a debt owing to that creditor will lose the right to enforce the relevant debt or part of it.

(2) If a business rescue plan has been approved and implemented in accordance with this Chapter, a creditor is not entitled to enforce any debt owed by the company immediately before the beginning of the business rescue process, except to the extent provided for in the business rescue plan.

Part E
Compromise with creditors

155. Compromise between company and creditors.—(1) This section applies to a company, irrespective of whether or not it is financially distressed as defined in section 128 (1) (f), unless it is engaged in business rescue proceedings in terms of this Chapter.

(2) The board of a company, or the liquidator of such a company if it is being wound up, may propose an arrangement or a compromise of its financial obligations to all of its creditors, or to all of the members of any class of its creditors, by delivering a copy of the proposal, and notice of meeting to consider the proposal, to—

- (a) every creditor of the company, or every member of the relevant class of creditors whose name or address is known to, or can reasonably be obtained by, the company; and
- (b) the Commission.

(3) A proposal contemplated in subsection (2) must contain all information reasonably required to facilitate creditors in deciding whether or not to accept or reject the proposal, and must be divided into three Parts, as follows:

- (a) Part A—Background, which must include at least—
 - (i) a complete list of all the material assets of the company, as well as an indication as to which assets are held as security by creditors as of the date of the proposal;
 - (ii) a complete list of the creditors of the company as of the date of the proposal, as well as an indication as to which creditors would qualify as secured, statutory preferent and concurrent in terms of the laws of insolvency, and an indication of which of the creditors have proved their claims;
 - (iii) the probable dividend that would be received by creditors, in their specific classes, if the company were to be placed in liquidation;
 - (iv) a complete list of the holders of the company issued securities, and the effect that the proposal would have on them, if any; and
 - (v) whether the proposal includes a proposal made informally by a creditor of the company.
- (b) Part B—Proposals, which must include at least—
 - (i) the nature and duration of any proposed debt moratorium;
 - (ii) the extent to which the company is to be released from the payment of its debts, and the extent to which any debt is proposed to be converted to equity in the company, or another company;
 - (iii) the treatment of contracts and ongoing role of the company;
 - (iv) the property of the company that is proposed to be available to pay creditors' claims;
 - (v) the order of preference in which the proceeds of property of the company will be applied to pay creditors if the proposal is adopted; and
 - (vi) the benefits of adopting the proposal as opposed to the benefits that would be received by creditors if the company were to be placed in liquidation.
- (c) Part C—Assumptions and conditions, which must include at least—
 - (i) a statement of the conditions that must be satisfied, if any, for the proposal to—
 - (aa) come into operation; and
 - (bb) be fully implemented;
 - (ii) the effect, if any, that the plan contemplates on the number of employees, and their terms and conditions of employment; and
 - (iii) a projected—

- (aa) balance sheet for the company; and
- (bb) statement of income and expenses for the ensuing three years, prepared on the assumption that the proposal is accepted.

(4) The projected balance sheet and statement required by subsection (3) (c) (iii)—

- (a) must include a notice of any significant assumptions on which the projections are based;
and
- (b) may include alternative projections based on varying assumptions and contingencies.

(5) A proposal must conclude with a certificate by an authorised director or prescribed officer of the company stating that any—

- (a) factual information provided appears to be accurate, complete, and up to the date; and
- (b) projections provided are estimates made in good faith on the basis of factual information and assumptions as set out in the statement.

(6) A proposal contemplated in this section will have been adopted by the creditors of the company, or the members of a relevant class of creditors, if it is supported by a majority in number, representing at least 75% in value of the creditors or class, as the case may be, present and voting in person or by proxy, at a meeting called for that purpose.

(7) If a proposal is adopted as contemplated in subsection (6)—

- (a) the company may apply to the court for an order approving the proposal; and
- (b) the court, on an application in terms of paragraph (a) may sanction the compromise as set out in the adopted proposal, if it considers it just and equitable to do so, having regard to—
 - (i) the number of creditors of any affected class of creditors, who were present or represented at the meeting, and who voted in favour of the proposal; and
 - (ii) in the case of a compromise in respect of a company being wound up, the report of the Master required in terms of the laws contemplated in item 9 of Schedule 5.

(8) A copy of an order of the court sanctioning a compromise—

- (a) must be filed by the company within five business days;
- (b) must be attached to each copy of the company's Memorandum of Incorporation that is kept at the company's registered office, or elsewhere as contemplated in section 25; and
- (c) is final and binding on all of the company's creditors or all of members of the relevant class of creditors, as the case may be, as of the date on which it is filed.

(9) An arrangement or a compromise contemplated in this section does not affect the liability of any person who is a surety of the company.

CHAPTER 7 REMEDIES AND ENFORCEMENT

Part A General principles

156. Alternative procedures for addressing complaints or securing rights.—A person referred to in section 157 (1) may seek to address an alleged contravention of this Act, or to enforce any provision of, or right in terms of this Act, a company's Memorandum of Incorporation or rules, or a transaction or agreement contemplated in this Act, the company's Memorandum of Incorporation or rules, by—

- (a) attempting to resolve any dispute with or within a company through alternative dispute resolution in accordance with Part C of this Chapter;

- (b) applying to the Companies Tribunal for adjudication in respect of any matter for which such an application is permitted in terms of this Act;
- (c) applying for appropriate relief to the division of the High Court that has jurisdiction over the matter; or
- (d) filing a complaint in accordance with Part D of this Chapter within the time permitted by section 219 with—
 - (i) the Panel, if the complaint concerns a matter within its jurisdiction; or
 - (ii) the Commission in respect of any matter arising in terms of this Act, other than a matter contemplated in subparagraph (i).

157. Extended standing to apply for remedies.—(1) When, in terms of this Act, an application can be made to, or a matter can be brought before, a court, the Companies Tribunal, the Panel or the Commission, the right to make the application or bring the matter may be exercised by a person—

- (a) directly contemplated in the particular provision of this Act;
- (b) acting on behalf of a person contemplated in paragraph (a), who cannot act in their own name;
- (c) acting as a member of, or in the interest of, a group or class of affected persons, or an association acting in the interest of its members; or
- (d) acting in the public interest, with leave of the court.

(2) The Commission or the Panel, acting in either case on its own motion and in its absolute discretion, may—

- (a) commence any proceedings in a court in the name of a person who, when filing a complaint with the Commission or Panel, as the case may be, in respect of the matter giving rise to those proceedings, also made a written request that the Commission or Panel do so; or
- (b) apply for leave to intervene in any court proceedings arising in terms of this Act, in order to represent any interest that would not otherwise be adequately represented in those proceedings.

(3) For greater certainty, nothing in this section creates a right of any person to commence any legal proceedings contemplated in section 165 (1), other than—

- (a) on behalf of a person entitled to make a demand in terms of section 165 (2); and
- (b) in the manner set out in section 165.

158. Remedies to promote purpose of Act.—When determining a matter brought before it in terms of this Act, or making an order contemplated in this Act—

- (a) a court must develop the common law as necessary to improve the realisation and enjoyment of rights established by this Act; and
- (b) the Commission, the Panel, the Companies Tribunal or a court—
 - (i) must promote the spirit, purpose and objects of this Act; and
 - (ii) if any provision of this Act, or other document in terms of this Act, read in its context, can be reasonably construed to have more than one meaning, must prefer the meaning that best promotes the spirit and purpose of this Act, and will best improve the realisation and enjoyment of rights.

159. Protection for whistle-blowers.—(1) To the extent that this section creates any right of, or establishes any protection for, an employee, as defined in the Protected Disclosures Act, 2000 (Act No. 26 of 2000)—

- (a) that right or protection is in addition to, and not in substitution for, any right or protection established by that Act; and
- (b) that Act applies to a disclosure contemplated in this section by an employee, as defined in that Act, irrespective of whether that Act would otherwise apply to that disclosure.

[Para. (b) substituted by s. 98 (a) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

(2) Any provision of a company's Memorandum of Incorporation or rules, or an agreement, is void to the extent that it is inconsistent with, or purports to limit, set aside or negate the effect of this section.

(3) This section applies to any disclosure of information by a person contemplated in subsection (4) if—

- (a) it is made in good faith to the Commission, the Companies Tribunal, the Panel, a regulatory authority, an exchange, a legal adviser, a director, prescribed officer, company secretary, auditor, a person performing the function of internal audit, board or committee of the company concerned; and

[Para. (a) substituted by s. 98 (b) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

- (b) the person making the disclosure reasonably believed at the time of the disclosure that the information showed or tended to show that a company or external company, or a director or prescribed officer of a company acting in that capacity, had—

- (i) contravened this Act, or a law mentioned in Schedule 4;
- (ii) failed or was failing to comply with any statutory obligation to which the company was subject;

[Sub-para. (ii) substituted by s. 98 (d) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

- (iii) engaged in conduct that had endangered, or was likely to endanger, the health or safety of any individual, or had harmed or was likely to harm the environment;

[Sub-para. (iii) substituted by s. 98 (d) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

- (iv) unfairly discriminated, or condoned unfair discrimination, against any person, as contemplated in section 9 of the Constitution and the Promotion of Equality and Prevention of Unfair Discrimination Act, 2000 (Act No. 4 of 2000); or

- (v) contravened any other legislation in a manner that could expose the company to an actual or contingent risk of liability, or is inherently prejudicial to the interests of the company.

[Para. (b) amended by s. 98 (c) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

(4) A shareholder, director, company secretary, prescribed officer or employee of a company, a registered trade union that represents employees of the company or another representative of the employees of that company, a supplier of goods or services to a company, or an employee of such a supplier, who makes a disclosure contemplated in this section—

- (a) has qualified privilege in respect of the disclosure; and
- (b) is immune from any civil, criminal or administrative liability for that disclosure.

(5) A person contemplated in subsection (4) is entitled to compensation from another person for any damages suffered if the first person is entitled to make, or has made, a disclosure contemplated in this section and, because of that possible or actual disclosure, the second person—

- (a) engages in conduct with the intent to cause detriment to the first person, and the conduct causes such detriment; or

(b) directly or indirectly makes an express or implied threat, whether conditional or unconditional, to cause any detriment to the first person or to another person, and—

(i) intends the first person to fear that the threat will be carried out; or

(ii) is reckless as to causing the first person to fear that the threat will be carried out, irrespective of whether the first person actually fears or feared that the threat will or would be carried out.

[Para. (b) substituted by s. 98 (e) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

(6) Any conduct or threat contemplated in subsection (5) is presumed to have occurred as a result of a possible or actual disclosure that a person is entitled to make, or has made, unless the person who engaged in the conduct or made the threat can show satisfactory evidence in support of another reason for engaging in the conduct or making the threat.

(7) A public company or a state-owned company must directly or indirectly—

(a) establish and maintain a system to receive disclosures contemplated in this section confidentially, and act on them; and

(b) routinely publicise the availability of that system to the categories of persons contemplated in subsection (4).

[Sub-s. (7) amended by s. 98 (f) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

[Sub-s (1) substituted by s. 99 (a) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

(2) An application in terms of subsection (1) may be made—

(3) After considering an application made in terms of subsection (1), and any submissions by the applicant and any other person with an interest in the name or proposed name that is the subject of the application, the Companies Tribunal—

(a) must make a determination whether that name, or the reservation, registration or use of the name, or the transfer of the reservation or registration of the name, satisfies the requirements of this Act; and

(4) Within 20 business days after receiving a notice or a decision issued by the Companies Tribunal in terms of this section, an incorporator of a company, a company, a person who received a notice in terms of section 12 (3) or 14 (3), an applicant under subsection (1) or and any other person with an interest in the name or proposed name that is the subject of the application, as the case may be, may apply to a court to review the notice or decision.

 - (i) protect any right contemplated in paragraph (a); or
 - (ii) rectify any harm done to the securities holder by—
 - (aa) the company as a consequence of an act or omission that contravened this Act or the company's Memorandum of Incorporation, rules or applicable debt instrument, or violated any right contemplated in paragraph (a); or

 - (i) the person was a director of each such company, or a managing member of each such close corporation or was responsible for the management of each such juristic person, at the time of the contravention that resulted in the conviction, administrative fine or other penalty; and
 - (ii) the court is satisfied that the declaration of delinquency is justified, having regard to the nature of the contraventions, and the person's conduct in relation to the management, business or property of any company, close corporation or juristic person at the time.

[Para. (f) amended by s. 101 (b) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

(6) A declaration of delinquency in terms of—

- (a) subsection (5) (a) or (b) is unconditional, and subsists for the lifetime of the person declared delinquent; or
- (b) subsection (5) (c) to (f)—
 - (i) may be made subject to any conditions the court considers appropriate, including conditions limiting the application of the declaration to one or more particular categories of companies; and
 - (ii) subsists for seven years from the date of the order, or such longer period as determined by the court at the time of making the declaration, subject to subsections (11) and (12);

(7) A court may make an order placing a person under probation, if—

- (a) while serving as a director, the person—

[Sub-para. (i) substituted by s. 101 (c) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

- (ii) during the time that the person was a director of each such company or managing member of each such close corporation, two or more of those companies or close corporations each failed to fully pay all of its creditors or meet all of its obligations, except in terms of—

- (aa) a business rescue plan resulting from a resolution of the board in terms of section 129; or
- (bb) a compromise with creditors in terms of section 155.

(8) The court may declare a person under probation in the circumstances contemplated in—

- (a) subsection (7) (a) (iii), only if the court is satisfied that the declaration is justified having regard to the circumstances of the company's or close corporation's conduct, if applicable, and the person's conduct in relation to the management, business or property of the company or close corporation at the time; or
- (b) subsection (7) (b), only if the court is satisfied that—
 - (i) the manner in which the company or close corporation was managed was wholly or partly responsible for it failing to meet its obligations; and
 - (ii) the declaration is justified, having regard to the circumstances of the company's or close corporation's failure, and the person's conduct in relation to the management, business or property of the company or close corporation at the time.

(9) A declaration placing a person under probation—

- (a) may be made subject to any conditions the court considers appropriate, including conditions limiting the application of the declaration to one or more particular categories of companies; and
- (b) subsists for a period not exceeding five years, as determined by the court at the time it makes the declaration, subject to subsections (11) and (12).

(10) Without limiting the powers of the court, a court may order, as conditions applicable or ancillary to a declaration of delinquency or probation, that the person concerned—

- (a) undertake a designated programme of remedial education relevant to the nature of the person's conduct as director;
- (b) carry out a designated programme of community service;
- (c) pay compensation to any person adversely affected by the person's conduct as a director, to the extent that such a victim does not otherwise have a legal basis to claim compensation; or
- (d) in the case of an order of probation—
 - (i) be supervised by a mentor in any future participation as a director while the order remains in force; or
 - (ii) be limited to serving as a director of a private company, or of a company of which that person is the sole shareholder.

(11) A person who has been declared delinquent, other than as contemplated in subsection (6) (a), or is subject to an order of probation, may apply to a court—

- (a) to suspend the order of delinquency, and substitute an order of probation, with or without conditions, at any time more than three years after the order of delinquency was made; or
- (b) to set aside an order of—
 - (i) delinquency at any time more than two years after it was suspended as contemplated in paragraph (a); or
 - (ii) of probation, at any time more than two years after it was made.

(12) On considering an application contemplated in subsection (11), the court may—

- (a) not grant the order applied for unless the applicant has satisfied any conditions that were attached to the original order, or imposed in terms of subsection (11) (a); and

- (b) grant an order if, having regard to the circumstances leading to the original order, and the conduct of the applicant in the ensuing period, the court is satisfied that—
 - (i) the applicant has demonstrated satisfactory progress towards rehabilitation, and
 - (ii) there is a reasonable prospect that the applicant would be able to serve successfully as a director of a company in the future.

(13) An applicant in terms of subsection (4) must serve the Commission with a copy of the application.

163. Relief from oppressive or prejudicial conduct or from abuse of separate juristic personality of company.—(1) A shareholder or a director of a company may apply to a court for relief if—

- (a) any act or omission of the company, or a related person, has had a result that is oppressive or unfairly prejudicial to, or that unfairly disregards the interests of, the applicant;
- (b) the business of the company, or a related person, is being or has been carried on or conducted in a manner that is oppressive or unfairly prejudicial to, or that unfairly disregards the interests of, the applicant; or
- (c) the powers of a director or prescribed officer of the company, or a person related to the company, are being or have been exercised in a manner that is oppressive or unfairly prejudicial to, or that unfairly disregards the interests of, the applicant.

(2) Upon considering an application in terms of subsection (1), the court may make any interim or final order it considers fit, including—

- (a) an order restraining the conduct complained of;
- (b) an order appointing a liquidator, if the company appears to be insolvent;
- (c) an order placing the company under supervision and commencing business rescue proceedings in terms of Chapter 6, if the court is satisfied that the circumstances set out in section 131 (4) (a) apply;
- (d) an order to regulate the company's affairs by directing the company to amend its Memorandum of Incorporation or to create or amend a unanimous shareholder agreement;
- (e) an order directing an issue or exchange of shares;
- (f) an order—
 - (i) appointing directors in place of or in addition to all or any of the directors then in office; or

- (g) an order directing the company or any other person to restore to a shareholder any part of the consideration that the shareholder paid for shares, or pay the equivalent value, with or without conditions;
- (h) an order varying or setting aside a transaction or an agreement to which the company is a party and compensating the company or any other party to the transaction or agreement;
- (i) an order requiring the company, within a time specified by the court, to produce to the court or an interested person financial statements in a form required by this Act, or an accounting in any other form the court may determine;
- (j) an order to pay compensation to an aggrieved person, subject to any other law entitling that person to compensation;
- (k) an order directing rectification of the registers or other records of a company; or

(l) an order for the trial of any issue as determined by the court.

(3) If an order made under this section directs the amendment of the company's Memorandum of Incorporation—

(a) the directors must promptly file a notice of amendment to give effect to that order, in accordance with section 16 (4); and

(b) no further amendment altering, limiting or negating the effect of the court order may be made to the Memorandum of Incorporation, until a court orders otherwise.

[Sub-s. (4) deleted by s. 102 of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

164. Dissenting shareholders appraisal rights.—(1) This section does not apply in any circumstances relating to a transaction, agreement or offer pursuant to a business rescue plan that was approved by shareholders of a company, in terms of section 152.

(2) If a company has given notice to shareholders of a meeting to consider adopting a resolution to—

(a) amend its Memorandum of Incorporation by altering the preferences, rights, limitations or other terms of any class of its shares in any manner materially adverse to the rights or interests of holders of that class of shares, as contemplated in section 37 (8); or that notice must include a statement informing shareholders of their rights under this section.

(b) enter into a transaction contemplated in section 112, 113, or 114,

(3) At any time before a resolution referred to in subsection (2) is to be voted on, a dissenting shareholder may give the company a written notice objecting to the resolution.

(4) Within 10 business days after a company has adopted a resolution contemplated in this section, the company must send a notice that the resolution has been adopted to each shareholder who—

(a) gave the company a written notice of objection in terms of subsection (3); and

(b) has neither—

(i) withdrawn that notice; or

(ii) voted in support of the resolution.

(5) A shareholder may demand that the company pay the shareholder the fair value for all of the shares of the company held by that person if—

(a) the shareholder—

(i) sent the company a notice of objection, subject to subsection (6); and

(ii) in the case of an amendment to the company's Memorandum of Incorporation, holds shares of a class that is materially and adversely affected by the amendment;

(b) the company has adopted the resolution contemplated in subsection (2); and

(c) the shareholder—

(i) voted against that resolution; and

(ii) has complied with all of the procedural requirements of this section.

(6) The requirement of subsection (5) (a) (i) does not apply if the company failed to give notice of the meeting, or failed to include in that notice a statement of the shareholders rights under this section.

(7) A shareholder who satisfies the requirements of subsection (5) may make a demand contemplated in that subsection by delivering a written notice to the company within—

- (a) 20 business days after receiving a notice under subsection (4); or
- (b) if the shareholder does not receive a notice under subsection (4), within 20 business days after learning that the resolution has been adopted.

(8) A demand delivered in terms of subsections (5) to (7) must also be delivered to the Panel, and must state—

- (a) the shareholder's name and address;
- (b) the number and class of shares in respect of which the shareholder seeks payment; and
- (c) a demand for payment of the fair value of those shares.

[Sub-s. (8) amended by s. 103 (a) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

(9) A shareholder who has sent a demand in terms of subsections (5) to (8) has no further rights in respect of those shares, other than to be paid their fair value, unless—

- (a) the shareholder withdraws that demand before the company makes an offer under subsection (11), or allows an offer made by the company to lapse, as contemplated in subsection (12) (b);
- (b) the company fails to make an offer in accordance with subsection (11) and the shareholder withdraws the demand; or
- (c) the company, by a subsequent special resolution, revokes the adopted resolution that gave rise to the shareholder's rights under this section.

[Para. (c) substituted by s. 103 (b) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

(10) If any of the events contemplated in subsection (9) occur, all of the shareholder's rights in respect of the shares are reinstated without interruption.

(11) Within five business days after the later of—

- (a) the day on which the action approved by the resolution is effective;
- (b) the last day for the receipt of demands in terms of subsection (7) (a); or
- (c) the day the company received a demand as contemplated in subsection (7) (b), if applicable, the company must send to each shareholder who has sent such a demand a written offer to pay an amount considered by the company's directors to be the fair value of the relevant shares, subject to subsection (16), accompanied by a statement showing how that value was determined.

(12) Every offer made under subsection (11)—

- (a) in respect of shares of the same class or series must be on the same terms; and
- (b) lapses if it has not been accepted within 30 business days after it was made.

(13) If a shareholder accepts an offer made under subsection (12)—

- (a) the shareholder must either in the case of—
 - (i) shares evidenced by certificates, tender the relevant share certificates to the company or the company's transfer agent; or
 - (ii) uncertificated shares, take the steps required in terms of section 53 to direct the transfer of those shares to the company or the company's transfer agent; and
- (b) the company must pay that shareholder the agreed amount within 10 business days after the shareholder accepted the offer and—
 - (i) tendered the share certificates; or

(ii) directed the transfer to the company of uncertificated shares.

(14) A shareholder who has made a demand in terms of subsections (5) to (8) may apply to a court to determine a fair value in respect of the shares that were the subject of that demand, and an order requiring the company to pay the shareholder the fair value so determined, if the company has—

- (a) failed to make an offer under subsection (11); or
- (b) made an offer that the shareholder considers to be inadequate, and that offer has not lapsed.

(15) On an application to the court under subsection (14)—

- (a) all dissenting shareholders who have not accepted an offer from the company as at the date of the application must be joined as parties and are bound by the decision of the court;
- (b) the company must notify each affected dissenting shareholder of the date, place and consequences of the application and of their right to participate in the court proceedings; and
- (c) the court—
 - (i) may determine whether any other person is a dissenting shareholder who should be joined as a party;
 - (ii) must determine a fair value in respect of the shares of all dissenting shareholders, subject to subsection (16);
 - (iii) in its discretion may—
 - (aa) appoint one or more appraisers to assist it in determining the fair value in respect of the shares; or
 - (bb) allow a reasonable rate of interest on the amount payable to each dissenting shareholder from the date the action approved by the resolution is effective, until the date of payment;
 - (iv) may make an appropriate order of costs, having regard to any offer made by the company, and the final determination of the fair value by the court; and
 - (v) must make an order requiring—
 - (aa) the dissenting shareholders to either withdraw their respective demands or to comply with subsection (13) (a); and [Item (aa) substituted by s. 103 (c) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]
 - (bb) the company to pay the fair value in respect of their shares to each dissenting shareholder who complies with subsection (13) (a), subject to any conditions the court considers necessary to ensure that the company fulfils its obligations under this section.

(15A) At any time before the court has made an order contemplated in subsection (15) (c) (v), a dissenting shareholder may accept the offer made by the company in terms of subsection (11), in which case—

- (a) that shareholder must comply with the requirements of subsection 13 (a); and
- (b) the company must comply with the requirements of subsection 13 (b).
[Sub-s. (15A) inserted by s. 103 (d) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

(16) The fair value in respect of any shares must be determined as at the date on which, and time immediately before, the company adopted the resolution that gave rise to a shareholder's rights under this section.

(17) If there are reasonable grounds to believe that compliance by a company with subsection (13) (b), or with a court order in terms of subsection (15) (c) (v) (bb), would result in the company being unable to pay its debts as they fall due and payable for the ensuing 12 months—

- (a) the company may apply to a court for an order varying the company's obligations in terms of the relevant subsection; and
- (b) the court may make an order that—
 - (i) is just and equitable, having regard to the financial circumstances of the company; and
 - (ii) ensures that the person to whom the company owes money in terms of this section is paid at the earliest possible date compatible with the company satisfying its other financial obligations as they fall due and payable.

(18) If the resolution that gave rise to a shareholder's rights under this section authorised the company to amalgamate or merge with one or more other companies, such that the company whose shares are the subject of a demand in terms of this section has ceased to exist, the obligations of that company under this section are obligations of the successor to that company resulting from the amalgamation or merger.

(19) For greater certainty, the making of a demand, tendering of shares and payment by a company to a shareholder in terms of this section do not constitute a distribution by the company, or an acquisition of its shares by the company within the meaning of section 48, and therefore are not subject to—

- (a) the provisions of that section; or
- (b) the application by the company of the solvency and liquidity test set out in section 4.

(20) Except to the extent—

- (a) expressly provided in this section; or
- (b) that the Panel rules otherwise in a particular case, a payment by a company to a shareholder in terms of this section does not obligate any person to make a comparable offer under section 125 to any other person.

[Sub-s. (20) inserted by s. 103 (e) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

165. Derivative actions.—(1) Any right at common law of a person other than a company to bring or prosecute any legal proceedings on behalf of that company is abolished, and the rights in this section are in substitution for any such abolished right.

(2) A person may serve a demand upon a company to commence or continue legal proceedings, or take related steps, to protect the legal interests of the company if the person—

- (a) is a shareholder or a person entitled to be registered as a shareholder, of the company or of a related company;
- (b) is a director or prescribed officer of the company or of a related company;
- (c) is a registered trade union that represents employees of the company, or another representative of employees of the company; or
- (d) has been granted leave of the court to do so, which may be granted only if the court is satisfied that it is necessary or expedient to do so to protect a legal right of that other person.

(3) A company that has been served with a demand in terms of subsection (2) may apply within 15 business days to a court to set aside the demand only on the grounds that it is frivolous, vexatious or without merit.

(4) If a company does not make an application contemplated in subsection (3), or the court does not set aside the demand in terms of that subsection, the company must—

- (a) appoint an independent and impartial person or committee to investigate the demand, and report to the board on—
 - (i) any facts or circumstances—
 - (aa) that may give rise to a cause of action contemplated in the demand; or
 - (bb) that may relate to any proceedings contemplated in the demand;
 - (ii) the probable costs that would be incurred if the company pursued any such cause of action or continued any such proceedings; and
 - (iii) whether it appears to be in the best interests of the company to pursue any such cause of action or continue any such proceedings; and
- (b) within 60 business days after being served with the demand, or within a longer time as a court, on application by the company, may allow, either—
 - (i) initiate or continue legal proceedings, or take related legal steps to protect the legal interests of the company, as contemplated in the demand; or
 - (ii) serve a notice on the person who made the demand, refusing to comply with it.

(5) A person who has made a demand in terms of subsection (2) may apply to a court for leave to bring or continue proceedings in the name and on behalf of the company, and the court may grant leave only if—

- (a) the company—
 - (i) has failed to take any particular step required by subsection (4);
 - (ii) appointed an investigator or committee who was not independent and impartial;
 - (iii) accepted a report that was inadequate in its preparation, or was irrational or unreasonable in its conclusions or recommendations;
 - (iv) acted in a manner that was inconsistent with the reasonable report of an independent, impartial investigator or committee; or
 - (v) has served a notice refusing to comply with the demand, as contemplated in subsection (4) (b) (ii); and
- (b) the court is satisfied that—
 - (i) the applicant is acting in good faith;
 - (ii) the proposed or continuing proceedings involve the trial of a serious question of material consequence to the company; and
 - (iii) it is in the best interests of the company that the applicant be granted leave to commence the proposed proceedings or continue the proceedings, as the case may be.

(6) In exceptional circumstances, a person contemplated in subsection (2) may apply to a court for leave to bring proceedings in the name and on behalf of the company without making a demand as contemplated in that subsection, or without affording the company time to respond to the demand in accordance with subsection (4), and the court may grant leave only if the court is satisfied that—

- (a) the delay required for the procedures contemplated in subsections (3) to (5) to be completed may result in—
 - (i) irreparable harm to the company; or
 - (ii) substantial prejudice to the interests of the applicant or another person;
- (b) there is a reasonable probability that the company may not act to prevent that harm or prejudice, or act to protect the company's interests that the applicant seeks to protect; and

(c) that the requirements of subsection (5) (b) are satisfied.

(7) A rebuttable presumption that granting leave is not in the best interests of the company arises if it is established that—

(a) the proposed or continuing proceedings are by—

- (i) the company against a third party; or
- (ii) a third party against the company;

(b) the company has decided—

- (i) not to bring the proceedings;
- (ii) not to defend the proceedings; or
- (iii) to discontinue, settle or compromise the proceedings; and

(c) all of the directors who participated in that decision—

- (i) acted in good faith for a proper purpose;
- (ii) did not have a personal financial interest in the decision, and were not related to a person who had a personal financial interest in the decision;
- (iii) informed themselves about the subject matter of the decision to the extent they reasonably believed to be appropriate; and
- (iv) reasonably believed that the decision was in the best interests of the company.

(8) For the purposes of subsection (7)—

(a) a person is a third party if the company and that person are not related or inter-related; and

[Para. (a) substituted by s. 104 (a) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

(b) proceedings by or against the company include any appeal from a decision made in proceedings by or against the company.

(9) If a court grants leave to a person under this section—

(a) the court must also make an order stating who is liable for the remuneration and expenses of the person appointed;

(b) the court may vary the order at any time;

(c) the persons who may be made liable under the order, or the order as varied, are—

- (i) all or any of the parties to the proceedings or application; and
- (ii) the company;

(d) if the order, or the order as varied, makes two or more persons liable, the order may also determine the nature and extent of the liability of each of those persons; and

(e) the person to whom leave has been granted is entitled, on giving reasonable notice to the company, to inspect any books of the company for any purpose connected with the legal proceedings.

(10) At any time, a court may make any order it considers appropriate about the costs of the following persons in relation to proceedings brought or intervened in with leave under this section, or in respect of an application for leave under this section:

(a) The person who applied for or was granted leave;

- (b) the company; or
- (c) any other party to the proceedings or application.

(11) An order under this section may require security for costs.

(12) At any time after a court has granted leave in terms of this section, a person contemplated in subsection (2) may apply to a court for an order that they be substituted for the person to whom leave was originally granted, and the court may make the order applied for if it is satisfied that—

- (a) the applicant is acting in good faith; and
- (b) it is appropriate to make the order in all the circumstances.

(13) An order substituting one person for another has the effect that—

- (a) the grant of leave is taken to have been made in favour of the substituting person; and
- (b) if the person originally granted leave has already brought the proceedings, the substituting person is taken to have brought those proceedings or to have made that intervention.

(14) If the shareholders of a company have ratified or approved any particular conduct of the company—

- (a) the ratification or approval—
 - (i) does not prevent a person from making a demand, applying for leave, or bringing or intervening in proceedings with leave under this section; and
 - (ii) does not prejudice the outcome of any application for leave, or proceedings brought or intervened in with leave under this section; or
- (b) the court may take that ratification or approval into account in making any judgment or order.

[Para. (b) substituted by s. 104 (b) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

(15) Proceedings brought or intervened in with leave under this section must not be discontinued, compromised or settled without the leave of the court.

(16) For greater certainty, the right of a person in terms of this section to serve a demand on a company, or apply to a court for leave, may be exercised by that person directly, or by the Commission or Panel, or another person on behalf of that first person, in the manner permitted by section 157.

Part C

Voluntary resolution of disputes

166. Alternative dispute resolution.—(1) As an alternative to applying for relief to a court, or filing a complaint with the Commission in terms of Part D, a person who would be entitled to apply for relief, or file a complaint in terms of this Act, may refer a matter that could be the subject of such an application or complaint for resolution by mediation, conciliation or arbitration to—

- (a) the Companies Tribunal;
- (b) an accredited entity, as defined in subsection (3); or
- (c) any other person.

[Sub-s. (1) substituted by s. 105 of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

(2) If the Companies Tribunal, or an accredited entity, to whom a matter is referred for alternative dispute resolution concludes that either party to the conciliation, mediation or arbitration is not participating in that process in good faith, or that there is no reasonable probability of the parties resolving their dispute through that process, the Companies Tribunal or accredited entity must issue a certificate in the prescribed form stating that the process has failed.

- (3) In this section, “accredited entity” means—
- (a) a juristic person or an association of persons accredited by the Commission in terms of subsection (4); or
 - (b) an organ of state, or entity established by or in terms of a public regulation that—
 - (i) is mandated, among other things, to perform mediation, conciliation or arbitration; and
 - (ii) has been designated by the Minister in terms of subsection (5) as an accredited entity for the purposes of this Part.
- (4) For the purposes of this Part, the Commission—
- (a) may accredit, with or without conditions, a juristic person or an association that—
 - (i) functions predominantly to provide conciliation, mediation or arbitration services;
 - (ii) has the demonstrated capacity to perform such services within the context of company law; and
 - (iii) satisfies the prescribed requirements for accreditation;
 - (b) must monitor the effectiveness of any accredited person or an association relative to the purposes and policies of this Act; and
 - (c) may—
 - (i) reasonably require any person or association accredited by it to provide information necessary for the purpose of monitoring in terms of paragraph (b); and
 - (ii) with reasonable notice, withdraw any accreditation granted by it in terms of this section if the person or association no longer satisfies the criteria set out in paragraph (a).
- (5) The Minister, after consulting the Commission—
- (a) may designate any organ of state or other entity contemplated in subsection (3) (b) as an accredited entity for the purposes of this Part; and
 - (b) must prescribe criteria for the Commission to follow in assessing whether an applicant for accreditation in terms of subsection (4) meets the requirements of this section.

167. Dispute resolution may result in consent order.—(1) If the Companies Tribunal, or an entity accredited in terms of section 166, has resolved, or assisted parties in resolving, a dispute in terms of this Part the Tribunal or accredited entity may—

- (a) record the resolution of that dispute in the form of an order; and
 - (b) if the parties to the dispute consent to that order, submit it to a court to be confirmed as a consent order, in terms of its rules.
- (2) After hearing an application for a consent order, the court may—
- (a) make the order as agreed and proposed in the application;
 - (b) indicate any changes that must be made to the draft order before it will be made an order of the court; or
 - (c) refuse to make the order.
- (3) A consent order confirmed in terms of subsection (2)—
- (a) may include an award of damages; and
 - (b) does not preclude a person applying for an award of civil damages, unless the consent order includes an award of damages to that person.

(4) A court hearing any proceedings concerning a dispute arising out of a consent order may order the proceedings closed to the public if it is in the interest of the confidentiality of the parties to the consent order to do so.

Part D
Complaints to Commission or Panel

168. Initiating a complaint.—(1) Any person may file a complaint in writing—

- (a) with the Panel in respect of a matter contemplated in Part B or C of Chapter 5, or in the Takeover Regulations; or
- (b) with the Commission in respect of any provision of this Act not referred to in paragraph (a), alleging that a person has acted in a manner inconsistent with this Act, or that the complainant's rights under this Act, or under a company's Memorandum of Incorporation or rules, have been infringed.

[Sub-s. (1) substituted by s. 106 of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

(2) A complaint may be initiated directly by the Commission, or the Panel, as the case may be, on its own motion or on the request of another regulatory authority.

- (a) except in the case of a direction from the Minister, issue a notice to the complainant in the prescribed form indicating that it will not investigate the complaint, if the complaint appears to be frivolous or vexatious, or does not allege any facts that, if proven, would constitute grounds for remedy under this Act;
- (b) if they think it expedient as a means of resolving the matter, refer the complainant to the Companies Tribunal, or to an accredited entity, as defined in section 166 (3), with a recommendation that the complainant seek to resolve the matter with the assistance of that agency or person; or

[Para. (b) substituted by s. 107 of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

(2) At any time during an investigation, the Commission or Panel, as the case may be, may—

 - (i) submit a proposal to the company seeking an agreement to jointly appoint an independent investigator—
 - (aa) at the expense of the company, or on a cost-shared basis; and

(bb) to report to both the company, and to the Commission or Panel, as the case may be; or

(ii) apply to a court for an order appointing an independent investigator—

(aa) at the expense of the company; and

(bb) to report to both the Commission or Panel, as the case may be, and the company.

(3) In conducting an investigation contemplated in this section an inspector or investigator may investigate any person—

(a) named in the complaint, or related to a person named in the complaint; or

170. Outcome of investigation.—(1) After receiving the report of an inspector or independent investigator, the Commission or Panel, as the case may be, may—

(ii) the Panel, refer the matter to the Executive Director, who may, among other things, issue a compliance notice in terms of section 171.

(2) The Commission or Panel, as the case may be—

(a) in its sole discretion, may publish a report contemplated in subsection (1); and

(b) irrespective whether it publishes such a report, must deliver a copy of the report to—

(i) the complainant, or a regulatory authority that requested the initiation of the complaint;

(ii) any person who was a subject of the investigation;

(iii) any court, if requested or ordered to do so by the court; and

(iv) any holder of securities, or creditor, of a company that was the subject of the report, or any other person implicated in the report, upon payment of the prescribed fee.

171. Issuance of compliance notices.—(1) Subject to subsection (3), the Commission, or the Executive Director of the Panel, may issue a compliance notice in the prescribed form to any person whom the Commission or Executive Director, as the case may be, on reasonable grounds believes—

- (a) has contravened this Act; or
- (b) assented to, was implicated in, or directly or indirectly benefited from, a contravention of this Act, unless the alleged contravention could otherwise be addressed in terms of this Act by an application to a court or to the Companies Tribunal.

[Sub-s. (1) substituted by s. 108 (a) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

(2) A compliance notice may require the person to whom it is addressed to—

(3) When issuing a notice in terms of subsection (1) to a regulated person or entity, the Commission or Executive Director, as the case may be, must send a copy of the notice to the regulatory authority that granted a licence or similar authority to that regulated person or entity, and in terms of which that person is authorised to conduct business.

(4) A compliance notice contemplated in subsection (1) must set out—

- (a) the person or association to whom the notice applies;
- (b) the provision of this Act that has been contravened;
- (c) details of the nature and extent of the non-compliance;
- (d) any steps that are required to be taken and the period within which those steps must be taken; and

[Sub-s. (4) substituted by s. 108 (b) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

(5) A compliance notice issued in terms of this section, or any part of it, remains in force until—

(6) If the requirements of a compliance notice issued in terms of subsection (1) have been satisfied, the Commission or the Executive Director, as the case may be, must issue a compliance certificate.

(7) If a person to whom a compliance notice has been issued fails to comply with the notice, the Commission or the Executive Director, as the case may be, may either—

- (a) apply to a court for the imposition of an administrative fine; or
- (b) refer the matter to the National Prosecuting Authority for prosecution as an offence in terms of section 214 (3), but may not do both in respect of any particular compliance notice.

[Sub-s. (7) substituted by s. 108 (c) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

172. Objection to notices.—(1) Any person issued with a compliance notice in terms of this Act may apply to the Companies Tribunal in the case of a notice issued by the Commission, or to the Takeover Special Committee in the case of a notice issued by the Executive Director, or to a court in either case, to review the notice within—

(2) Section 167 (2) to (4), read with the changes required by the context, applies to an application contemplated in subsection (1).

174. Referral of complaints to court.—(1) If the Commission or Panel, as the case may be, issues a notice of non-referral in response to a complaint, the complainant concerned may apply to a court for leave to refer the matter directly to the court, but no such complaint may be referred directly to a court in respect of a person who has been excused as a respondent, as contemplated in section 170 (1) (a).

(2) A court—

- (a) may grant leave contemplated in subsection (1) only if it appears that the applicant has no other remedy available in terms of this Act; and
- (b) if it grants leave, and after conducting a hearing, determines that the respondent has contravened the Act, may—
 - (i) require the Commission or Executive Director, as the case may be, to issue a compliance notice sufficient to address that contravention; or
 - (ii) make any other order contemplated in this Act that is just and reasonable in the circumstances.

175. Administrative fines.—(1) A court, on application by the Commission or Panel, may impose an administrative fine—

Summons.—(1) At any time during an investigation being conducted by it, the Commission, or the Panel, as the case may be, may issue a summons to any person who is believed to be able to furnish any information on the subject of the investigation, or to have possession or control of any book, document or other object that has a bearing on that subject to—

(4) A person questioned by the Commission, the Panel, or an inspector or independent investigator conducting an investigation must answer each question truthfully and to the best of that person's ability, but—

- (a) a person is not obliged to answer any question if the answer is self-incriminating; and
- (b) the person asking the questions must inform that person of the right set out in paragraph (a).

(5) No self-incriminating answer given or statement made by any person to the Commission, Panel, or an inspector or independent investigator exercising powers in terms of this Act will be admissible as evidence against that person in criminal proceedings against that person instituted in any court, except in criminal proceedings for perjury or in which that person is tried for an offence contemplated in section 215 (2) (e), and then only to the extent that the answer or statement is relevant to prove the offence charged.

177. (5) A person authorised by a warrant issued in terms of subsection (2) may enter and search premises named in that warrant.

(6) Immediately before commencing with the execution of a warrant, a person executing that warrant must either—

- (a) if the owner, or person in control, of the premises to be searched is present—
 - (i) provide identification to that person and explain to that person the authority by which the warrant is being executed; and

- (ii) hand a copy of the warrant to that person or to the person named in it; or
- (b) if none of those persons is present, affix a copy of the warrant to the premises in a prominent and visible place.

 - (ii) reproduce any record from that data; and
- (h) seize any output from that computer for examination and copying; and
- (i) attach, and, if necessary, remove from the premises for examination and safekeeping, anything that has a bearing on the investigation.

(2) Section 176 (4) and (5) apply to—

- (a) any person questioned by an inspector or police officer in terms of this section; or

(6) If the owner or person in control of an article or document refuses in terms of subsection (5) to give that article or document to the person conducting the search, the person conducting the search may request the registrar or sheriff of the High Court that has jurisdiction to attach and remove the article or document for safe custody until that court determines whether or not the information is privileged.

(7) A police officer who is authorised to enter and search premises under section 177, or who is assisting an inspector who is authorised to enter and search premises under section 178 may overcome resistance to the entry and search by using as much force as is reasonably required, including breaking a door or window of the premises.

(8) Before using force in terms of subsection (7), a police officer must audibly demand admission and must announce the purpose of the entry, unless it is reasonable to believe that doing so may induce someone to destroy or dispose of an article or document that is the object of the search.

(9) The Commission may compensate anyone who suffers damage because of a forced entry during a search when no one responsible for the premises was present.

Part F
